Racism and Discourse in Spain and Latin America Teun Adrianus van Dijk, 2005-01-01 LC Number 2005048399

Racism and Discourse in Latin America Teun A. Van Dijk, 2009-10-26 Racism and Discourse in Latin America investigates how public discourse is involved in the daily reproduction of racism in Latin America. The essays examine political discourse, mass media discourse, textbooks, and other forms of text and talk by the white symbolic elites, looking at the ways these discourses express and confirm prejudices against indigenous people and against people from African descent. The essays show that ethnic and racial inequality in Latin America continue to exacerbate the chasm between the rich and the poor despite formal progress in the rights of minorities during the last decades. Teun A. van Dijk brings together a multidisciplinary team of linguists and social scientists from eight Latin American countries: Mexico, Guatemala, Colombia, Venezuela, Brazil, Argentina, Chile, and Peru, creating the first work in English that provides comprehensive insight into discursive racism across Latin America.

Discourses from Latin America and the Caribbean Eleonora Esposito, Carolina Pérez-Arredondo, José Manuel Ferreiro, 2018-09-13 This edited collection brings together the latest research on discourse and society in Latin America and the Caribbean in one volume. Employing cross-cutting approaches to current political, institutional, and media discourses, it bridges existing theoretical and analytical gaps between the socio-political macro issues and the micro aspects of linguistic analysis to provide fresh insights that deconstruct the complex socio-political power dynamics in Latin America and the Caribbean. Across eight chapters, this volume explores the regions' thorny relationship with their complex histories of colonialism and slavery, as well as the ongoing multifaceted constructions of hegemonic and counter-hegemonic identities at the individual, regional, and national levels. In doing so, it demonstrates the unique and rich particularities of these regions and why it is that they challenge many conventional dogmas and methods across the Social Sciences. This book will be of particular interest to scholars working in Discourse Studies, Sociology, Politics, Anthropology, and Latin American and Caribbean Studies. Rethinking Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods John H. Stanfield II, 2016-06-03 This collection of original work demonstrates the new ways in which particular research methodologies are used valued and critiqued in the field of race and ethnic studies Contributing authors discuss the ways in which their personal and professional histories and experiences lead them to select and use particular methodologies over the course of their careers They then provide the intellectual histories strengths and weaknesses of these methods as applied to issues of race and ethnicity and discuss the ethical practical and epistemological issues that have influenced and challenged their methodological principles and applications Through these rigorous self examinations this text presents a dynamic example of how scholars engage both research methodologies and issues of social justice and ethics This volume is a successor to Stanfield s landmark Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods The Spiral of "Anti-Other Rhetoric" Elisabeth Le,2006-08-22 How do media inform our representations of the Other and how does this influence intercultural international relations While officially dialogues between different national societies are conducted by diplomats in bilateral and multilateral settings in practice journalists also participate every day in such dialogues through the phenomenon of the international media echo in which they report on each others societies Until now media have only been investigated for their potential role in the foreign policy of specific states In a case study involving media in three national cultures and languages French American and Russian this book presents an interdisciplinary framework that combines quantitative and qualitative analyses for the study of the international media echo in an intercultural international relations perspective In particular the fundamental functioning of spirals of anti Other rhetoric i e media wars is examined in a Critical Discourse Analysis approach completed with Social Identity Theory and International Relations theories Language and Muslim Immigrant Childhoods Inmaculada Ma García-Sánchez,2014-06-03 Language and Muslim Immigrant Childhoods Documenting the everyday lives of Moroccan immigrant children in Spain this in depth study considers how its subjects navigate the social and political landscapes of family neighborhood peer groups and the institutions of their adopted country Garc a S nchez compels us to rethink theories of language and racialization by offering a linguistic anthropological approach that illuminates the politics of childhood in Spain s growing communities of migrants The author demonstrates that these Moroccan children walk a tightrope between sameness and difference simultaneously participating in the cultural life of their immigrant community and that of a host society that is deeply ambivalent about contemporary migratory trends The author evaluates the contemporary state of research on immigrant children and explores the dialectical relations between young Moroccan immigrants everyday social interactions and the broader cultural logic and socio political discourses arising from integration and inclusion of the Muslim communities Her work focuses in particular on children s modes of communication with teachers peers family members friends doctors and religious figures in a society where Muslim immigrants are subject to increasing state surveillance The project underscores the central relevance of studying immigrant children s day to day experience and linguistic praxis in tracing how the forces at work in transnational diasporic settings have an impact on their sense of belonging charting the links between the immediate contexts of their daily lives and their emerging processes of

Coleman,2020-05-15 The Necropolitical Theater Race and Immigration on the Contemporary Spanish Stage demonstrates how theatrical production in Spain since the early 1990s has reflected national anxieties about immigration and race Jeffrey K Coleman argues that Spain has developed a necropolitical theater that casts the non European immigrant as fictionalized enemy one whose nonwhiteness is incompatible with Spanish national identity and therefore poses a threat to the very Europeanness of Spain The fate of the immigrant in the necropolitical theater is death either physical or metaphysical which preserves the status quo and provides catharsis for the spectator faced with the notion of racial diversity Marginalization forced assimilation and physical death are outcomes suffered by Latin American North African and sub Saharan African characters respectively and in these differential outcomes determined by skin color Coleman identifies an inherent racial hierarchy informed by the legacies of colonization and religious intolerance Drawing on theatrical texts performances legal documents interviews and critical reviews this book challenges Spanish theater to develop a new theatrical space Jeffrey K Coleman proposes a convivial theater that portrays immigrants as contributors to the Spanish state and better represents the multicultural reality of the nation today

