Race Ethnicity And Education Teaching And Learning In Multi Ethnic Schools:

Race, Ethnicity and Education David Gillborn, 2003-09-02 This book is a major new investigation into the issues of race ethnicity and education following the educational reforms during the late 1980s It provides an up to date and critical introduction to current issues and major research findings in the field exploring the teacher pupil relationship through a detailed account of life in an inner city comprehensive It reveals the influence of different racist stereotypes and highlights the especially disadvantaged position of Afro Caribbean pupils within a school Features Draws on a wide variety of research projects in ethnic schools to examine achievement curriculum content language use assessment and testing under the National Curriculum Uses material collected during two years of research to consider young people s school experiences and issues relating to classroom discipline

Race and Ethnicity in Multi-ethnic Schools James Ryan, 1999 This text explores the representation of race ethnicity in a multiethnic school Employing a critical case study approach it appeals to the wider social context to explain the unequal struggle over the meaning of race and ethnicity in the school In doing so it examines how stereotyping curriculum identity and language practices provide advantages for some and penalize others The book also provides suggestions for how educators might find ways to introduce discourses that make it possible for traditionally marginalized students and members of the community to have their voices heard and to shape meanings that work in their interest

Race, Ethnicity, and Education E. Wayne Ross, 2006 Important original essays present a cross disciplinary examination of multicultural education linguistic diversity racial and ethnic identity and anti racist educational practices

Multicultural Education Policies in Canada and the United States Reva Joshee, Lauri Johnson, 2011-11-01

Multicultural Education Policies in Canada and the United States uses a dialogical approach to examine responses to increasing cultural and racial diversity in both countries It compares and contrasts foundational myths and highlights the sociopolitical contexts that affect the conditions of citizenship access to education and inclusion of diverse cultural knowledge and languages in educational systems

Perspectives on Student Behaviour in Schools Mere Berryman, Ted Glynn, Janice Wearmouth, 2007-05-07 The authors of this comprehensive text discuss the root causes of disruptive behaviour tackle assessment issues and develop effective intervention strategies that will be of practical use to teachers and other educators Whilst theorising behaviour management from a range of perspectives psychodynamic behavioural and socio cultural the authors remain firmly focused on practical issues of policy making assessment and intervention and address a wide range of related issues such as policy in relation to behaviour in schools at local authority national and international level cultural concerns race gender school discipline and exclusion medical perspectives of topical interest such as ADHD autism and diet assessment at district community classroom and individual level and how these underpin theory This book will appeal to anyone for whom behaviour in schools is a key concern such as student teachers teacher educators senior school managers and practising teachers undertaking further study in the field

Resources in Education , 2001-10

Understanding Pedagogy Peter Mortimore, 1999-10-26 I commend it to anyone with a concern for teaching in any of its forms School Leadership Management In this controversial book Peter Mortimore and a team from London University's Institute of Education explore what is meant by the term pedagogy They investigate its context and describe some of the recent shifts in thinking about it Pedagogy affects the way hundreds of thousands of learners of different ages and stages are taught Yet until recently it has been a neglected topic Instead of having access to systematic evidence about its impact innovative teachers have been guided only by ideological positions folk wisdom and fashionable enthusiasms for particular approaches

Equity and Excellence in Education Kris Van den Branden, Piet Van Avermaet, Mieke Van Houtte, 2010-12-14 Taking an international perspective this volume explores numerous issues gender socio economic and linguistic background teachers expectations pedagogical approaches parental support educational policies e g priority policies multilingual policies early start policies and their effects on equity in education

Education, Work and Identity Michael Tomlinson, 2013-02-14 Education Work and Identity explores changing patterns of education and work the dynamic relationship between these two institutions and the wider social and economic contexts shaping them It locates this in processes of social and economic change in particular the shift towards globalization and the post industrial economy The book examines how these changes have reshaped individuals educational transitional and labour market experiences It also explores key themes and approaches in understanding the education and labour market interplay and the way in which education and work institutions shape people's orientations and identities around work

The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education P. Stevens, A. Dworkin, 2014-01-22 This comprehensive state of the art reference work provides the first systematic review to date of how sociologists have studied the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality over the last thirty years in eighteen different national contexts

Multiculturalism and Education Richard Race, 2015-02-26 There is a need to rethink education studies in these times of change in terms of literacies and technologies conflict and environmental concerns and a need for authoritative texts addressing the key areas within education sociology child and infant development social justice policy social welfare and development and multiculturalism This popular text provides approaches to the theoretical perspectives and frameworks and focuses on the relevant literature surrounding multiculturalism for today's students This new edition includes a completely new contemporary chapter on the notion of multicultural citizenship and new integrationist policies in England including the latest research on citizenship immigration and integration as applied to worldwide education policy making Including extensive examples of empirical research study questions updated references and website resources Multiculturalism and Education 2e is essential reading for all those studying multiculturalism at undergraduate and postgraduate levels within education and the wider social sciences today

Mixed Matters Denise Williams, 2011 More often than not mixed race pupils are simply referred to as black and tend to be encompassed in a larger more diverse group of black pupils but the increased presence of mixed race pupils in schools needs to focus the efforts of education professionals to address issues of race ethnicity and culture Mixed Matters is essential reading for all educational professionals who want to get to grips with the issues that face mixed families and the pupils themselves as they share their personal experiences of what it is like to be them in the British schooling system The young people featured in this book challenge some of the commonly held assumptions made about them especially regarding their aspirations This book contains some resources that can be used to support work with mixed race pupils as well as initial training and professional development of teachers The book also details the approach of Mix d formerly the Multiple Heritage Project in organising youth conferences and training youth facilitators of mixed race to lead their peers in discussions about school and identity

The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education Peter A.J. Stevens,A. Gary Dworkin,2019-07-05 This authoritative state of the art reference work builds on its first edition to provide a cutting edge systematic review of the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality Studying 25 different national contexts drawn from every inhabited continent on earth and building upon material from the earlier edition the work analyses educational policies practices and research on minority students immigrants and refugees The editors and contributors explore principal research traditions from countries as diverse as Argentina China Norway and South Africa examining the factors promoting social cohesion as well as considerations regarding the use of international test score data Seamlessly integrating findings of national reviews the editors and contributors analyse how national contexts of race ethnic relations shape the character and content of educational inequalities and deftly map out new directions for future research in the area Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable reference resource for a wide range of academics students and researchers in the fields of education sociology race and ethnicity studies and social policy Chapter 20 of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4 0 license at SpringerLink https://link.springer.com/chapter/10.1007/978-3-319-94724-2\_20
