The Logic of the Gift Alan D. Schrift, 2014-05-01 The theme of the gift can be located at the center of current discussions of deconstruction gender and feminist theory ethics philosophy anthropology and economics it is simply one of the primary focal points at which contemporary interdisciplinary discourses intersect Into this context comes a new indispensable volume The Logic of the Gift offers several important essays on gifts and gift giving that are often referred to but seldom read and adds to them new essays written especially for this collection

The Gift in Sixteenth-century France Natalie Zemon Davis, 2000 Must a gift be given freely How can we tell a gift from a bribe Are gifts always a part of human relations or do they lose their power and importance once the market takes hold and puts a price on every exchange These questions are central to our sense of social relations past and present and they are at the heart of this book by one of our most interesting and renowned historians

Le Jazz Matthew F. Jordan, 2022-08-15 In Le Jazz Matthew F. Jordan deftly blends textual analysis critical theory and cultural history in a wide ranging and highly readable account of how jazz progressed from a foreign cultural innovation met with resistance by French traditionalists to a naturalized component of the country's identity Jordan draws on sources including ephemeral critical writing in the press and twentieth century French literature to trace the country's reception of jazz from the Cakewalk dance craze and the music's significance as a harbinger of cultural recovery after World War II to its place within French ethnography and cultural hybridity Countering the histories of jazz's celebratory reception in France Jordan delves in to the reluctance of many French citizens to accept jazz with the same enthusiasm as the liberal humanists and cosmopolitan crowds of the 1930s Jordan argues that some listeners and critics perceived jazz as a threat to traditional French culture and only as France modernized its identity did jazz become compatible with notions of Frenchness Le Jazz speaks to the power of enlivened debate about popular culture art and expression as the means for constructing a vibrant cultural identity revealing crucial keys to understanding how the French have come to see themselves in the postwar world The Question of the Gift Mark Osteen,2013-09-13 The Question of the Gift is the first collection of new interdisciplinary essays on the gift Bringing together scholars from a variety of fields including anthropology literary criticism economics philosophy and classics it provides new paradigms and poses new questions concerning the theory and practice of gift exchange In addressing these questions contributors not only challenge the conventions of their fields but also combine ideas and methods from both the social sciences and humanities to forge innovative ways of confronting this universal phenomenon The Language of War James Dawes,2009-07 Focusing on American literature from the Civil War World War I and World War II Dawes develops two primary questions How does the strategic violence of war affect literary legal and philosophical representations And in turn how do such representations affect the reception and initiation of violence itself Abjection and Representation R. Arya,2014-09-11 Abjection and Representation is a theoretical investigation of the concept of abjection as expounded by Julia Kristeva in Powers of Horror 1982 and its application in various fields including the visual arts film and literature It examines the complexity of the concept and its significance as a cultural category The Work and the Gift Scott Cutler Shershow,2005-06-15 Considers how in a wide range of western culture and thought the ideas of working and giving remain locked in a fatal dilemma each one representing the other s aspirations and absolute limit Ranging from Marx and Derrida to Friedrich Hayek and Alvin Toffler Scott Cutler Shershow here explores the predictions of political thinkers on both the left and the right that work is fundamentally changing or even disappearing the debates among anthropologists and historians about an archaic gift economy that preceded capitalism and might reemerge in its wake contemporary political battles over charity and social welfare and attempts by modern and postmodern artists to destabilize the work of art as we know it BOOKJACKET The New Economic Criticism Martha Woodmansee,Mark Osteen,2005-10-09 This is a pathbreaking work which develops a new form of economic analysis This collection brings together 27 essays by influential literary and cultural historians as well as representatives of the vanguard of postmodernist economics Magical Nominalism Martin Jay,2025-01-22 A bold and wide ranging study across centuries examining the conflict between conventional and magical nominalism in philosophy history aesthetics political theory and photography In this magisterial new book intellectual historian Martin Jay traces the long standing competition between two versions of nominalism the conventional and the magical Since at least William of Ockham according to Jay the conventional form of nominalism has contributed to the disenchantment of the world by viewing general terms as nothing more than mere names we use to group particular objects together rejecting the idea that they refer to a further higher reality Magical nominalism instead performs a reenchanting function by investing proper names disruptive events and singular objects with an auratic power of their own Drawing in part on Jewish theology it challenges the elevation of the constitutive subject resulting from Ockham's reliance on divine will in his critique of real universals Starting with the fourteenth century revolution of nominalism against Scholastic realism Jay unpacks various counterrevolutions against nominalism itself including a magical alternative to its conventional form Focusing on fundamental debates over the relationship between language thought and reality Jay illuminates connections across thinkers disciplines and vast realms of human experience Ranging from theology and philosophy of history to aesthetics and political theory this book engages with a range of artists and thinkers including Adorno Ankersmit Badiou Barthes Bataille Benjamin Blumenberg Derrida Duchamp Foucault Kracauer Kripke and Lyotard Ultimately Magical Nominalism offers a strikingly original way to understand humanity's intellectual path to modernity

