Reading Matters Narratives In The New Media Ecology:

Reading Matters Joseph Tabbi, Michael Wutz, 2018-05-31 The convergence of twentieth century narrative and technology is one of the most important developments in current literary study A decade after the founding of the Society for Literature and Science and the appearance of such influential books as Kathleen Woodward's Culture of Information and William Paulson's The Noise of Culture Joseph Tabbi and Michael Wutz have edited a landmark volume to summarize this still emerging field Twelve original essays and the editors' introductory overview show how these theoretical concerns can contribute to the practical study of narrative Reading Matters covers the range of contemporary literature from the canonical novels of high modernism and postmodernism through subjects new to the academic agenda such as cyberpunk and hypertext fiction In an age that has proclaimed the death of the novel many times over the contributors argue persuasively for the continued vitality of literary narrative By responding in ingenious ways to the capabilities of other media they assert the novel has enlarged and redefined its territory of representation and its range of techniques and play while maintaining its viability in the new media assemblage

Narrative Across Media Marie-Laure Ryan, 2004-01-01 Narratology has been conceived from its earliest days as a project that transcends disciplines and media The essays gathered here address the question of how narrative migrates mutates and creates meaning as it is expressed across various media Dividing the inquiry into five areas face to face narrative still pictures moving pictures music and digital media Narrative across Media investigates how the intrinsic properties of the supporting medium shape the form of narrative and affect the narrative experience Unlike other interdisciplinary approaches to narrative studies all of which have tended to concentrate on narrative across language supported fields this unique collection provides a much needed analysis of how narrative operates when expressed through visual gestural electronic and musical means In doing so the collection redefines the act of storytelling Although the fields of media and narrative studies have been invigorated by a variety of theoretical approaches this volume seeks to avoid a dominant theoretical bias by providing instead a collection of concrete studies that inspire a direct look at texts rather than relying on a particular theory of interpretation A contribution to both narrative and media studies Narrative across Media is the first attempt to bridge the two disciplines

Media Ecologies of Literature Susanne Beyerlipp, Ralf Haekel, Johannes Schlegel, 2022-11-03 This book explores the media ecologies of literature the ways in which a literary text is interwoven in its material technical performative praxeological affective and discursive network and which determine how it is experienced and interpreted Through novel approaches to the complex contingent and interdependent environments of literature this volume demonstrates how questions about the mediality of literature particularly in the wake of digitization shed a new light on our understanding of textuality reading platforms and reception processes By drawing on recent developments in advanced media theory Media Ecologies of Literature emphasizes the productivity of innovative reconceptualizations of literature as a medium in its own right In an intentionally wide historical scope the essays engage with literary texts from the Romantic to the contemporary period from Charlotte Smith and Oscar Wilde to A L Kennedy and Mark Z Danielewski from the traditionally printed novel to audiobooks and reading apps Latin American Literature and Mass Media Edmundo Paz Soldán, Debra A. Castillo, 2001 This volume examines Latin American literature in the context of a complimentary audiovisual culture dominated by mass media such as photography film and the Internet The articles gathered here all of them published for the first time critically assess Latin American media theories Garcia Canclini et al pointing out their strengths and shortcomings show how literary works have been able to sustain their visibility in a highly competitive media ecology accommodating to pop and mass culture while at the same time reaffirming the authority of the literary intellectual Overall the book's foregrounding of the impact of mass media on Latin American literature opens the critical debate on an increasingly essential subject Anatomy of a Short Story Yuri Leving, 2012-05-24 A unique anthology devoted to a single story Signs and Symbols by Vladimir Nabokov which exposes the way we read and interpret short stories Memory, Intermediality, and Literature Sara Tanderup Linkis, 2019-04-16 If readers of Sara Tanderup Linkis Something to hold on to open the book in the expectation of entering a niche of literature and literary studies they will leave it after having encountered a new highway in literature Here the traditional theme of memory and the most recent use of digital media merge into a new understanding of the role of the book in the contemporary media landscape and of vicissitudes of memorial processes literature which also offers a broader perspective on literature in human history Spurred by Sara Tanderup Linkis sharp eye the readings of texts are lucid engaging and offers so many ideas that teachers will renew their curricula and readers will open the internet for more or rush to the library Svend Erik Larsen professor emeritus Memory Intermediality and Literature investigates how selected literary works use intermedial strategies to represent and perform cultural memory Drawing on the theoretical perspectives of cultural memory studies this engaging reader friendly monograph examines new materialism and intermediality studies analyzing works by Alexander Kluge W G Sebald Jonathan Safran Foer Anne Carson Mette Hegnh j William Joyce J J Abrams and Doug Dorst The works emerge out of different traditions and genres ranging from neo avant garde montages through photo novels and book objects to apps and children's stories In this new monograph Sara Tanderup Linkis presents an interdisciplinary and comparative approach reading the works together across genres and decades and combining the perspectives of memory studies and materialist and media oriented analysis This approach makes it possible to argue that the works not only use intermedial strategies to represent memory but also to remember literature reflecting on the changing status and function of literature as a mediator of cultural memory in the age of new media Thus the works may be read as reactions to modern media culture suggesting the ways in which literature and memory are affected by new media and technologies photography and television as well as iPads and social media Novelistic Inquiries into the Mind Grzegorz Maziarczyk, Joanna Klara Teske, 2016-09-23 Novelistic Inquiries into the Mind traces the multiple relations between the mind and the contemporary novel The contributors here examine various types of narrative fiction ranging from the postmodern novels of J M Coetzee and Ian McEwan through the experimental prose of Leslie Scalapino to the popular fiction of James Dashner and Christopher Moore On the one hand they investigate novelistic representations of various mind related issues including different states of consciousness Alzheimer s disease thought experiments and formation of the self On the other by analysing and evaluating in these contexts such narrative devices as unreliable narration development of conceptual networks or multimodal integration of verbal and non verbal semiotic resources they exemplify the multiplicity of techniques whereby the novel can explore the intricacies of mental processes Taken together the essays collected here demonstrate the potential of the novel as genre for representing the mind In its exploration of the problems involved in the linguistic construction of reality the cognitive function of art and the uncertain status of consciousness the contemporary novel thus reflects the mind s urge to understand itself as well as possible meanings of its own perceptions creations and projections

