Matrices ,1995 Looking for Harlem Maria Balshaw,2000-12-20 Taking the incredible flowering of African American literature in the 1920s as its starting point Looking for Harlem offers a cogent and persuasive new reading of a diverse range of twentieth century black American writing From the streets subways hotels and cabarets of New York s Harlem and Chicago s Southside Maria Balshaw moves beyond the canon to encompass often neglected writing by Rudolph Fisher Wallace Thurman and Claude McKay as well as the more familiar work of Richard Wright Ralph Ellison Nella Larsen and Toni Morrison In a provocative revision of African American literary history Balshaw examines the creation of an urban aesthetic and explores the links between the engagement with the city and fictional reconstructions of racial identity and race writing Focusing on the material culture of the city the visual sense of the urban environment the class dynamics of urban culture and the crucial importance of consumerism this study presents a critically astute challenging and very welcome new approach to a much studied area of contemporary American fiction New Books on Women and Feminism ,1993

Amaza Lee Meredith Imagines Herself Modern Jacqueline Taylor,2023-11-28 The extraordinary life and work of architect Amaza Lee Meredith and the role modernism and material culture played in the aspiring Black American middle class of the early twentieth century Amaza Lee Meredith Imagines Herself Modern tells the captivating story of Amaza Lee Meredith a Black woman architect artist and educator born into the Jim Crow South whose bold choices in both life and architecture expand our understanding of the Great Migration and the Harlem Renaissance while revealing the importance of architecture as a force in Black middle class identity Through her charismatic protagonist Jacqueline Taylor derives new insights into the experiences of Black women at the forefront of culture in early twentieth century America caught between expectation and ambition responsibility and desire Central to Taylor s argument is that Meredith s response to modern architecture and art like those of other Black cultural producers was not marginal to the modernist project instead her work reveals the tensions and inconsistencies in how American modernism has been defined In this way the book shines a necessary light on modernism's complexity while overturning perceived notions of race and gender in relation to the modernist project and challenging the notion of the white male hero of modern architecture

Sapphic Primitivism Robin Hackett, 2004 In this book Robin Hackett examines portrayals of race class and sexuality in modernist texts by white women to argue for the existence of a literary device that she calls Sapphic primitivism The works vary widely in their form and content and include Olive Schreiner's proto modernist exploration of New Womanhood The Story of an African Farm Virginia Woolf's high modernist play poem The Waves Sylvia Townsend Warner's historical novel Summer Will Show and Willa Cather's Southern pastoral Sapphira and the Slave Girl In each blackness and working class culture are figured to represent sexual autonomy including lesbianism for white women Sapphic primitivism exposes the ways several classes of identification were intertwined with the development of homosexual identities at the turn of the century Sapphic primitivism is not however a means of disguising lesbian content Rather it is an aesthetic displacement device that simultaneously exposes lesbianism and exploits modern primitivist modes of self representation Hackett's revelations of the mutual interests of those who study early twentieth century constructions of race and sexuality and twenty first century feminists doing anti racist and queer work are a major contribution to literary studies and identity theory
