The School of Making mixes lessons in sewing design and embroidery with Natalie Chanin's engaging personal story of the evolution of Alabama Chanin and the indelible mark the techniques she pioneered and the company she founded have made on the sewing and fashion industry. Chapters explore design related themes: craft technique, relationship, repeat and color through images, instruction and stories from Chanin about her life. Alabama Chanin and the evolving view of craft and hand sewing in the modern world. The book also explores how sewing and embroidery relate to wider concerns of sustainability, community and women's empowerment. As makers, we tend to learn different stitches over time without thinking much about how they relate to one another. Embroidery challenges us to go deeper by examining the history of a beloved company and cherished pastime.
