

The background of the cover is a photograph of a landscape. In the foreground, there is a calm body of water reflecting the sky and the land. The shoreline is composed of large, flat, grey rocks. Beyond the rocks, a grassy slope rises, covered in a mix of green and brown vegetation. Several trees are scattered across the slope; some are bare and skeletal, while others have dense green foliage. The trees appear to be leaning or 'windswept' due to the prevailing winds. In the background, more hills or mountains are visible under a sky filled with large, white, billowing clouds. The overall mood is serene yet dramatic.

Reading The Irish Landscape:

Reading the Irish Landscape Frank Mitchell, Michael Ryan, 1997 This is the third revision of this seminal work Co authored by original author Frank Mitchell and now Michael Ryan the result is a stunning collaboration between masters giving all the elements of the original book modified updated and further enhanced by the inclusion of a new narrative of Irish archaeology from the Stone Age to the Norman Invasion Together they have successfully undertaken the daunting task of giving in one book the story of the shaping of the land from the beginning of time until now by all the varying forces of nature sea climate man and machine The story takes in the shaping of the crust the movement of glaciers the first men and their primitive agriculture their buildings and their effect on the forests the growth of bogs new migrations the rise of the monasteries of the Early Christians and the castles of conquest the devastation of war urban growth modern agriculture and afforestation all set against the backdrop of the landscape arguably one Ireland's most precious resources The Shell Guide to Reading the Irish Landscape Frank Mitchell, 1990 The Shell Guide to Reading the Irish Landscape George Frank Mitchell, Frank Mitchell, 1986 The Poetry of Eavan Boland Pilar Villar-Argaiz, 2008 Pilar Villar Arg iz's sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way the key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland's politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture Professor Anne Fogarty University College Dublin from the Introduction This monograph is an original and important contribution to the growing body of critical studies devoted to one of Ireland's major living poets Eavan Boland see Haberstroh 1996 Hagen Zelman 2005 It details the controversies that were prompted by the inclusion of Ireland in a postcolonial framework and then tests the application of an array of cogent theories and concepts to Boland's work In an attempt to explore the richness and complexity of her poetry Villar Arg iz discusses the contradictory pulls in her desire to surpass and yet at the same time epitomize Irish nationality Boland's remarkable achievement as a poet lies in her ability to stretch by constant negotiations and re appropriations the borderlines of inherited definitions of nationality and femininity Chapters include Re examining the postcolonial Gender and Irish studies Towards an understanding of Boland's poetry as minority postcolonial discourse A post nationalist or a post colonial writer Boland's revisionary stance on Mother Ireland To a third space Boland's imposed exile as a young child The subaltern in Boland's poetry Boland's mature exile in the US An Orientalist writer and Conclusion Review This rigorous and informative exploration of the poetry of Eavan Boland by Pilar Villar Arg iz proves the validity of drawing upon the resources of postcolonial theory to illuminate her work Through the lens of postcolonialism the deep seated preoccupations and complex imaginative foundations of Boland's writing are carefully excavated and interpreted Villar Arg iz moreover in her observant close readings of poems from different phases of the author's oeuvre reveals how recurrent issues such as the problem of national and cultural identity the ethical responsibility of engaging with the past and the quest for fluidity and openness are variously engaged with both aesthetically and philosophically Villar Arg iz s sustained meticulous and exacting study of Eavan Boland opens up and articulates in a fresh way key dimensions of her poetry It succeeds not only in tracking the far reaching ramifications of Eavan Boland s politicized aesthetic as a postcolonial writer but in urging us to revisit the crystalline and precisely etched poems of one of the most significant artists in contemporary Irish culture Professor Anne Fogarty Department of English University College Dublin Ireland About the Author Dr Pilar Villar Arg iz lectures in the Department of English Philology at the University of Granada Spain where she obtained a European Doctorate in English Studies Irish Literature She is the author of Eavan Boland s Evolution As an Irish Woman Poet An Outsider within an Outsider s Culture The Edwin Mellen Press 2007 She has also published extensively on the representation of femininity in contemporary Irish women s poetry on cinematic representations of Ireland and on the theoretical background and application of feminism and postcolonialism to the study of Irish literature In addition Dr Villar Arg iz has co edited two books on English literature Irish Research Series No 51 Reading the Irish Landscape University College, Dublin. School of Architecture, Landscape & Civil Engineering,2014 Reading the Irish Landscape University College, Dublin. School of Architecture, Planning and Environmental Policy,2015 Landscapes of Neolithic Ireland Gabriel Cooney,2012-12-06 Landscapes of Neolithic Ireland is the first volume to be devoted solely to the Irish Neolithic using an innovative landscape and anthropological perspective to provide significant new insights on the period Gabriel Cooney argues that the archaeological evidence demonstrates a much more complex picture than the current orthodoxy on Neolithic Europe with its assumption of mobile lifestyles suggests He integrates the study of landscape settlement agriculture material culture and burial practice to offer a rounded realistic picture of the complexities and the realities of Neolithic lives and societies in Ireland Contemporary Irish Writing and Environmentalism Donna L. Potts,2018-09-19 This book examines how the Irish environmental movement which began gaining momentum in the 1970s has influenced and been addressed by contemporary Irish writers artists and musicians It examines Irish environmental writing music and art within their cultural contexts considers how postcolonial ecocriticism might usefully be applied to Ireland and analyzes the rhetoric of Irish environmental protests It places the Irish environmental movement within the broader contexts of Irish national and postcolonial discourses focusing on the following protests the M3 Motorway the Burren campaign the Carnsore Point anti nuclear protest Shell to Sea the turf debate and the animal rights movement Europe's Living Landscapes Bas Pedrolí,Anne van Doorn,Geert de Blust,2014-12-22 This book is the result of three symposia of the Dutch Society for Landscape Ecology The first symposium in 2005 was about the National Ecological Network in the Netherlands The reason was that the implementation of the NEN decided upon in 1990 was halfway The second symposium in 2006 was about urban ecology and the third one to be held in 2007 will be about civil infrastructure This book does not cover the conferences completely and new contributions are added The three themes are important contexts in which landscape ecologists do their research and apply their knowledge and skills Of course there are many more subjects to hold conferences about for example climate change urbanisation agriculture landscape ecology itself etc The focus of the conferences is on the Netherlands with its urbanisation intensive land use and water management as characteristic features Although many WLO members do their work abroad or in an international context these conferences offer a window on what happens in the Dutch context The experiences may be of value for other contexts and that is why we present the results in English The selected themes and the focus on the Dutch context are serious demarcations of what landscape ecology in the Netherlands is all about The book does not represent all research and applications of landscape ecology

