Racism In Canada The Fifth House Reader:

Racism in Canada Ormond Knight McKague,1991 A selection of some of the best writing and thinking on the subject of racism in Canada Racism Albert J. Wheeler,2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature The Canadian Jewish Studies Reader Richard Menkis,Norman Ravvin,2004 Canadian Jewish Studies is a young field often lost in the shadow of its American older sister In The Canadian Jewish Studies Reader editors Richard Menkis and Norman Ravvin demonstrate that what's going on in Canada critically and artistically is every bit as interesting as the work being done in the United States Taking a cultural studies approach the editors view the way that Canadian Jewish identity is examined in literature visual arts historical writing feminist research and urban geography among other fields Included too is a preface that introduces the field and argues for the particular interest of Canadian Jewish Studies to readers and students in the international community The articles are supplemented by a range of exciting visuals The Canadian Jewish Studies Reader also features new work by both editors in their exploration of Canadian literature and history Catalog of the Gerald K. Stone Collection of Judaica Gerald K. Stone,2021-01-05 Gerald K Stone has collected books about Canadian Jewry since the early 1980s This volume is a descriptive catalog of his Judaica collection comprising nearly 6 000 paper or electronic documentary resources in English French Yiddish and Hebrew Logically organized indexed and selectively annotated the catalog is broad in scope covering Jewish Canadian history biography religion literature the Holocaust antisemitism Israel and the Middle East and more An introduction by Richard Menkis discusses the significance of the Catalog and collecting for the study of the Jewish experience in Canada An informative bibliographical resource this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Canadian and North American Jewish studies Canadian Book Review Annual ,2003 A Decolonial and Anti-Racist Transformative Autoethnographic Journey toward Reconciliation Jebunnessa Chapola,2024-07-08 While many non Indigenous academic researchers have introduced the concept of reconciliation in their work they have not adequately explored what it means for transnational immigrants and refugee communities to view reconciliation as a source of knowledge and understanding How can assuming responsibility for reconciliation empower immigrant and refugee women communities Why should immigrant and refugee communities embrace decolonial and anti racist ways of knowing and acting to foster meaningful relationships with Indigenous communities What does it entail to comprehend decolonial and anti racist learning and practice as a system of reciprocal social relations and ethical practices as a framework for reconciliation Decolonial and Anti racist Transformative Autoethnographic Journey toward Reconciliation A Racialized Immigrant Woman's Empowering Stories aims to address these interdisciplinary questions It endeavors not only to challenge our static comprehension of reconciliation but also to demonstrate how assuming responsibility for relearning decolonial and anti racist meanings in our everyday practices is essential These include cultivating respectful relationships with Indigenous peoples honoring Indigenous Treaties taking steps to decolonize our ways of knowing and acting understanding the impacts of colonial education processes preserving our Land and environment ensuring food security and nutritional adequacy fostering intercultural spaces for social interactions and promoting transnational empowerment
