Subcommittee on Housing,1971 Air Quality Management and Research in Southeast Asia Erik Velasco,Armando Retama,Dimitris Stratoulis,2024-12-01 This book examines the capabilities for monitoring air quality developing emission inventories and running chemical transport models for regulatory forecasting and research purposes in Southeast Asia It also reviews scientific efforts made to better understand and characterize air pollution in the region Poor air quality poses a threat to public health It affects people s lives and undermines economic growth but as in many other parts of the world it has been overlooked in Southeast Asia International assessments suggest that it is the culprit of 335

thousand premature deaths in the region each year entailing a monetary cost equivalent to 6.75% of the regional GDP. Reducing air pollution requires concerted efforts from all Southeast Asian nations to implement local and regional air quality policies following a science policy approach. For such endeavor it is essential to develop tools that enable timely and reliable air quality management. This entails collecting data to characterize the magnitude, origin and impact of air pollution to support corrective actions. The objective of this book is to provide a starting point for a science based conversation about implementing solutions to Southeast Asia's air pollution problem by bringing together an analysis of the availability of air quality data and studies from across the region.

Environmental Regulation in Transforming Economies: The Case of Poland Piotr Jasinski, Helen Lawton-Smith, 2018-12-17 First published in 1999 the book is based on papers given at the final workshop of a research project into the evolution of environmental regulation in Poland undertaken as part of the UK's ERSC Global Environmental Change Programme. Other invited papers focused on the development of regulatory policy in transforming economies and in the UK. Furthermore the book highlights the weakness of internal political processes in Poland and the important role played by foreign sponsored pressures whilst examining the divergence between the way environmental charges are supposed to operate and the ways in which they are implemented and enforced. Topics covered include the links between privatisation and the environment the saline water problem in Upper Silesia enforcement of and compliance with environmental charges air pollution in Krakow and the structure of the Polish environmental administration system.