Nature and the Environment in Nineteenth-century Ireland Matthew Kelly, 2019 The environmental humanities are one of the most exciting and rapidly expanding areas of interdisciplinary study and this collection of essays is a pioneering attempt to apply these approaches to the study of nineteenth century Ireland By bringing together historians geographers and literary scholars new insights are offered into familiar subjects and unfamiliar subjects are brought out into the light Essays re considering O Connellism Lord Palmerston and Isaac Butt rub shoulders with examinations of agricultural improvement Dublin's animal geographies and Ireland's healing places Literary writers like Emily Lawless and Seumas O Sullivan are looked at anew encouraging us to re think Darwinian influences in Ireland and the history of the Irish literary revival and transnational perspectives are brought to bear on Ireland's national park history and the dynamics of Irish natural history Much modern Irish history is concerned with access to natural resources whether this reflects the catastrophic effect of the Great Famine or the conflicts associated with agrarian politics but historical and literary analyses are rarely framed explicitly in these terms The collection responds to the material turn in the humanities and contemporary concern about the environment by re imagining Ireland's nineteenth century in fresh and original ways List of contributors Matthew Kelly Helen O Connell David Brown Colin W Reid Huston Gilmore Ronan Foley Juliana Adelman Mary Orr Patrick Maume and Se n Hewitt

Space, Place and Religious Landscapes Darrelyn Gunzburg, Bernadette Brady, 2020-10-01 Exploring sacred mountains around the world this book examines whether bonding and reverence to a mountain is intrinsic to the mountain constructed by people or a mutual encounter Chapters explore mountains in England Scotland Wales Italy Ireland the Himalaya Japan Greece USA Asia and South America and embrace the union of sky landscape and people to examine the religious dynamics between human and non human entities This book takes as its starting point the fact that mountains physically mediate between land and sky and act as metaphors for bridges from one realm to another recognising that mountains are relational and that landscapes form personal and group cosmologies The book fuses ideas of space place and material religion with cultural environmentalism and takes an interconnected approach to material religio landscapes In this way it fills the gap between lived religious traditions personal reflection phenomenology historical context environmental philosophy myths and performativity In defining material religion as active engagement with mountain forming and humanshaping landscapes the research and ideas presented here provide theories that are widely applicable to other forms of material religion A History of Settlement in Ireland Terry Barry, 2012-11-12 A History of Settlement in Ireland provides a stimulating and thought provoking overview of the settlement history of Ireland from prehistory to the present day Particular attention is paid to the issues of settlement change and distribution within the contexts of environment demography culture The collection goes further by setting the agenda for future research in this rapidly expanding area of academic interest This volume will be essential reading for all those with an interest in the archaeology history and social geography of Ireland

Contested Landscapes Barbara Bender, Margot

Winer, 2020-05-27 Landscapes are not just backdrops to human action people make them and are made by them How people understand and engage with their material world depends upon particularities of time and place These understandings are dynamic variable contradictory and open ended Landscapes are thus always evolving and are often volatile and contested They are also always on the move people may or may not be rooted but they have legs From prehistoric times onwards people have travelled but the process of people on the move as tourists or on global business as migrant workers or political or economic refugees has vastly accelerated How and why do people who share the same landscape have different and often violently opposed ways of understanding its significance How do people on the move make sense of the unfamiliar How do they create a sense of place How do they rework the memories of places left behind There is nothing easeful about the landscapes discussed in this book which are often harsh edged and troubled both socially and politically The contributors tackle contested notions of landscape to explain the key role it plays in creating identity and shaping human behaviour This landmark study offers an important contribution towards an understanding of the complexity of landscape