On Bataille Leslie Anne Boldt-Irons, 1995-01-01 Essays on the French writer and critic Georges Bataille that examine his thought in relation to Hegel Nietzsche and Derrida

The Premodern Condition Bruce Holsinger, 2005-12 Bruce Holsinger identifies and explains an affinity for medievalism and medieval studies among the leading figures of critical theory His book contains original essays by Bataille and Bourdieu translated into English that testify to the strange persistence of medievalisms in French postwar writings

Knowing Other-wise James H. Olthuis, 1997 Tracing connections between epistemology ethics and spirituality between knowing and the other between an other and the Other all the essays serve as points of convergence between postmodern discussions and the Calvinist spirituality which is the home for writers in this collection In particular this collection explores the contributions of feminist thought and such thinkers as Emmanuel Levinas Richard Rorty Jacques Derrida and John D

Complementarity Arkady Plotnitsky, 1994 Many commentators have remarked in passing on the resonance between deconstructionist theory and certain ideas of quantum physics In this book Arkady Plotnitsky rigorously elaborates the similarities and differences between the two by focusing on the work of Niels Bohr and Jacques Derrida In detailed considerations of Bohr's notion of complementarity and his debates with Einstein and in analysis of Derrida's work via Georges Bataille's concept of general economy Plotnitsky demonstrates the value of exploring these theories in relation to each other Bohr's term complementarity describes a situation unavoidable in quantum physics in which two theories thought to be mutually exclusive are required to explain a single phenomenon Light for example can only be explained as both wave and particle but no synthesis of the two is possible This theoretical transformation is then examined in relation to the ways that Derrida sets his work against or outside of Hegel also resisting a similar kind of synthesis and enacting a transformation of its own Though concerned primarily with Bohr and Derrida Plotnitsky also considers a wide range of anti epistemological endeavors including the work of Nietzsche Bataille and the mathematician Kurt G del Under the rubric of complementarity he develops a theoretical framework that raises new possibilities for students and scholars of literary theory philosophy and philosophy of science The Anthropological Imagination in Latin American Literature Amy Fass Emery, 1996 Emery develops the concept of an anthropological imagination that is the conjunction of anthropology and fiction in twentieth century Latin American literature Emery also gives consideration to documentary and testimonial writings Force Fields Martin Jay, 2014-02-04 Force Fields collects the recent essays of Martin Jay an intellectual historian and cultural critic internationally known for his extensive work on the history of Western Marxism and the intellectual migration from Germany to America Allegories of Dissent Sharon G. Feldman, 1998 Allegories of Dissent the first book devoted to the literature of Agustin Gomez Arcos is a case study of the relationship between art and oppression It positions his theater in relation to the historical trajectories of twentieth century Spanish and European drama and in so doing traces the allegorical strategies and thematic transformations that emerge in his work during the course of his radical move from censored artist to bilingual exile Gomez Arcos s threefold experience with censorship exile and bilingualism has left a lasting imprint on his literary production As he embarks on an artistic journey from censored playwright living in dictatorial Spain to bilingual exile writer residing in democratic France his gradual employment of the French language comes to allegorize his quest for freedom of expression Talking Trash Julie Manga, 2003-01-01 When The Phil Donahue Show topped the ratings in 1979 it ushered in a new era in daytime television Mixing controversial social issues light topics and audience participation it created a new genre one that is still flourishing despite being harshly criticized over two decades later Now the daytime TV landscape is littered with talk shows But why do people watch these shows How do they make sense of them And how do these shows affect their viewers sense of what constitutes appropriate public debate In Talking Trash Julie Engel Manga offers a fascinating exploration of these questions and reveals the wide range of reasons viewers are drawn to trash talk Focusing on such shows as Oprah Jerry Springer Ricki Lake Jenny Jones and Maury Povitch and drawing upon interviews with women who watch these shows Talking Trash is the first examination of the talk show phenomenon from the viewers perspective In taking this approach Manga is able to understand what talk shows mean to the women who watch them And by refusing to judge either the shows or their viewers as good or bad she is able to grasp how viewers relate to these shows as escape entertainment uninhibited public discourse or an accurate reflection of their own hardships and heartaches Manga concludes that while the form of trash talk shows may be relatively new the socio cultural experience they embody has been with us for a long time Absorbing entertaining and keenly perceptive Talking Trash illuminates the complex viewer response to trash talk and examines the cultural politics surrounding this wildly controversial popular phenomenon Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993-10-01 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes's writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay's reputation as one of today's premier cultural and intellectual historians
