Preaching As Prophetic Calling:

Preaching as Prophetic Calling Roger Alling, David J. Schlafer, 2004-02 Each volume would follow the pattern of 1 a brief opening introductory essay that would shape the context for that volume 2 a selection of sermons from preachers active in the pulpit organized under headings appropriate to the topic of the volume as well as sub topics within the volume 3 several complementary and reflective essays from professionals of distinction in the field of homiletics 4 sermons from the annual Preaching Excellence Conference as exemplified in the previous Preaching Through the Year of Matthew Mark and Luke

Prophetic Preaching Otto Justice Baab, 1958 Connections: A Lectionary Commentary for Preaching and Worship Thomas G. Long, 2019-04-23 Designed to empower preachers as they lead their congregations to connect their lives to Scripture Connections features a broad set of interpretive tools that provide commentary and worship aids on the Revised Common Lectionary For each worship day within the three year lectionary cycle the commentaries in Connections link the individual lection reading with Scripture as a whole as well as to the larger world In addition Connections places each Psalm reading in conversation with the other lections for the day to highlight the themes of the liturgical season Finally sidebars offer additional connections to Scripture for each Sunday or worship day This nine volume series is a practical constructive and valuable resource for preachers who seek to help congregations connect more closely with Scripture This volume covers Year C for the season after Pentecost

Preaching Prophetic Care Phillis Isabella Sheppard, Dawn Ottoni-Wilhelm, Ronald J. Allen, 2018-06-25 Preachers often think of prophetic preaching in the caricature of the prophet as the lonely outsider confronting the congregation often angrily with the congregation's complicity in social injustice and with a bracing call for repentance The twenty seven essays and sermons in this book offer a different perspective by viewing prophetic preaching specifically and ministry practical theology and theological education more broadly as pastoral care for the community in prophetic perspective Such preaching does indeed bring a critical theological analysis of justice concerns to the center of the sermon but in such a way as to invite the congregation to consider how the move toward justice is a pastoral move that is a move that seeks to build up community Rather than contributing to the polarization so rampant in today's social world the preacher seeks to help the congregation build bridges along which concern for justice can travel The contributions honor the work of the late Dale Andrews a scholar of preaching and practical theology at the Divinity School Vanderbilt University whose seminal work inspires the notions of prophetic care and building bridges to justice

Prophetic Preaching Ian S. Markham, Crystal J. Hardin, 2020-03-17 A collection of provocative inspiring and thoughtful essays about the place of politics in the pulpit This book is the first collection of essays to explore the question is there room for politics from the pulpit In response to an increasingly polarized society preachers grapple with the call to witness a unifying Truth in a world where truth appears subjective While many congregations respond positively to social and political themes in sermons others do not Episcopalians in the conservative minority may be uncomfortable with political themed preaching while liberal Episcopalians demand a political message from the pulpit What is a preacher to do when the Episcopal Church is no more immune to the temptation of polarization than the secular world Contributors to this volume serve in a variety of contexts and bring with them their own distinct styles and visions Anyone with an interest in the practical implications addressing the current political climate from the pulpit will find these essays provocative inspiring and thoughtful Contributors Samuel G Chandler Sarah T Condon Alex Dyer Crystal J Hardin Ruthanna Hooke Mark Jefferson Russell J Levenson Jr Ian Markham Phoebe Roaf Stephanie Spellars Samuel Wells Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston,2021 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit

Connections: A Lectionary Commentary for Preaching and Worship ,2018-09-11 Designed to empower preachers as they lead their congregations to connect their lives to Scripture Connections features a broad set of interpretive tools that provide commentary and worship aids on the Revised Common Lectionary For each worship day within the three year lectionary cycle the commentaries in Connections link the individual lection reading with Scripture as a whole as well as to the larger world In addition Connections places each Psalm reading in conversation with the other lections for the day to highlight the themes of the liturgical season Finally sidebars offer additional connections to Scripture for each Sunday or worship day This nine volume series is a practical constructive and valuable resource for preachers who seek to help congregations connect more closely with Scripture Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku,2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God s saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God s image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God Take Up and Preach Blayne A. Banting,2016-03-08 The foundation of a good biblical sermon is the biblical text Take Up and Preach is a helpful guide for the preacher in how to approach a biblical text with the
