Ethics Beyond War's End Eric Patterson, 2012-03-02 The wars in Afghanistan and

Iraq have focused new attention on a perennial problem how to end wars well What ethical considerations should guide war s settlement and its aftermath In cases of protracted conflicts recurring war failed or failing states or genocide and war crimes is there a framework for establishing an enduring peace that is pragmatic and moral Ethics Beyond War s End provides answers to these questions from the just war tradition Just war thinking engages the difficult decisions of going to war and how war is fought But from this point forward just war theory must also take into account what happens after war ends and the critical issues that follow establishing an enduring order employing political forms of justice and cultivating collective forms of conciliation Top thinkers in the field including Michael Walzer Jean Bethke Elshtain James Turner Johnson and Brian Orend offer powerful contributions to our understanding of the vital issues associated with late and post conflict in tough real world scenarios that range from the US Civil War to contemporary quagmires in Afghanistan the Middle East and the Congo

Suicide of the West Jonah Goldberg,2020-01-14 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER An urgent argument that America and other democracies are in peril because they have lost the will to defend the values and institutions that sustain freedom and prosperity Now updated with a new preface Epic and debate shifting David Brooks New York Times Only once in the last 250 000 years have humans stumbled upon a way to lift ourselves out of the endless cycle of poverty hunger and war that defines most of history If democracy individualism and the free market were humankind s destiny they should have appeared and taken hold a bit earlier in the evolutionary record The emergence of freedom and prosperity was nothing short of a miracle As Americans we are doubly blessed because the radical ideas that made the miracle possible were written not just into the Constitution but in our hearts laying the groundwork for our uniquely prosperous society Those ideas are Our rights come from God not from the government The government belongs to us we do not belong to it The individual is sovereign We are all captains of our own souls not bound by the circumstances of our birth The fruits of our labors belong to us In the last few decades these political virtues have been turned into vices As we are increasingly taught to view our traditions as a system of oppression exploitation and privilege the principles of liberty and the rule of law are under attack from left and right For the West to survive we must renew our sense of gratitude for what our civilization has given us and rediscover the ideals and habits of the heart that led us out of the bloody muck of the past or back to the muck we will go On Hallowed Ground John P. Diggins, 2000-01-01
