Pursuing China Brian L. Evans, 2012-02-29 A memoir of one academic's lifelong fascination with China examining China's history as well as its relationship with Canada Brian Evans blends memoir and history to draw a vivid picture of China and its cultural outreach over the past three decades His historical and sociological insights as student scholar and administrator form an authentic commentary as he discusses China and the Cold War the Cultural Revolution the post Mao transformation of China Canada's relations with China the cultural impact of the overseas Chinese community on the Canadian Prairies development of China studies in Canada and elsewhere the current impact of China on Canadian higher education and recent Chinese history seen within a broader context With this book Evans seeks to make a contribution to the understanding of the nature and wide range of Canada China relations an area in which he himself has played a role Praise for Pursuing China It's no dry academic tome Instead Evans mixes his analysis of China's history and geopolitics with raucous yarns recounting his personal adventures and misadventures at home and abroad Paula Simons Edmonton Journal As a memoirist Evans has two great strengths The first is his sense of humour which brings us several wonderful anecdotes Evans second strength is his unflinching honesty Diana Lary Pacific Affairs Vol 85 No 4 Evans book makes compelling reading George Fetherling Diplomat and International Canada Summer 2012 McGill University Stanley Brice Frost,1980 James McGill is an important figure in Canada s history in his own right The bequest made in 1813 for the founding of a university of which one college was to bear his name only increased that significance The political tensions of Lower Canada delayed implementation of his plans for sixteen years and then it was only by incorporating the Montreal Medical Institution as Faculty of Medicine that in 1829 a beginning could be made Thirty years after his death the Faculty of Arts was finally established but not until the trustee body known as the Royal Institution for the Advancement of Learning was moved from Quebec City to Montreal and established as its board of governors did McGill College begin to revive and hold out promise of a respectable future China's Millennium Transformation: The Belt And Road Initiative Da-hsuan Feng,2020-06-16 This is a book on the Belt and Road Initiative written from an unusual perspective it is written by someone who was born in India but raised in Singapore who has never spent a day of schooling in the greater China Mainland Taiwan Hong Kong and Macau but has Chinese heritage who eventually built a long and distinguished career in the West With such an atypical background he took an off the beaten path approach by asking the fundamental question of how such an important initiative began entirely by China can deeply impact and transform the millennium mindset of Chinese Such a transformation of the Chinese shall render a new definition of what a powerful nation in the 21st century should be for the betterment of humanity This is unlike the one made by Western civilization for many centuries since the Renaissance days Three main outcomes of the BRI have been embedded directly or indirectly throughout the book Supercontinent Neo Renaissance and Cultural Communications The author felt that these three outcomes are the possible mitigation for the world in the 21st century facing existential challenges Related Link s

Roxanne Rimstead, Domenico A. Beneventi, 2019-02-28 Contested Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Quebec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Quebecois literature and cultural performances posing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the products of sustained high level collaboration across French and English academic communities in Canada to facilitate theoretical exchange on the topic of space and contestation uncover geographies of exclusion and generate new spaces of hope in the spirit of pioneering works by Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault Michel de Certeau Doreen Massey David Harvey and other prominent theorists of space The International Medical Relief Corps in Wartime China, 1937-1945 Robert Mamlok, M.D., 2018-09-21 Both before and during World War II the Nazis restricted the rights of Jewish and communist doctors Some fought back first by fighting against Fascism in the Spanish Civil War and then by helping the Chinese in their struggle against Japan There were however two rival factions in China One favored Chiang Kai shek the nationalists and the other the communists and 27 foreign medical personnel were caught between them Amidst poverty war and corruption living conditions were poor and traveling was hazardous This book follows members of the Chinese Red Cross Medical Relief Corps through the war as they became enemy aliens and pursued their work despite the perils These doctors had a keen sense of public health needs and contributed to the recognition and management of infectious diseases and nutritional disorders all the while denouncing corruption inhumanity and inequality
