Race Men By Carby:

Let Us Make Men D'Weston Haywood, 2018-09-25 During its golden years the twentieth century black press was a tool of black men's leadership, public voice and gender and identity formation. Those at the helm of black newspapers used their platforms to wage a fight for racial justice and black manhood. In a story that stretches from the turn of the twentieth century to the rise of the Black Power movement, D'Weston Haywood argues that black people's ideas, rhetoric and protest strategies for racial advancement grew out of the quest for manhood led by black newspapers. This history departs from standard narratives of black protest, black men and the black press by positioning newspapers at the intersections of gender, ideology, race, class, identity, urbanization, the public sphere and black institutional life. Shedding crucial new light on the deep roots of African Americans' mobilizations around issues of rights and racial justice during the twentieth century, Let Us Make Men reveals the critical, complex role black male publishers played in grounding those issues in a quest to redeem black manhood.

Research Handbook on Intersectionality Mary Romero, 2023-03-02 Critical intersectional scholarship enhances researchers and scholar activists' ability to open novel research frontiers. This forward thinking Research Handbook demonstrates how to pursue fluid and innovative research approaches, identify differences from traditional methodologies and overcome the common challenges faced when carrying out intersectional research.

The Kind of Man I Am Nichole Rustin-Paschal, 2017-09-12 Nearly four decades after his death, Charles Mingus Jr remains one of the least understood and most recognized jazz composers and musicians of our time. Mingus's ideas about music, racial identity and masculinity, as well as those of other individuals in his circle like Celia Mingus, Hazel Scott and Joni Mitchell, challenged jazz itself as a model of freedom, inclusion, creativity and emotional expressivity. Drawing on archival records, published memoirs and previously conducted interviews, The Kind of Man I Am uses Mingus as a lens through which to craft a gendered cultural history of postwar jazz culture. This book challenges the persisting narrative of Mingus as jazz's Angry Man by examining the ways the language of emotion has been used in jazz as shorthand for competing ideas about masculinity, authenticity, performance and authority.

Routledge Handbook of Physical Cultural Studies Michael Silk, David Andrews, Holly Thorpe, 2017-02-10 Physical cultural studies (PCS) is a dynamic and rapidly developing field of study. This handbook offers the first definitive account of the state of the art in PCS, showcasing the latest research and methodological approaches. It examines the boundaries, preoccupations, theories and politics of PCS, drawing on transdisciplinary expertise from areas as diverse as sport studies, sociology, history, cultural studies, performance studies and anthropology. Featuring chapters written by world leading scholars, this handbook examines the most important themes and issues within PCS, exploring the active body through the lens of class, age, gender, sexuality, race, ethnicity, disability, medicine, religion, space and culture. Each chapter provides an overview of the state of knowledge in a particular subject area while also considering possibilities for developing future research. Representing a landmark contribution to physical cultural studies and allied fields, the Routledge Handbook of

We Are the Leaders We Have Been Looking For Eddie Glaude Jr.,2024-04-16 Eddie S Glaude Jr weaves personal anecdotes and meditations to offer a positive vision for Black politics the importance of ordinary people assuming the mantle of leaders and heroes our democracy desperately needs To build a better world we must cultivate our best selves not rely on the professional politicians who purportedly represent us

There's a Disco Ball Between Us Jafari Sinclair Allen,2021-11-15 In There's a Disco Ball Between Us Jafari S Allen offers a sweeping and lively ethnographic and intellectual history of what he calls Black gay habits of mind In conversational and lyrical language Allen locates this sensibility as it emerged from radical Black lesbian activism and writing during the long 1980s He traverses multiple temporalities and locations drawing on research and fieldwork conducted across the globe from Nairobi London and Paris to Toronto Miami and Trinidad and Tobago In these locations and archives Allen traces the genealogies of Black gay politics and cultures in the visual art poetry film Black feminist theory historiography and activism of thinkers and artists such as Audre Lorde Marsha P Johnson Essex Hemphill Colin Robinson Marlon Riggs Pat Parker and Joseph Beam Throughout Allen renarrates Black queer history while cultivating a Black gay method of thinking and writing In so doing he speaks to the urgent contemporary struggles for social justice while calling on Black studies to pursue scholarship art and policy derived from the lived experience and fantasies of Black people throughout the world

Hope & Scorn Michael J. Brown,2020-10-02 Intellectuals have been both rallying points and railed against in American politics vessels of hope and targets of scorn writes Michael J Brown as he invigorates a recurrent debate in American life Are intellectual public figures essential voices of knowledge and wisdom or out of touch elites Hope and Scorn investigates the role of high profile experts and thinkers in American life and their ever fluctuating relationship with the political and public spheres From Eisenhower's era to Obama's the intellectual's role in modern democracy has been up for debate What makes an intellectual and who can claim that privileged title What are intellectuals obligations to society and how if at all are their contributions compatible with democracy For some intellectuals were models of civic engagement For others the rise of the intellectual signaled the fall of the citizen Carrying us through six key moments in this debate Brown expertly untangles the shifting anxieties and aspirations for democracy in America in the second half of the twentieth century and beyond Hope and Scorn begins with egghead politicians like Adlai Stevenson profiles scholars like Richard Hofstadter and scholars turned politicians like H Stuart Hughes and ends with the rise of public intellectuals such as bell hooks and Cornel West In clear and unburdened prose Brown explicates issues of power authority political backlash and more Hope and Scorn is an essential guide to American concerns about intellectuals their myriad shortcomings and their formidable abilities Boys Don't Cry? Milette Shamir, Jennifer Travis, 2002 We take for granted the idea that white middle class straight masculinity connotes total control of emotions emotional inexpressivity and emotional isolation That men repress their feelings as they seek their fortunes in the competitive worlds of business and politics seems to be a given This collection of essays by prominent literary and cultural critics rethinks such commonly held views by addressing the history and politics of emotion in prevailing narratives about masculinity How did the story of the emotionally stifled U S male come into being What are its political stakes Will the release of straight white middle class masculine emotion remake existing forms of power or reinforce them This collection forcefully challenges our most entrenched ideas about male emotion Through readings of works by Thoreau Lowell and W E B Du Bois and of twentieth century authors such as Hemingway and Kerouac this book questions the persistence of the emotionally alienated male in narratives of white middle class masculinity and addresses the political and social implications of male emotional release

