experienced hands Real Life Shareef Abdul-Salaam,2014-10-31 The fictional novel Real Life is about a young male adult whose entire family's life changed when their beloved father was inexplicably murdered on their front porch. The main character Real, being the new man of the house, must do what it takes to support his now broken family. He decides to embark on a strenuous journey with selling drugs, thinking that it was the best way of survival in Chicago. At first, the lifestyle change brings him and his family sudden riches, but then Real gets into trouble with the wrong people. How will he be able to handle all of life's unforgiving pressures thrown at him because of senseless gun violence? A certain twist will be revealed with the sequel to my hopeful hit Real Life I, as the author wrote this story to entertain the issue of street violence. I feel that this terrible epidemic has gone on far enough. I try to explain how gun violence alters lives forever—the lives of the families affected and their friends around them. I also try to tell a heartfelt story that will hopefully move everyone enough to want and embrace change, the change we so desperately need.

Real-life Dilemmas in Moral Education Vishalache Balakrishnan,2011 The purpose of this book is to contribute to contemporary debates about alternative ways of teaching Moral Education in Malaysia by including the voice of students. Moral Education in the Malaysian setting is both complex and compulsory. This book explores alternatives to the current somewhat dated approach. It seeks to discover what young adolescents describe as moral dilemmas, how they approach them, and what they find useful in resolving these moral problems.

Our Real Life in Christ M. Alberto Zelaya Aragon,2013-11-21 It's essential to uncover the current malady affecting the organized Christian Church today, not its structuring and not necessarily its organizational approach, but present to it His solution, which has never been hidden or even veiled in His Word, which is that we must return to the true roots of Christianity, which is founded on the individual discipleship of each member of His body, just as Jesus designed it and modeled it for us while He ministered on this earth. It passed the acid test of resiliency when it was mercilessly persecuted, as its disciples applied the principles as instituted and instructed by our Lord, for all of us to display and to do. I encourage anyone to do a Bible search for the word disciple and believer and see firsthand that these words are not interchangeable or used in the same context when referring to a specific person whose known to be committed to our Lord versus referring to a generalization in the third person to someone or a group whose aware about the existence of the real living God. God's remedy is still available today to anyone who truly desires to attain it and can decipher that it's only through discipleship that a true believer is infected with the enthusiasm, zeal, and eagerness in the commitment to fulfill John 8:31 and Matthew 28:19, reaching to those around them who thirst and hunger for the things of God and in that process experience the life He promises we can live now. It's time to abandon once and for all the current practices of mass-producing supporters and inscribe it into our minds that the Great Commission was not to make believers but to make disciples. The early church didn't churn out cheerleaders and advocates but bona fide disciples.

taught and equipped according to Ephesians 6 10-17 who then as members of the body of Christ led by example transforming them into a formidable most powerful and effective force the Roman Empire had ever seen Again I want to reiterate that I am not against the church as organized by the apostles but want to revolutionize it where discipleship is the top priority and purpose for its existence I am critical of the current organized version that has taken the place of the real church that nowadays is wasting vast resources and investing them in huge entertainment amphitheaters and often dilute distort and obscure the true message and method to attain this new life established by our Lord Unless this change happens we cant truly reach and change a lost world Our Real Life in Christ seeks to help those who are experiencing that gnawing sensation that there is much more to Gods Word than what is being offered by those weekly sermons in churches today
