Racial Politics Of Militant In Liverpool:

Militant Liverpool Diane Frost, Peter North, 2013-04-30 An even handed reassessment of the Militant period in Liverpool including interviews with many of the key protagonists

Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective Georgia A. Persons, 2018-04-24 Contradictory forces are at play at the close of the twentieth century There is a growing closeness of peoples fueled by old and new technologies of modern aviation digital based communications new patterns of trade and commerce and growing affluence of significant portions of the world s population Television permits individuals around the world to learn about the cultures and lifestyles of peoples of physically distant lands These developments give real meaning to the notion of a global village Peoples of the world are growing closer in new and increasingly important ways Nonetheless there are disturbing signs of a growing awareness of ethnic differences in all parts of the world the United States included and a concomitant rise in ethnic based conflicts many of them extraordinarily violent in nature Fear resentment intolerance and mistreatment of the other abound in world news accounts Not only does this phenomenon pose an interesting juxtaposition to the concept of the emergent global village but its emergence in the post cold war era internationally and the post civil rights era in the United States raises significant and compelling questions Why are such conflicts occurring now How do analysts explain these developments The essays in Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective lucidly explore some of the complexities of the persistence and re emergence of race and ethnicity as major lines of divisiveness around the world Contributors analyze manifestations of race based movements for political empowerment in Europe and Latin America as well as racial intolerance in these same settings Attention is also given to the conceptual complexities of multidimensional and shared cultural roots of the overlapping phenomena of ethnicity nationalism identity and ideology The book greatly informs discussions of race and ethnicity in the international context and provides an interesting perspective against which to view America s changing problem of race Race and Ethnicity in Comparative Perspective is a timely thought provoking volume that will be of immense value to ethnic studies specialists African American studies scholars political scientists historians and sociologists

Liverpool Sectarianism Keith Daniel Roberts, 2017-04-01 Presenting evidence from an array of archival and original resources this book chronicles the development and derailment of sectarian tensions in the city of Liverpool

Liverpool and the Unmaking of Britain Sam Wetherell, 2025-02-27 Few cities in the world are as famous as Liverpool the home of the modern world s most celebrated rock group and of a legendary football team The city is equally notorious for its poverty its ethnic and racial divides and above all its decline For Liverpool was once a major port growing rich on slavery on trade with the Americas and the British Empire s outposts in Africa and Asia In the 1980s it was described as obsolete Yet the city fights on This is the epic history of Liverpool since the Second World War It is a story of vast docklands shrinking and eventually vanishing when corporations discovered they could shift goods in containers and dispense with human workers of industries like car manufacturing mushrooming and disappearing of huge new suburbs being built and neglected It is a moving and horrifying narrative of casual racism Chinese sailors deported en masse in the aftermath of the war systematic discrimination against the city's Black population and of resistance culminating in the Toxteth riots in 1981 It is the story of a city fighting against a descent into obsolescence Liverpool also becomes a prism through which recent British history is brought into a new focus It is the fascinating history of a single iconic city But it is also a warning of what the future may hold for many more communities The Persistence of Memory Jessica Moody, 2020

