News for All the People: The Epic Story of Race and the American Media Juan González, Joseph Torres, 2011-10-31 A landmark narrative history of American media that puts race at the center of the story Here is a new sweeping narrative history of American news media that puts race at the center of the story From the earliest colonial newspapers to the Internet age America s racial divisions have played a central role in the creation of the country s media system just as the media has contributed to and every so often combated racial oppression News for All the People reveals how racial segregation distorted the information Americans received from the mainstream media It unearths numerous examples of how publishers and broadcasters actually fomented racial violence and discrimination through their coverage And it chronicles the influence federal media policies exerted in such conflicts It depicts the struggle of Black Latino Asian and Native American journalists who fought to create a vibrant yet little known alternative democratic press and then beginning in the 1970s forced open the doors of the major media companies The writing is fast paced story driven and replete with memorable portraits of individual journalists and media executives both famous and obscure heroes and villains It weaves back and forth between the corporate and government leaders who built our segregated media system such as Herbert Hoover whose Federal Radio Commission eagerly awarded a license to a notorious Ku Klux Klan organization in the nation s capital and those who rebelled against that system like Pittsburgh Courier publisher Robert L Vann who led a remarkable national campaign to get the black face comedy Amos n Andy off the air Based on years of original archival research and up to the minute reporting and written by two veteran journalists and leading advocates for a more inclusive and democratic media system News for All the People should become the standard history of American media      Outback All-Stars (Race the Wild #5) Kristin Earhart,2016-04-26 On a once in a lifetime race through the animal kingdom it takes smarts strength and skill to win It s an all star Australian showdown G day mate The team is back and they re racing against the best of the best in the land of kangaroos koalas and creeping snakes But when an old opponent appears Sage fears it could ruin their chances They need to be on their game if they want to win the battle of the Outback Will the team go down in the race down under Each chapter in this action packed adventure series is bursting with totally true facts about wild and wonderful creatures dangerous habitats maps and more      Race the Time Vidya Gopaul,2015-07-13 This novel RACE THE TIME that I have written is first of a kind Its about a man who while trying to locate his birth father ended up marrying his own sister because his father was the same father of the girl he was marrying It so happened because his father deserted his mother when she was pregnant and married to another woman who then gave birth to a baby girl Since the man lived in one country and the girl lived in another country when they met they did not know that they had the same father Eventually on their wedding day they found out that both had the same father But it was too late because many unethical acts had been committed between them What inspired me to write this novel is that such true story has taken place in many occasions in this country and in many others and has been kept in the background The families who have been affected by it have been devastated morally Moreover the idea of writing this book also came to my mind while I participated in a bioethical course in my undergraduate programs at university I believe that such true story will keep occurring as long as there will be divorces family break ups unwanted pregnancies sex freedom artificial insemination and many other methods of artificially conceiving babies I also believe that once this novel is in the market many people will become aware of such story and perhaps will educate them As a result it may help prevent further occurrence of similar incidents      The Vanishing Race - The Last Great Indian Council - A Record In Picture And Story Of The Last Great Indian Council Joseph K.  Negro Slavery the First an Inferior Race the Latter Its Normal Condition John H Van Evrie presents a controversial and provocative treatise that reflects the antebellum attitudes towards race and slavery in mid 19th century America Van Evrie s discourse is marked by a pseudo scientific rationale and a polemic style situated within the framework of racial superiority that informed much of the literature of the period Through his assertions he attempts to normalize the institution of slavery by casting it as a natural state for those he deems an inferior race thus revealing the deeply entrenched prejudices prevalent in contemporary society and the intellectual currents that justify systemic oppression John H Van Evrie was a notable figure in 19th century American thought known for his writings on race and slavery which echoed the sociopolitical climate of his time Drawing from the prevailing notions of racial hierarchy and employing a range of pseudo scientific arguments his work reveals the mindset of a segment of society grappling with the moral and ethical implications of slavery amid growing abolitionist sentiments His background in medical practice and his later ventures into journalism likely influenced his approach to the contentious subject This book is essential reading for those interested in understanding the historical context of race relations in America as it provides a lens into the mindset that perpetuated slavery It invites readers to critically engage with the historical rationale for racial discrimination making it a provocative addition for scholars students and anyone seeking to explore the enduring legacies of racism in American history
