Who? When? Where? What?

Which? How? Why did...?

Henry the eighth was king of England. He married his brother's widow, Katharine of Aragon when he was eighteen. She gave him one daughter, but no sons. Henry fell in love with Anne Boleyn, changed the religion of England and divorced Katharine. Anne also gave him one daughter. Henry got fed up and chopped her head off. He had four more wives after that. He had one son, who sadly died early. Anne's daughter Elizabeth became queen.

- 1) Who was Henry VIII?
- 2) Who did he marry?
- 3) Why did he divorce his first wife?
- 4) What did he change about England?
- 5) What happened to Anne Boleyn?
- 6) How many wives did Henry have in total?

Caesar left home early in the morning. His wife followed him and begged him to stay home. He refused. He walked towards the Senate. An old lady shouted at him. She warned him to be careful. He arrived at the Senate. At first, a group of his friends, fellow senators, greeted him warmly. Then, they drew their daggers and stabbed him. It was the ides of March.

- 1) When did Caesar leave home?
- 2) Who begged him not to go out?
- 3) Where did he walk to?
- 4) Who shouted at him and why?
- 5) At first, what did his friends do?
- 6) What did they do afterwards?
- 7) What date was it?

Caligula had a bad start in life: enemies poisoned his father, starved his mother to death and killed his two older brothers. He became emperor of Rome and made some good decisions. Unfortunately, eventually, power corrupted him. He killed many senators and angered a lot of people. He made his horse a consul. Finally, some of the praetorian guard assassinated him. The ordinary Romans rejoiced.

- 1) In what ways did he have a bad start?
- 2) Which city did he rule?
- 3) What did power do to him?
- 4) Did he treat the senators well?
- 5) Who did he make a consul?
- 6) How did the Romans react when he died?

In 1912, the Titanic set sail on her maiden (first) voyage (journey) from England to America. They said she was unsinkable! In the early hours of the morning of April 12th, she hit an iceberg. The iceberg tore through the length of the ship. She sank in under three hours. The captain cried. The band played on. In total, 1503 people died. Either they drowned, or froze to death.

- 1) What was 'Titanic'?
- 2) When did she set sail on her maiden voyage?
- 3) What did people say about her?
- 4) Why did she sink?
- 5) How long did it take for her to sink?
- 6) Did the band abandon ship?
- 7) How many people lost their lives, and how?

Tutankhamun - nicknamed 'King Tut' - was an Egyptian pharaoh, who died young, maybe as young as eighteen. Howard Carter, an archaeologist and his team, discovered Tut's tomb in the Valley of the Kings, in 1922. There were wonderful things in it! This discovery sparked a worldwide interest in Egyptology. An analysis of Tut's mummy showed many possible causes of death, including an infection in a leg, which may have been broken in a chariot race.

1. Who was 'King Tut'?
2. Who discovered his tomb?
3. Where is his tomb?
4. In which year was it discovered?
5. What followed the discovery of the tomb?
6. Has his mummy been examined?
7. What might the cause of death have been?

Archimedes was a mathematician and philosopher who lived over 2000 years ago. Although he was Greek, he lived on Sicily. His most famous discovery was how to work out the volume of an irregular-shaped object. It is said he discovered this while in his bath, and ran through the town, Siracusa, shouting 'Eureka!'. After the Roman invasion of Sicily, a soldier came to take Archimedes. He told the soldier to wait. Then the soldier got angry and killed Archimedes.

- 1) Who was Archimedes?
- 2) What was his nationality?
- 3) Where did he live?
- 4) How did he discover how to calculate the volume of an irregular shape?
- 5) What does 'Eureka' mean in English?
- 6) How did he die?

Readings in English History Drawn From the Original Sources. Intended to Illustrate a Short History of England Edward Potts Cheyney, 2015-06-24 Excerpt from Readings in English History Drawn From the Original Sources Intended to Illustrate a Short History of England All intelligent teachers of history realize the desirability of having their students do more reading of history than is contained in the text book and most of them agree that this is best found in records and writings contemporary with the events being studied But the practical problem of providing such readings for classes is by no means easy to solve Those who have tried to procure the necessary number of copies of books to discover English translations to find applicable passages and to make practicable requirements best know the difficulties of the task I hope this book of readings from the original sources of English history will help to overcome these obstacles It provides in easily accessible form a body of such material as large as can be actually utilized by most classes It is intended to be used as a close companion to my Short History of England The matter contained in it is arranged in the same order as the subjects taken up in the text book and is selected with a view to the further explanation and illustration of the principal points there discussed It differs also from previous collections in drawing on a somewhat greater variety of historical material and in being it is believed the result of a more extensive and prolonged search for suitable illustrative passages About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Readings in English history English history,1880 English history reading books. [With] The young student's English history reading book [and] English history home lesson books Charlotte Mary Yonge,1881 Readings from English History (Classic Reprint) John Richard Green,2015-09-27 Excerpt from Readings From English History My aim in compiling these books of historical extracts is a very simple and practical one The teaching of English History is spreading fast through our schools but it can hardly be said as yet to have become a popular subject of study among their scholars In fact if I may trust my own experience a large proportion of boys and girls turn from it as hard dry and uninteresting I cannot say that the complaint is a groundless one In their zeal to cram as many facts as possible into their pages the writers of most historical text books have been driven to shut out from their narratives all that gives life and colour to the story of men History as we give it to our children is literally an old almanack and is as serviceable as an old almanack in quickening their wits or in rousing their interest No doubt wiser books will come in time but meanwhile those teachers who care to appeal to more valuable faculties than that of mere memory are hard put to it to find a remedy for the dryness of history About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections

Selected Readings in English History Harriet Emily Tuell, 2015-06-26 Excerpt from Selected Readings in English History In offering to teachers of English history a new collection of readings the compilers of this volume believe that they are meeting a widely recognized need The time was when teachers in convention discussed the value of such collateral reading Now they seek for ways and means The value of the work is no longer in question The general sentiment of teachers and the requirements of the colleges alike demand more than the best textbook can offer The new demand however creates new problems Where and how may suitable readings be obtained The best equipment undoubtedly is furnished by a large school library with a great variety of books from which to choose and many duplicate copies of the most useful works But the expense involved is very great so great as to be in many cases prohibitory The best alternative appears to be a collection of such extracts as are suited to the purpose By this means the pupil is furnished at moderate cost with the best a library affords If the selections prove interesting he is impelled to go further afield by himself The selection of such material is not easy The need is for vivid and interesting reading calculated to produce a clear and definite impression At first sight the field from which one may choose appears wide and fruitful but it soon narrows down to a very limited area Selections from the sources have been widely recommended and somewhat lavishly supplied About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