Epistolarity in a Post-Letter World Sindija

Franzetti, 2024-11-18 The study intervenes in a field hitherto dominated by formal and historical analyses of the literary letter Across the five case studies the method of reading epistolarity as a motif is applied to a selection of American novels published after 1990 Nick Bantock s Griffin Lish and Dunn test the limitations of letters for conveying individual experience to a distant other Robinson and Erdrich envision epistolarity as an address to a future Exploring the employment of epistolarity as a motif the study offers an interpretation of the messages these fictions extend for readers in a post letter world Communication technologies and practices may change but epistolarity as a motif a reprise of a scene of encounter that depends on keeping a distance between addresser and addressee remains a deeply compelling site of inquiry in twenty first century literature

In Ballast to the White Sea Malcolm

Lowry,2014-10-16 In Ballast to the White Sea is Malcolm Lowry's most ambitious work of the mid 1930s. Inspired by his life experience, the novel recounts the story of a Cambridge undergraduate who aspires to be a writer but has come to believe that both his book and in a sense his life have already been written. After a fire broke out in Lowry's squatter's shack, all that remained of In Ballast to the White Sea were a few sheets of paper. Only decades after Lowry's death did it become known that his first wife, Jan Gabriel, still had a typescript. This scholarly edition presents for the first time the once lost novel. Patrick McCarthy's critical introduction offers insight into Lowry's sense of himself, while Chris Ackerley's extensive annotations provide important information about Lowry's life and art in an edition that will captivate readers and scholars alike.

Technology, Literature and Culture Alex Goody,2013-04-25 Technology, Literature and Culture provides a detailed and accessible exploration of the ways in which literature across the twentieth century has represented the inescapable presence and progress of technology. As this study argues, from the Fordist revolution in manufacturing to computers and the internet, technology has reconfigured our relationship to ourselves, each other, and to the tools and materials we use. The book considers such key topics as the legacy of late nineteenth-century technology, the literary engagement with cinema and radio, the place of typewriters and computers in formal and thematic literary innovations, the representations of technology in spy fiction, and the figures of the robot and the cyborg. It considers the importance of broadcast technology and the internet in literature and covers major literary movements including modernism, cold war writing, postmodernism, and the emergence of new textualities at the end of the century. An insightful and wide-ranging study, Technology, Literature and Culture offers close readings of writers such as Virginia Woolf, Samuel Beckett, Ian Fleming, Kurt Vonnegut, Don DeLillo, Jeanette Winterson, and Shelley Jackson. It is an invaluable resource for students and scholars alike in literary and cultural studies and also introduces the topic to a general reader interested in the role of technology in the twentieth century. Virginia Woolf in the Age of Mechanical Reproduction Pamela Caughie,2013-10-31 This collection of ten original essays is the first to read Virginia Woolf through the prism of our technological present. Expanding on the work of feminist and cultural critics of the past two decades, this volume offers a sustained reflection on the relationship between Walter Benjamin's analyses of mass culture and technology and Woolf's cultural productions of the 1920s and 1930s. It also brings out the extent to which Woolf was beginning to imagine the technological society then taking shape. This book takes part in contemporary efforts to rethink modernism as a more globalized and technologized phenomenon. Information Please Mark Poster,2006-08-30 Mark