Reading Donald Trump Jeremy Kowalski,2018-08-29 This book provides a scholarly assessment and analysis of the

Trump campaign and early presidency This assessment and analysis is important not only to help provide some coherence to the turbulent and unpredictable character of Trumpism but to contribute to establishing a scholarly foundation for future works that will provide assessments of the Trump presidency in its mid and later stages Given the divisive and destructive capacity of Trumpism and its political and social implications both domestically and internationally understanding the distinctive political phenomenon of Trumpism is necessary if resistance to this transformative moment in American political history is to be successful This book collects a series of short scholarly contributions on various themes related to Trumpism by scholars from disciplines in both the Humanities and Social Sciences Origin Narratives Macarena

Garcia-Gonzalez,2017-05-18 The first of its kind this volume unpacks the cultural construction of transnational adoption and migration by examining a sample of recent children s books that address the subject Of all European countries Spain is the nation where immigration and transnational adoption have increased most steeply from the early 1990s onward Origin Narratives The Stories We Tell Children About Immigration and International Adoption sheds light on the way contemporary Spanish society and its institutions re define national identity and the framework of cultural political and ethnic values by looking at how these ideas are being transmitted to younger generations negotiating a more heterogeneous environment This study collates representations of diversity migration and colonial otherness in the texts as well as their reception by the adult mediators through reviews paratexts and opinions collected from interviews and participant observation In this new work author Macarena Garcia Gonzalez argues that many of the texts at the wider societal discourse of multiculturalism which have been warped into a pedagogical synthesis underwrite the very racism they seek to combat Comparing transnational adoption with discourses about immigration works as a new approach to the question of multiculturalism and makes a valuable contribution to an array of disciplines Racialization and Language Michele Back,Virginia Zavala,2018-09-03

Drawing on frameworks from applied linguistics and critical discourse analysis this volume employs a linguistics approach to understanding race and racism in Latin America with a particular focus on Peru Building on recent debates in Peru on cultural and biological definitions of race the book seeks to re examine the relationship between race and culture not as a dichotomy but as one rooted in and shaped by specific historical moments Similarly the volume uses this discussion as a jumping off point from which to explore notions of identity informed by language as used in local context rather than as a fixed social category Offering new perspectives on discursive practices of race and racism in Peru and Latin America this collection is key reading for students and researchers in sociolinguistics applied linguistics anthropology and Latin American studies Tatarstan's Autonomy within Putin's Russia Deniz Dinç,2021-12-13 This book explores how the Volga Tatars the largest ethnic minority within the Russian Federation a Muslim minority achieved a great deal of autonomy for Tatarstan in the years 1988 to 1992 but then lost this autonomy gradually over the course of the Putin era It sets the issue in context tracing the history of the Volga Tatars the descendants of the Golden Horde whose Khans exercised overlordship over

Muscovy in medieval times and outlining Tsarist and Soviet nationalities policies and their enduring effects It argues that a key factor driving the decline of greater autonomy besides Putin s policies of harmonisation and centralisation was the behaviour of the minority elites who were despite their earlier engagement in ethnic mobilization very acquiescent to the new Putin regime deciding that co operation would maximise their privileges Mediating Ideology in Text and Image Inger Lassen, Jeanne Strunck, Torben Vestergaard, 2006-01-01 While ideology has been treated widely in CDA literature the role played by the interaction of text and image in multiplying meaning and furthering ideological stances has not so far received a lot of attention Mediating Ideology in Text and Image offers a number of approaches to such analysis offering students and academics valuable tools for identifying possible discrepancies between the world and the way it is represented through various mediational means The authors common aim is one of assisting the audience in reading between the lines thus offering a variety of approaches that may contribute to a better understanding of how ideologies possibly work and how they may be denaturalised from text and image The articles in part I look at rhetorical strategies used in meaning construction processes unfolding in various kinds of mass media Part II focuses on the re semiotization of meaning and looks at how analysing the combination of text and image may contribute to a better understanding of ideological processes brought about by multimodal resources Foreword by Ruth Wodak Interdisciplinary Studies in Pragmatics, Culture and Society Alessandro Capone, Jacob L. Mey, 2015-07-31 This volume is part of the series Pragmatics Philosophy and Psychology edited for Springer by Alessandro Capone It is intended for an audience of undergraduate and graduate students as well as postgraduate and advanced researchers This volume focuses on societal pragmatics One of the main concerns of societal pragmatics is the world of language users We are interested in the investigation of linguistic practices in the context of societal practices praxis to use a term used in the Wittgensteinian and other traditions It is clear that the world of users including their practices their culture and their social aims has to be taken into account and seriously investigated when we deal with the pragmatics of language It is not enough to discuss principles of language use solely in the guise of abstract theoretical tools Consequently the present volume focuses explicitly on the interplay of abstract theoretical principles and the necessities imposed by societal contexts often requiring a more flexible use of such theoretical tools The volume includes articles on pragmemes politeness and anti politeness dialogue joint utterances discourse markers pragmatics and the law institutional discourse critical discourse analysis pragmatics and culture cultural scripts argumentation theory connectives and argumentation language games and psychotherapy slurs the analysis of funerary rites as well as an authoritative chapter by Jacob L Mey on societal pragmatics