Unnatural Selections Daylanne K. English, 2005-12-15 Challenging conventional constructions of the Harlem Renaissance and American modernism Daylanne English links writers from both movements to debates about eugenics in the Progressive Era She argues that in the 1920s the form and content of writings by figures as disparate as W E B Du Bois T S Eliot Gertrude Stein and Nella Larsen were shaped by anxieties regarding immigration migration and intraracial breeding English's interdisciplinary approach brings together the work of those canonical writers with relatively neglected literary social scientific and visual texts She examines antilynching plays by Angelina Weld Grimké as well as the provocative writings of white female eugenics field workers English also analyzes the Crisis magazine as a family album filtering uplift through eugenics by means of photographic documentation of an ever improving black race English suggests that current scholarship often misreads early twentieth century visual literary and political culture by applying contemporary social and moral standards to the past Du Bois she argues was actually more of a eugenicist than Eliot Through such reconfiguration of the modern period English creates an allegory for the American present because eugenics was in its time widely accepted as a reasonable progressive ideology we need to consider the long term implications of contemporary genetic engineering fertility enhancement and control and legislation promoting or discouraging family growth Cool Men and the Second Sex Susan Fraiman, 2003 The author identifies a number of male figures with cool masculinity including Edward Said Henry Louis Gates Jr Quentin Tarantino Spike Lee and Brian de Palma The African American Theatrical Body Soyica Diggs Colbert, 2011-10-06 Presenting an innovative approach to performance studies and literary history Soyica Colbert argues for the centrality of black performance traditions to African American literature including preaching dancing blues and gospel and theatre itself showing how these performance traditions create the performative ground of African American literary texts Across a century of literary production using the physical space of the theatre and the discursive space of the page W E B Du Bois Zora Neale Hurston James Baldwin August Wilson and others deploy performances to re situate black people in time and space The study examines African American plays past and present including A Raisin in the Sun Blues for Mister Charlie and Joe Turner s Come and Gone demonstrating how African American dramatists stage black performances in their plays as acts of recuperation and restoration creating sites that have the potential to repair the damage caused by slavery and its aftermath

Ideology and Rhetoric Bożenna Chylińska, 2009-01-14 The discovery of America and its further development into a modern state and a nation are the clear instance of how ideology and rhetoric are entwined and how they can encompass widely disparate viewpoints The essays collected in this book address the topical issues of modern American Studies cultural difference and otherness gender race and ethnicity class and power They represent new texts and contexts approached through the revision reevaluation and reconfiguration of canons thus accommodating the expectations of the heterodox audience Femininity reconsidered an ideology of passing away in contemporary world of technical development race captured within the framework of identity and gender the rhetoric of blackness approached through racial exploitation American conquest ideology revealed in a mission of Manifest Destiny the 20th century assimilation rhetoric in the relations between Native Americans and the US federal government the conservative ideology and apologetic rhetoric of the Antebellum South the critique of the 21st century American legal system the evolution of the presidential rhetoric which today addresses a large heterogeneous audience all these topics impose a transnational interpretation of American culture which developed as a result of the cross cultural transformation of European culture cultures moulded on American soil to finally become a unique reformulation of the very idea of America itself

Black Skin, Blue Books Daniel G. Williams, 2012-09-15 Williams analyses and compares the ways in which African Americans and the Welsh have defined themselves as minorities within larger nation states the UK and US The study is grounded in examples of actual friendships and cultural exchanges between African Americans and the Welsh such as Paul Robeson s connections with the socialists of the Welsh mining communities and novelist Ralph Ellison s stories about his experiences as a GI stationed in wartime Swansea This wide ranging book draws on literary historical visual and musical sources to open up new avenues of research in Welsh and African American studies

Resistance Reimagined Regis M. Fox, 2018-09-12 Resistance Reimagined highlights unconventional modes of black women s activism within a society that has spoken so much of freedom but has granted it so selectively Looking closely at nineteenth and twentieth century writings by African American women that reimagine antebellum America Regis Fox introduces types of black activism that differ from common associations with militancy and maleness In doing so she confronts expectations about what African American literature can and should be Fox analyzes Harriet Wilson s Our Nig Elizabeth Keckly s Behind the Scenes Anna Julia Cooper s A Voice From the South and Sherley Anne Williams s Dessa Rose The thinkers highlighted by Fox have been dismissed as elitist accommodationist or complicit yet Fox reveals that in reality these women use their writing to protest antiblack violence reject superficial reform call for major sociopolitical change and challenge the false promises of American democracy