The Persistence of Memory tells the history of the public memory of transatlantic slavery in the largest slave trading port city in the world from the end of the 18th century into the 21st century revealing the persistence of slavery memory in Liverpool as an ongoing contested debate Black Atlantic Politics William E. Nelson, 2000-08-03 Groundbreaking research on Black political participation and urban race relations on both sides of the Atlantic Racialised Barriers Stephen Small, 2014-04-04 A systematic comparison of key differences and similarities in the experience of black people in the US and England amidst racial hostility Small argues for an approach to combatting this built on shared racial identities The Politics of Multiculturalism in the New Europe Tariq Modood, Pnina Werbner, 1997-08 On multiculturalism Before the Windrush John Belchem, 2014 A fascinating study that examines Liverpool's mixed population and its approach to race relations in order to provide historical context and perspective to debates about Britain's experience of empire in the twentieth century Local Government and Thatcherism Hugh Butcher, Ian G. Law, Robert Leach, Maurice Mullard, 2024-12-02 The 1980s witnessed an unprecedented series of initiatives aimed at transforming the role and manner of local government operations in Britain First published in 1990 Local Government and Thatcherism provides a clear and up to date framework for understanding the impact of Thatcherism on local government during this period and explores future prospects The authors examine the effect of the Thatcher Revolution on the policy and practice of local government looking at the role of ideology in key policy areas such as finance public services local economic development race and decentralization Beginning with an analysis of the evolution of local government the authors situate Thatcherism in the context of Municipal Toryism and discuss changes in local finance including the introduction of the community charge They focus on changes in public policy particularly innovations like grant maintained schools and Housing Action Trusts and look in detail at economic regeneration and equal opportunities two areas in local policy development which are increasingly under threat from centralizing tendencies The authors conclude that the revolution in local government is aimed at nothing less than recasting the local socio political order and political process Coming to terms with these challenges they believe will change the face of local government in 1990s the contract authority the enterprising authority and the business corporatist authority Lucid and stimulating this discussion will be invaluable to students of British politics and public and social administration and to all those who wish to know more about the future of local government Gay Men and the Left in Post-war Britain Lucy Robinson, 2013-07-19 Available in paperback for the first time his book demonstrates how the personal became political in post war Britain and argues that attention to gay activism can help us to fundamentally rethink the nature of post war politics While the Left were fighting among themselves and the reformists were struggling with the limits of law reform gay men started organising for themselves first individually within existing organisations and later rejecting formal political structures altogether Culture performance and identity took over from economics and class struggle as gay men worked to change the world through the politics of sexuality Throughout the post war years the new cult of the teenager in the 1950s CND and the counter culture of the 1960s gay liberation feminism the Punk movement and the miners strike of 1984 all helped to build a politics of identity There is an assumption among many of today s politicians that young people are apathetic and disengaged This book argues that these politicians are looking in the wrong place People now feel that they can impact the world through the way in which they live shop have sex and organise their private lives Robinson shows that gay men and their politics have been central to this change in the post war world To Make Another World Colin Barker,Paul Kennedy,2017-07-05 A diverse collection of essays on twentieth century popular protest movements considering their dynamics and dilemmas Place, Policy and Politics Michael Harloe,2006-05-23 The past ten years have seen local government in the UK facing two major challenges to survive in the face of Thatcher government hostility and to adapt to enormously powerful forces of economic restructuring which have also been encouraged by government policies The key aspects of these changing fortunes of British towns explored in this important new book is the ability of individual localities to exercise any control over their own growth and decline Place Policy and Politics examines local political initiatives seeking to influence economic and social development in seven sharply contrasting localities ranging from the outer council estates of Merseyside to the boom towns of Cheltenham and Swindon Throughout their analysis the contributors drawn from a wide range of social science disciplines address the vital questions in the debate over local policy initiatives including To what extent are localities able to harness trends in the national and international economy to provide jobs and a better standard of living for their inhabitants Why do local authorities vary in their capacity to initiate economic policy To what extent do national urban and other policies inhibit or encourage their efforts How might central government modify its policies to facilitate the prospering of localities The Racial Politics of Militant in Liverpool Liverpool Black Caucus,1986 A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins,American Historical Association,Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index Loosen the Shackles Liverpool 8 Inquiry into Race Relations in Liverpool,Tony Gifford,Wally Brown,Ruth Bunday,1989 The British Labour Party and twentieth-century Ireland Laurence Marley,2015-12-01 With contributions from a range of distinguished Irish and British scholars this collection of essays provides the first full treatment of the historical relationship between the Labour Party and Ireland in the last century from Keir Hardie to Tony Blair 'Other Kinds of Dreams' Julia Sudbury, 2005-08-08 Other Kinds of Dreams provides an invaluable insight into the political activity of black and Asian women in the UK both inside and outside the black and Asian communities The book breaks new ground by destroying the misconception that black and Asian women lack political involvement integrating gender into the study of black and Asian political participation in Britain exploring the potential for alliances between black women and the new progressive black man's movement examining black women activists perception and experiences of white feminism Other Kinds of Dreams also questions the homogeneity of the term black and asks whether increasing social stratification within black communities undermines this unity Black People and Party Politics in Britain Marian FitzGerald, 1987 Social Exclusion and Inner City Europe S. Mangen, 2004-05-25 The searches by European Union major states for joined up approaches to inner city regeneration are examined thematically through a focus on policy evolution since the mid 1970s Key issues addressed include the physical social employment and urban security agenda The product of long term research drawing on extensive qualitative and quantitative sources at national level backed by in depth case study investigation of five large cities the book assesses how contemporary urban rejuvenation is being regulated including the increasing contribution of the European Union
