Dreams of Emancipation Norihiro Naganawa, 2025-09-30 Given Russia s invasion of Ukraine why do emancipation messages that emanated from Russia count Navigating multilingual sources this book addresses the role of Russia's multiethnic society and borderlands in generating kaleidoscopic repercussions of its 1917 Revolution It also sees the USSR's interactions with its neighboring countries as a crucible of the Soviet modality of communism The book shows how the collapse of the Russian Empire further released a vast range of liberationist projects and dreams far from confined to the goals of Bolshevism in its borderlands and beyond and how the Soviet Union became a highly ambiguous source of emancipatory inspiration in the long twentieth century overshadowing today's global politics

The Cambridge World History of Genocide: Volume 1, Genocide in the Ancient, Medieval and Premodern Worlds Ben Kiernan, T. M. Lemos, Tristan S. Patriotism and Piety in Armenian Christianity Abraham Terian, 2005 Armenian Christianity manifests a unique blend of patriotism and piety given its ethnic character from the outset and the fact of its having survived the unfavorable currents of history Beginning from the inception of Armenian letters at the turn of the fifth century the author surveys that blend in ancient Armenian sources spanning a thousand years He shows how the theme finds its fullest manifestation as a literary motif in the medieval panegyrics dedicated to St Gregory the Illuminator founder of the Armenian Church at the dawn of the fourth century Of these the panegyric by Hovhannes of Erzenka a prolific author of the thirteenth century exhibits all the characteristics of the motif in ancient Armenian literature Consequently his work receives ample coverage in this unique study including a translation of the entire text with commentary Annotated selections from the other panegyrics on St Gregory complete the book the second volume in the AVANT series devoted to the study of the Armenian Christian heritage

BOOK JACKET The Viability of a Worldwide Armenian Organization Z.S. Andrew Demirdjian Ph.D., 2010-10-16 Demirdjian was reprinted and with a much bigger run The book published in 2010 by Xlibris is a blueprint for the future of the Armenian nation The slim volume 185 pages should be pored over by every Armenian committed to a bright future for Armenians The book makes a persuasive case on how to connect the fragmented Armenian Diaspora Dr Demirdjian believes the creation of a pan Armenian organization would be the first concrete step to unite Armenians and subsequently proceed with their campaign for compensation and restitution from Turkey A meta Armenian organization can be a permanent entity looking after the national interests of all Armenians He argues that its time to establish a worldwide meta organization to unite Armenians with the primary goal of campaigning for the return of Western Armenia and Cilicia to Armenian rule To reach that goal Armenians need critical mass The contention that large number are the common denominators of any organized political effort at achieving results has been a truism in the past present and the future is beyond refutation he says It would take an enemy of the Armenians to disagree with the assertion But before demanding land and property Armenian organizations have to coalesce and to rally around a single strategy Dr Demirdjian suggests the coining of a word Araratism which would serve as the name of the ideology of all Armenians working together to regain at least parts of Western Armenia and for enhancing conditions for the Republic of Armenia and Artsakh While we talk about being a nation of 8 million we collectively punch way below our weight because of fragmentation and our rejection of compromise he says A pan Armenian organization would give us the critical mass so that we would be taken seriously in international fora The success of Genocide centennial commemorations demonstrated that when we work together we can make our voices heard above the international media din Its safe to assume that the Pope wouldnt have been familiar with the Armenian Genocide had his Armenian acquaintances in Buenos Aires not familiarized him with the great calamity inflicted upon our nation by Turkey While Dr Demirdjian makes the case for the necessity of a pan Armenian organization the nitty gritty of setting up such an organization is provided by Harut Sassounian the publisher of California Courier In the books last chapter Proposal to Create a Framework for Uniting the Diaspora Armenians Sassounian provides a toolbox for the construct There are a number of organizations which are trying to represent the Western Armenians the National Congress of Western Armenians the National Council of Western Armenians Government in Exile of Western Armenians Most Diaspora Armenians know little or nothing about them primarily because the Diaspora media often controlled by the political parties are reluctant to cover the activities of rivals let alone promote them Its this divisiveness which Dr Demirdjian rightly condemns in his timely book Will our leaders continue to dismiss the concept of a pan Armenian organization or will they unshackle themselves from the business as usual dead end model Will they continue to behave like our divisive and destructive nakharars or embrace the bracing idea When will they realize that the Diaspora could vanish in a few generations if the Diaspora establishment doesnt get its act together Intellectual and Spiritual Expression of Non-Literate Peoples Emmanuel Anati, 2016-02-08 Proceedings of the session Intellectual and Spiritual Expression of Non literate Peoples part of the XVII World UISPP Congress held in Burgos 2014 The session brought together experts from various disciplines to share experience and scientific approaches for a better understanding of human creativity and behaviour in prehistory The City Lament Tamar M. Boyadjian, 2018-12-15 Poetic elegies for lost or fallen cities are seemingly as old as cities themselves In the Judeo Christian tradition this genre finds its purest expression in the book of Lamentations which mourns the destruction of Jerusalem in Arabic this genre is known as the ritha al mudun In The City Lament Tamar M Boyadjian traces the trajectory of the genre across the Mediterranean world during the period commonly referred to as the early Crusades 1095 1191 focusing on elegies and other expressions of loss that address the spiritual and strategic objective of those wars Jerusalem Through readings of city laments in English French Latin Arabic and Armenian literary traditions Boyadjian challenges hegemonic and entrenched approaches to the study of medieval literature and the Crusades The City Lament exposes significant literary intersections between Latin Christendom the Islamic caliphates of the Middle East and the Armenian kingdom of Cilicia arguing for shared poetic and rhetorical modes Reframing our understanding of literary sources produced across the medieval Mediterranean from an antagonistic orientalist model to an analogous one Boyadjian demonstrates how lamentations about the loss of Jerusalem whether to Muslim or Christian forces reveal fascinating parallels and rich cross cultural exchanges
