Regional Development and Settlement Policy David Dewar (B.A.),A. Todes,Vanessa Watson,1986-01-01 Regional Development and Settlement Policy David Dewar,Alison Todes,Vanessa Watson,2017-09-05 Originally published in 1986 This book focusses on a critical analysis of regional development strategy in South Africa and shifts over time in that strategy Regional development theory and thinking about settlement policy have developed largely independently of each other This book clarifies some of the resulting confusion and points towards a greater integration of the two areas of understanding The book provides an overview of shifts which occurred in national and regional development theory and the broader social economic and political factors which influenced these shifts It identifies the major policy implications of the various development approaches with particular emphasis placed on the role of settlement policy The differences between policy approaches and the debates surrounding them are identified and discussed Contemporary South Africa and the Political Economy of Regional Development Methembe Mdlalose,Isaac Khambule,Nene Ernest Khalema,2025-02-21 South Africa s struggle in balancing its domestic needs while playing a dynamic developmental role in the African region and global context exposes a complex web of relations shaped by its geostrategic location on the continent and the world and the staggering legacies of colonialism and apartheid As such understanding the complexities of the global economy and of South Africa s place in it is of great importance This book builds upon an existing body of literature which has demonstrated that while the post apartheid South African state has recast its nation building goals with advances having been made notably in the area of a stellar post apartheid constitution policy directives and democratic political integration economic integration and policy implementation presents a projection of captured interests where big business concerns are entrenched in the post apartheid state s apparent neo liberal turn The main focus of the book is to contextualise issues relating to three main trends in global discourses on development which are significant for South Africa and indeed for the study of the political economy of regional development in the country from the prism of South Africa as a global capitalist state These trends include the impact of globalisation regionalisation and the marginalisation of South Africa and indeed the African continent in the global economy thus unpacking the possible role that South Africa might play in regional development This volume will be a valuable resource to academics researchers and students in the fields of regional studies economics and political theory as well as policymakers planners and local economic development practitioners Transforming Settlement in Southern Africa Chris de Wet,2020-03-31 This volume examines the ways in which changing political and economic processes impact upon patterns of population movement and settlement It focuses on the southern African region as it has moved from the experiments of the early independence era through civil war and refugee flight into the current era characterised by globalization and the demise of apartheid Focused case studies from across the region deal with specific aspects of these transformations and their policy implications Global Regionalization H. S. Geyer,2006-01-01 Global Regionalization

examines the astonishing political and economic changes that have completely reshaped the political geography of certain regions during the past fifteen years It deals with the concept of global bloc formation examining the impacts that changing political economic conditions and relationships in and between nations have on demographic and economic flows Indian Geography in the 21st Century Ravi S. Singh, 2009-10-02 This book primarily a collection of statements on action agenda to be pursued in geography in India consists of nineteen chapters exclusively authored by the young geographers It is organised into five parts Part I provides The Contextual Orientation Part II contemplates on Reshaping Geography Education Part III explores Resurrecting Physical Geography Part IV looks at Retrieving Human Geography and Part V The Summum Bonum attempts to garland the emerging thoughts The book seeks to provide a peep into the future Indian Geography and serve professional geographers researchers teachers and students alike Urbanization in Post-Apartheid South Africa Richard Tomlinson, 2017-10-30 Originally published in 1990 Urbanization in Post Apartheid South Africa examines the democratic future of South Africa in the context of policy options and constraints The book looks at the issue of South Africa s future including access to land and housing marked regional differences in well being large peri urban settlements arising around all major towns and racial inequalities in access to farming land The book will be of interest to students of urbanization geography economics and planning and African studies Understanding African Real Estate Markets Aly Karam, François Viruly, Catherine Kariuki, Victor Akujuru, 2022-04-28 This book brings together a broad range of research that interrogates how real estate market analysis finance planning and investment for residential and commercial developments across the African continent are undertaken In the past two decades African real estate markets have rapidly matured creating the conditions for new investment opportunities which has increased the demand for a deeper understanding of the commercial and residential markets across the continent The chapters consider issues that pertain to formal real estate markets and the critical relationship between formal and informal property markets on the continent With contributing authors from South Africa Ghana Nigeria Uganda Kenya and Tanzania the book considers the achievements of African real estate markets while also highlighting the complex central themes such as underdeveloped land tenure arrangements the availability of finance in both the commercial and residential sectors rapidly growing urban areas and inadequate professional skills This book is essential reading for students in real estate land management planning finance development and economics programs who need to understand the nuances of markets in the African context Investors and policy makers will learn a lot reading this book too Urbanisation Derik Gelderblom, P. C. Kok, 1994 In Volume 1 of this two volume publication the authors review the international literature on urbanisation Environment & Planning A, 1987 Urbanisation: Planning Derik Gelderblom, P.
