Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage the book is divided into eleven chapters There are tributes for mothers fathers children spouses and soulmates friends siblings and other close relatives soldiers and victims of war or violence pets and general readings appropriate for men women or any loved one These selections will also prove helpful for clergy counselors

Klicker,2013-01-11 Among the abundance of material available about death and dying there is a very limited amount that deals directly with the needs of a school community when one of its members dies In addition a great need exists for schools to develop an organized plan for responding to the death of a student or staff member A Student Dies ASchool Mourns aims to fill this gap The book not only examines and explains the grief reactions of students and school staff members and the factors that affect these reactions it also provides a systematic guide for developing a death related crisis response plan This timely book is
