

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a classroom. In the foreground, several wooden chairs with dark seats are visible, slightly out of focus. In the background, a round analog clock is mounted on a light-colored wall. The overall lighting is warm and slightly dim, creating a nostalgic atmosphere.

Teaching across Cultures Chinwe H. Ikpeze, 2015-04-27 Teaching across Cultures Building Pedagogical Relationships in Diverse Contexts captures the tensions complexities as well as the transformational potentials of teaching across multiple cultural contexts The book evolved from cumulative self studies that examined one teacher educator's teaching practice the cultural impact on this practice and how she facilitated transformative teaching and learning While every act of teaching occurs across cultures such as institutional culture invisible cultures classroom cultures among others educators who teach as cultural outsiders have to navigate the tensions complexities and contradictory realities of cross cultural teaching The tensions can be reduced or managed through responsive pedagogy relationship building and teaching in the third space These transformational approaches not only help to identify and close the perpetual gaps in teaching and learning but also position effective teaching within a pedagogical common ground that values student voices facilitates pedagogical flexibility and uses diversity as a teaching tool In a world of ubiquitous and interactive learning environments both the physical and virtual spaces play a vital role in teaching and teacher student relationships The book points to the necessity of teacher educators learning through diverse professional networks but more importantly through self study It is only through this introspective examination of one's teaching and students learning as well as taking an ontological attitude to teaching that educators can achieve success in diverse contexts

Depicting Canada's Children
Loren Lerner, 2009-05-20 Depicting Canada's Children is a critical analysis of the visual representation of Canadian children from the seventeenth century to the present Recognizing the importance of methodological diversity these essays discuss understandings of children and childhood derived from depictions across a wide range of media and contexts But rather than simply examine images in formal settings the authors take into account the components of the images and the role of image making in everyday life The contributors provide a close study of the evolution of the figure of the child and shed light on the defining role children have played in the history of Canada and our assumptions about them Rather than offer comprehensive historical coverage this collection is a catalyst for further study through case studies that endorse innovative scholarship This book will be of interest to scholars in art history Canadian history visual culture Canadian studies and the history of children

Handbook of Teacher Education Tony Townsend, Richard Bates, 2006-08-09 This book has its origins in conversations that started when the International Council on Education for Teaching ICET and the Australian Teacher Education Association ATEA jointly agreed to co sponsor a World Assembly of Teacher Educators in Melbourne in July 2003 hosted by Monash University The editors of this book were not only intimately involved in the management of the conference but had also been key figures in the Associations involved Tony Townsend had been secretary and on the national board of the South Pacific Association for Teacher Education SPATE which later became ATEA and had previously managed a SPATE conference in Frankston Australia in the 1980s He is currently the President of ICET and now works at Florida Atlantic University Richard Bates has been a long time board member of ATEA and is currently President of that organization He is also a Board member of ICET The International Council on Education for Teaching ICET was founded in 1953 for the purpose of emphasizing international cooperation in educational development in order to improve the quality of teacher education as well as to expand global educational opportunities for people in teacher education Since that time ICET has developed into an international association of practitioners of teacher education policy and decision makers in education government and business dedicated to global development through education ICET is a Non Governmental Organization NGO and participates in NGO meetings and other UNESCO sponsored conferences around the world