Poster considers how new media from TiVo to digital file sharing affects society and he traces its implications for cultural theory and progressive political change. Planetary Pynchon Tore Rye Andersen,2023-08-24 While Thomas Pynchon is usually described as an American author who primarily writes about American reality, Planetary Pynchon: History, Modernity, and the Anthropocene argues that his major novels Gravity's Rainbow, Mason Dixon, and Against the Day can profitably be read as a global trilogy that presents a coherent historical account of how the emergence and spread of European modernity across the world have had devastating consequences for the planet and its inhabitants This book sets a new agenda in Pynchon studies charting his early anticipation of anthropocenic and planetary ideas including globalization s demand for constant growth It combines close textual readings with broad perspectives on large thematic arcs and stylistic developments across Pynchon s entire career as well as an extensive dialogue with the rich reception of his work The Cambridge History of Twentieth-Century English Literature Laura Marcus, Peter Nicholls, 2004 Publisher Description

American Literature in Transition, 1990-2000 Stephen J. Burn, 2017-12-28 Written in the shadow of the approaching millennium American literature in the 1990s was beset by bleak announcements of the end of books the end of postmodernism and even the end of literature Yet as conservative critics marked the century s twilight hours by launching elegies for the conventional canon American writers proved the continuing vitality of their literature by reinvigorating inherited forms by adopting and adapting emerging technologies to narrative ends and by finding new voices that had remained outside that canon for too long By reading 1990s literature in a sequence of shifting contexts from independent presses to the AIDS crisis and from angelology to virtual reality American Literature in Transition 1990-2000 provides the fullest map yet of the changing shape of a rich and diverse decade s literary production It offers new perspectives on the period s well known landmarks Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon David Foster Wallace but also overdue recognition to writers such as Ana Castillo Evan Dara Steve Erickson and Carole Maso

Writing Our Extinction Patrick Whitmarsh, 2023-04-11 Mid twentieth century developments in science and technology produced new understandings and images of the planet that circulated the globe giving rise to a modern ecological consciousness but they also contributed to accelerating crises in the global environment including climate change pollution and waste In this new work Patrick Whitmarsh analyzes postwar narrative fictions that describe depict or express the earth from above the aerial and below the subterranean revealing the ways that literature has engaged this history of vertical science and linked it to increasing environmental precarity up to and including the extinction of humankind Whitmarsh examines works by writers such as Don DeLillo Karen Tei Yamashita Reza Negarestani and Colson Whitehead alongside postwar scientific programs including the Space Race atmospheric and underground nuclear testing and geological expeditions such as Project Mohole which attempted to drill to the earth s mantle As Whitmarsh argues by focusing readers attention on the fragility of postwar life through a vertical lens Anthropocene fiction highlights the interconnections between human behavior and planetary change These fictions situate industrial history within the much longer narrative of geological time and reframe scientific progress as a story through which humankind writes itself out of existence

Popular Culture Primer John A. Weaver, 2009 This revised edition of the Popular Culture Primer is an introductory text that traces the history of popular culture and cultural studies Besides covering the traditional subjects such as the influence of the Frankfurt School and the Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies this book covers the cultural studies of science and technology the biosciences drugs and sports as well as other often ignored topics such as science fiction fan cultures and childhood studies It looks at the impact these topics have on our understanding of education and popular culture The Popular Culture Primer is an essential text for any class devoted to teaching the history and importance of the subject Web Portfolio Design and Applications DiMarco, John, 2005-12-31 This book defines and gives an overview of the web portfolio and how it is being used in academic programs and professional scenarios Provided by publisher
