Religion and Atheism in the U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe Jean K. Laux, 1975 Religion and Atheism in the U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe Bohdan R. Bociurkiw, John W. Strong, 1975 Religion and Atheism in the U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe Branko Bosnjak, 1972 Religion and Nationalism in Soviet and East European Politics Sabrina P. Ramet, 1989

Religious organizations in many countries of the communist world have served as agents for the preservation defense and reinforcement of nationalist feelings and in playing this role have frequently been a source of frustration to the Communist Party elites Although the relationship between governments and religious groups varies according to the particular country and group in question the mosaic of these relationships constitutes a revealing picture of the political reform shaping the lives of Soviet and East European citizens Human Rights in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union United States.

Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Political and Military Affairs, 1976 Communism, Atheism and the Orthodox Church of Albania Artan Hoxha, 2022-07-01 This book examines the relations between the Albanian communist regime and the Albanian Autocephalous Orthodox Church AAOC from 1945 when the communists came to power to 1967 when Albania became the only atheistic state in the world and religion of all kinds was completely suppressed Based on extensive archival research the book outlines Orthodox Church life under communism and considers the regime's strategies to control use and subordinate the Church It argues against a simple state oppression versus Church resistance scenario showing that the situation was much more complex with neither the regime nor the Church being monolithic entities It shows how despite the brutality and the constant pressure of the state the Church successfully negotiated with the communist authorities and benefited from engaging with them and how the communist authorities used the Church as a tool of foreign policy especially to strengthen the regime's ties with their East European allies East European Fault Lines Janusz Bugajski, 2019-04-10 This book provides a comparative analysis of oppositionist trends in the Soviet satellite states of contemporary Eastern Europe. It evaluates the extent and objectives of independent social activism in these countries and explores both the causes and effects of public dissent. Insular Southeast Asia Fritz Schulze, Holger Warnk, 2006 This festschrift dedicated to Bernd Nothofer contains twelve contributions which comprise studies on linguistics and the cultural history of insular Southeast Asia. The linguistic studies range from an overview article to analyses of very specific linguistic features. James Collins and Alexander Adelaar discuss the positions of several languages and dialects of West and East Kalimantan. Karl Heinz Pampus introduces an almost unknown linguist of the Mentawai language. Waruno Mahdi's article about the beginnings of the Commissie voor de Volkslectuur examines aspects of literary history as well as linguistic aspects. Some of the cultural studies have a historical approach. Wilfried Wagner analyses the variant perceptions of Malacca's downfall. Fritz Schulze highlights the importance of Malay chronicles for understanding the Islamisation process in that area. Holger Warnk sheds some new light on the Malay speaking community in Cairo at the end of the 19th century. Ragna Boden describes the intricacies of Indonesian Soviet relations until the coup of 1965. The last two articles discuss contemporary problems. Ulrich Scholz puts forward some remarks on the problems caused by the oil palm boom in Indonesia and Malaysia. Sven Kosel considers the position of the indigenous people of Indonesia between decentralisation and globalisation.

Atheism and Secularity Phil Zuckerman, 2009-12-21 This important two volume contribution to the field of secular studies offers the first comprehensive examination of atheists and non religious people around the world. Who are atheists? How does atheism relate to various aspects of our social world such as politics, feminism, globalization and the family? And what is the current state of atheism internationally? Atheism and Secularity addresses the growing interest in the non religious world by exploring these and related questions. It is a comprehensive and compelling look at atheists and atheism both nationally and internationally, covering a range of topics often overlooked in other books on the subject. Atheism and Secularity is not a philosophical polemic work but rather an exploration of who atheists are, what they believe, how they relate to the world and how the world relates to them. The first volume focuses on topics such as family life, gender, sexuality, politics and social movements. The second volume looks at atheism and secularity around the world, exploring the lives of non religious people in North America, Japan, China, India, Europe, the Arab World and other locations.
