Genocide and Fascism Aristotle Kallis, 2008-09-25 This book investigates how fascism as an ideology and political praxis reconfigured the ideological political and moral landscape of interwar Europe generating an atmosphere of extreme license that facilitated the leap into eliminationist violence It demonstrates how fascist ideology linked the prospect of violent cleansing to utopias of national racial regeneration thus encouraging and legitimizing targeted hatred against particular others It also shows how the diffusion and internationalization of fascism in the 1930s produced a sense of a revolutionary new beginning and created a transnational fascist new order in which Nazi Germany came to occupy a potent position of authority The book analyzes how the eliminationist initiative and precedent of Nazi Germany became a second license that empowered fascist regimes across Europe to embark on their own eliminationist projects with diminished accountability Finally it examines how this license enhanced by the actions of fascists and the collapse of order caused by World War Two released individuals and communities from the burden of legal and moral accountability turning them into accomplices in the most wide brutal and devastating genocidal campaign that the continent had ever experienced Western and Northern Europe 1940-June 1942 Katja Happe, Michael Mayer, Maja Peers, 2021-12-31 Executive editors Katja Happe Michael Mayer and Maja Peers with Jean Marc Dreyfus English language edition prepared by Caroline Pearce Johannes Gamm Georg Felix Harsch and Dorothy Mas In April May 1940 the German Wehrmacht invaded Northern and Western Europe The subsequent occupation of Norway Denmark the Netherlands Belgium Luxembourg and France brought the Jewish population of these countries both established residents and refugees under German control From autumn 1941 in Luxembourg and from spring summer 1942 in Belgium the Netherlands and occupied France Jews were required to wear the Jewish star and many were subjected to forced labour By mid 1942 deportations from Luxembourg and France to the ghettos and extermination camps in occupied Eastern Europe had already begun while in the other occupied countries they were imminent In April 1942 Alfred Oppenheimer the Jewish elder in Luxembourg wrote A dreadful fate hangs over our community again The worst that can happen has now happened and the Poland transport is a certainty This volume covers Norway and Western Europe during the period from the German invasion to mid 1942 developments in Denmark for this period are documented in vol 12 and records how Jews in these parts of Europe were excluded from society and stripped of their rights livelihoods and property Letters and diary entries by the persecuted Jews detail life under German occupation and the attempts by many Jews to emigrate The sources show how Jewish organizations sought to alleviate the impact of persecution and how the German occupiers and local collaborators targeted Jews with increasingly stringent measures and clamped down on any form of resistance Learn more about the PMJ on <https://pmjdocuments.org> Scandinavia and the Great Powers 1890-1940 Patrick Salmon, 2002-04-11 At the beginning of the twentieth century Scandinavia lay on the margin of European power politics but with the polarisation of international relations in the era of the two world wars Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden became the point where the spheres of influence of three great powers Great Britain Germany and Russia intersected In this book Patrick Salmon uses his extensive research in British German and Scandinavian archives to examine the position of the Nordic countries in the great power rivalries and conflicts of the period 1890 1940 However it does not treat the Nordic countries merely as passive victims It seeks to show that despite the disparity in strength between the great powers and the small states of northern Europe the latter had means of adapting to great power pressures and even influencing the policies of their formidable neighbours Scandinavian Studies ,1974 Includes Proceedings of the Society Corporatism and Fascism Antonio Costa Pinto,2017-02-17 This book is the first conceptual and comparative empirical work on the relation between corporatism and dictatorships bringing both fields under a joint conceptual umbrella It operationalizes the concepts of social and political corporatism diffusion and critical junctures and their particular application to the study of Fascist Era dictatorships The book s carefully constructed balance between theory and case studies offers an important contribution to the study of dictatorships and corporatism Through the development of specific indicators in critical junctures of regime change and institutionalization as well as qualitative data based on different sources such as party manifestos constitutions and constitutional reforms expert commissions and the legislation that introduces corporatism this book traces transnational sources of inspiration in different national contexts By bringing together a number of both established and new voices from across the field this book will be of interest to students and scholars of fascism dictatorship and modern European politics

Fascism and the Right in Europe 1919-1945 Martin Blinkhorn,2014-07-22 This new text places interwar European fascism squarely in its historical context and analyses its relationship with other right wing authoritarian movements and regimes Beginning with the ideological roots of fascism in pre 1914 Europe Martin Blinkhorn turns to the problem torn Europe of 1919 to 1939 in order to explain why fascism emerged and why in some settings it flourished while in others it did not In doing so he considers not just the major fascist movements and regimes of Italy and Germany but the entire range of fascist and authoritarian ideas movements and regimes present in the Europe of 1919 1945
