, Starlight John Tranter, 2011-04 Poor Doris she was like an uprooted tree swirling through the eye of a tornado one viewer feels an aquatic Dorothy Gale in a gale Then she married again and again but America is sleeping safely with its secrets in the Western night Radical revisions mistranslations and multilingual dealings in Starlight John Tranter destroys and rebuilds works by poets including Baudelaire Mallarm Ashbery and T S Eliot The back story of modern poetry is vigorously interrogated though the narratives are contemporary and the action takes place in the arena of the here and now The atmosphere crackles with colloquial energy and the dialogue undercuts itself with a dry wit Tranter's restless craft is evident in the service of a complex and free ranging style in this brilliantly playful collection Beautiful Objects Martin Johnston, 2020-08 Born in Sydney and brought up in Greece Martin Johnston's experience of two languages and two cultures led him to produce a body of work that is both very Australian and quintessentially European This selection includes his two previously published volumes some of his early poems and Greek translations and the work he produced in the period before his death in 1990 It shows the range of Martin's voice the clarity of his perception and the breadth of his passions Martin was a dear friend kind shy witty erudite charming and endlessly generous We were lucky to have him among us we shall never see his like again John Tranter Johnston's profound and richly allusive poetry is the zenith of an unrivalled intellect Gig Ryan
 The Moment Made Marvellous Thomas W.
