Readings in World History Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, Harcourt Brace Staff, 1990-01-01 Readings in World History William Hardy McNeill, Jean W. Sedlar, 1977 Sources of World History Mark A. Kishlansky, Susan Lindsey Lively, 1998

This reader edited by well known author Mark Kishlansky includes a diversity of historical documents from world and western history designed to supplement textbooks and lectures in the teaching of world civilizations. It is an ideal complement to WORLD HISTORY Second Edition by Duiker Spielvogel, WORLD HISTORY Second Edition by Upshur et al and WORLD HISTORY Fifth Edition by Adler. This reader provides a balance of constitutional documents, political theory, philosophy, imaginative literature and social description. The Global Experience Philip F. Riley, 1998 Sources of World History, 1999 The Global Experience: Readings in world history since 1500 Philip F. Riley, 1998 The Global Experience: Readings in world history to 1550 Philip F. Riley, 2006

For courses in World History, World Civilization and World Culture. Also appropriate as a supplemental text in Asian History courses and European History courses. This integrated global collection of primary source documents illustrates the variety of experiences on the part of men and women who have made history and is designed with introductions and questions to make main points clear to students. Organized chronologically and focusing on global themes, it includes excerpts from both classic texts and less familiar but equally illustrative material. The Global Experience: Readings in world history since 1550 Philip F. Riley, 2006

For courses in World History. This integrated global collection of primary source documents illustrates the variety of experiences on the part of men and women who have made history and is designed through careful editing and with introductions and questions to make main points clear to students. Organized chronologically and focusing on global themes, it includes excerpts from both classic texts and less familiar but equally illustrative material. Readings in World History: The origins of civilization, 1968

The Global Experience Stuart B. Schwartz, 1997. The Global Experience provides students with up to date global and high interest readings with a social history focus. Offering a global perspective of world history, this collection provides a concise, easy to read selection of documents and secondary readings. Readings in World Christian History: Earliest Christianity to 1453 John Wayland Coakley, Andrea Sterk, 2004-01-01

This companion to History of the World Christian Movement explores how varied and multi-cultural Christian origins and history really are. Twentieth Century Voices: Selected Readings in World History (Revised Edition) Michael G. Vann, 2012-06-01

From Gandhi to Osama bin Laden, from Mao to Churchill and from Kipling to Salman Rushdie, Twentieth Century Voices: Selected Readings in World History offers a wide variety of primary sources for students of the Twentieth Century world. While all students will benefit from these readings, Michael G. Vann used his expertise in teacher training to specifically compile this collection to prepare students who intend to teach in California high school classrooms. Thus the sources are organized with an eye to the California State Standards for 10th grade World History. Furthermore, Vann is an active member of the World History Association and an officer in the California

World History Association a WHA regional affiliate has framed these primary sources with current trends in the historiography of World History Specifically the collection rejects discounted Eurocentric narratives and gives voice to traditionally marginalized historical actors in the history of imperialism communism and the Cold War Along with many classic documents from key historical moments readers will find several sources that challenge conventional wisdom about this tumultuous century Michael G Vann is an Associate Professor of World History at Sacramento State University vice president of the California World History Association and a past president of the French Colonial Historical Society In addition to teaching World History for undergraduate and graduate students he offers courses on imperialism Southeast Asia and genocide Vann is active in teacher training for California high school teachers His publications include The Colonial Good Life A Commentary on Andre Joyeux s Vision of French Indochina a special issue of the World History Association Bulletin on France in World History and over a dozen academic journal articles on French colonialism The Global Experience: Readings in world history to 1500 Philip F. Riley,1992 Global History Anthony Snyder,Sherri West,1992
