I'm Not Racist But ... 40 Years of the Racial Discrimination Act Tim Soutphommasane, 2015-06-01 Is Australia a racist country Why do issues of race and culture seem to ignite public debate so readily Tim Soutphommasane Australia's Race Discrimination Commissioner reflects on the national experience of racism and the progress that has been made since the introduction of the Racial Discrimination Act in 1975 As the first federal human rights and discrimination legislation the Act was a landmark demonstration of Australia's commitment to eliminating racism Published to coincide with the Act's fortieth anniversary this book gives a timely and incisive account of the history of racism the limits of free speech the dimensions of bigotry and the role of legislation in our society's response to discrimination With contributions by Maxine Beneba Clarke Bindi Cole Chocka Benjamin Law Alice Pung and Christos Tsiolkas

Australia's Toxic Medical Culture Vicki Adele Pascoe, 2018-10-11 This book explores dominance in Australia's medical culture through the positioning of international medical graduates IMGs It argues that IMGs are othered and ultimately positioned as an underclass a positioning validated and reinforced by the intersecting inequalities of class race and nation It also suggests that the positioning of IMGs is organised through the dimensions of structural power hegemonic power and interpersonal power which allow an exploration of power relations between the structures of the health system the Australian medical profession and the agency of IMGs The Australian narrative presented to the world espouses a community of social justice and human rights Instead an historical lens traces the formation and persistence of difference represented in ethnocentrism racism and xenophobia from 1788 to the present The research presented is multidisciplinary in scope An anti oppressive theoretical framework enables the voices of lived experience to penetrate throughout and a social justice platform engages the participants and the reader into the interwoven conversations The data set comprises a focus group 10 individual interviews with IMGs and a selection of inquiry submissions revealing rich and sometimes shocking evidence to paint a stark picture Other medical voices join the conversation via media responses to revelations of experiences not only by IMGs but also by Australian trained doctors It exposes a toxic culture endemic with bullying and sexual harassment This book is of interest to practitioners researchers and administrators in the fields of medical education human resource management legal studies health sciences social sciences health services government departments universities and hospitals as well as those tasked with duty of care and the provision of a safe workplace The voices gifted to this study raise awareness of current issues within medicine in Australia at a very personal level and begin to formulate a policy and practical response to address these disturbing revelations

Race and Racism in Australia ,1989 Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Cameron McCarthy,1993 Despite differing orientations the contributors here all share a common concern for stressing the importance of social context nuance and language in understanding the dynamics of race relations

Australia's Doomed-Race Protective Myth Grant Rodwell,2024-12-27 Periodically in Australian society racial chasms emerge portraying the great divide between Indigenous and non Indigenous Australians exposing the sustained influence of the doomed race protective myth and its residue This book exposes that a long and powerful influence on Australian society economy culture and history has been the doomed race protective myth While most nations harbour protective myths of one form or another often endorsed by Australian governments at all levels and steeped in a cruel racism and inter alia a quest for pastoral lands Australia s doomed race protective myth has asserted an undue influence on First Nations people This book argues the doomed race protective myth warped the vision of power elites politicians and bureaucrats For centuries sustained by representations in official and public history schools churches and a whole host of public institutions the doomed race protective myth has been voiced by almost every facet of non Indigenous Australian society with pastoral Australia particularly benefiting This book opens fresh vistas to the continuing racism in Australian society through an examination of the long politicised doomed race protective myth which was foisted on First Nations people and with vested interests in pastoral Australia Key events in Australia s race relations history such as the 2023 First Nations Voice to Parliament Referendum have new light shed on them Transnational themes relevant to Indigenous history have been examined People with an interest in non Indigenous Indigenous affairs academics politicians and bureaucrats and students will enjoy this book
