Religion And Atheism In The Ussr And Eastern Europe:

Religion and Atheism in the U.S.S.R. and Eastern Europe Jean K. Laux, 1975 Religion and Nationalism in Soviet and East European Politics Sabrina P. Ramet, 1989 Religious organizations in many countries of the communist world have served as agents for the preservation defense and reinforcement of nationalist feelings and in playing this role have frequently been a source of frustration to the Communist Party elites Although the relationship between governments and religious groups varies according to the particular country and group in question the mosaic of these relationships constitutes a revealing picture of the political reform shaping the lives of Soviet and East European citizens Human Rights in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs, 1981

Russia, the USSR, and Eastern Europe Stephan M. Horak, 1982 Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond

Pearson,1989 Christian Religion in the Soviet Union Christel Lane,1978-01-01 Christel Lane has written the first sociological study of religion in a communist and militantly atheist society Christian Religion in the Soviet Union is the result of a detailed examination of Soviet sociological sources and the legally and illegally published reports of religious bodies or individuals backed up by the observations of the author and of other Western visitors to the USSR Dr Lane attempts to assess the impact of the intellectual and material culture of Soviet society on Christian religion She analyses the religious life in the contemporary Christian churches and sects describing the scope of their membership and its social composition the religious commitment of believers and their social and political orientations Christian Religion in the Soviet Union will be central reading for students of religion in modern industrial society who are working within the disciplines of sociology comparative religion or theology It will also appeal to those studying Soviet society from a more general sociological perspective and to a wide readership interested in the contest between Christian religion and Marxist Leninist ideology Religion and Atheism in the USSR and Eastern Europe ,1975 Understanding Soviet Society Michael Paul Sacks,Jerry G. Pankhurst,2013-10-15 First Published in 1988 Understanding Soviet Society has grown out of the authors experience as sociologists researching and teaching about the Soviet Union Meant initially as an update to Contemporary Soviet Society Sociological Perspectives from 1980 this became a new volume because of the addition of six new authors but also because of the major changes occurring in the USSR today that in many ways necessitated new approaches It examines the fundamental institutions of Soviet society from work and social welfare to politics and the Party in order to provide an objective understanding of the social underpinnings of the Soviet System Occasional Papers on Religion in Eastern Europe ,1981

The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard,Rebecca Routh,2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology Religious Persecution in the Soviet Union United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Political and Military Affairs,1976 Communism, Atheism and the Orthodox Church of Albania Artan Hoxha,2022-07-01 This book examines the relations between the Albanian communist regime and the Albanian Autocephalous Orthodox Church AAOC from 1945 when the communists came to power to 1967 when Albania became the only atheistic state in the world and religion of all kinds was completely suppressed Based on extensive archival research the book outlines Orthodox Church life under communism and considers the regime's strategies to control use and subordinate the Church It argues against a simple state oppression versus Church resistance scenario showing that the situation was much more complex with neither the regime nor the Church being monolithic entities It shows how despite the brutality and the constant pressure of the state the Church successfully negotiated with the communist authorities and benefited from engaging with them and how the communist authorities used the Church as a tool of foreign policy especially to strengthen the regime's ties with their East European allies East European Fault Lines Janusz Bugajski, 2019-04-10 This book provides a comparative analysis of oppositionist trends in the Soviet satellite states of contemporary Eastern Europe. It evaluates the extent and objectives of independent social activism in these countries and explores both the causes and effects of public dissent Insular Southeast Asia Fritz Schulze, Holger Warnk, 2006 This festschrift dedicated to Bernd Nothofer contains twelve contributions which comprise studies on linguistics and the cultural history of insular Southeast Asia. The linguistic studies range from an overview article to analyses of very specific linguistic features. James Collins and Alexander Adelaar discuss the positions of several languages and dialects of West and East Kalimantan. Karl Heinz Pampus introduces an almost unknown linguist of the Mentawai language. Waruno Mahdi's article about the beginnings of the Commissie voor de Volkslectuur examines aspects of literary history as well as linguistic aspects. Some of the cultural studies have a historical approach. Wilfried Wagner analyses the variant perceptions of Malacca's downfall. Fritz Schulze highlights the importance of Malay chronicles for understanding the Islamisation process in that area. Holger Warnk sheds some new light on the Malay speaking community in Cairo at the end of the 19th century. Ragna Boden describes the intricacies of Indonesian Soviet relations until the coup of 1965. The last two articles discuss contemporary problems. Ulrich Scholz puts forward some remarks on the problems caused by the oil palm boom in Indonesia and Malaysia. Sven Kosel considers the position of the indigenous people of Indonesia between decentralisation and globalisation.

Atheism and Secularity Phil Zuckerman, 2009-12-21 This important two volume contribution to the field of secular studies offers the first comprehensive examination of atheists and non religious people around the world. Who are atheists? How does atheism relate to various aspects of our social world such as politics, feminism, globalization and the family? And what is the current state of atheism internationally? Atheism and Secularity addresses the growing interest in the non religious world by exploring these and related questions. It is a comprehensive and compelling look at atheists and atheism both nationally and internationally covering a range of topics often overlooked in other books on the subject. Atheism and Secularity is not a philosophical polemic work but rather an exploration of who atheists are, what they believe, how they relate to the world and how the world relates to them. The first volume focuses on topics such as family life, gender, sexuality, politics and social movements. The second volume looks at atheism and secularity around the world exploring the lives of non religious people in North America, Japan, China, India, Europe, the Arab World and other locations International Empirical Studies on Religion and Socioeconomic Human Rights Hans-Georg Ziebertz, 2020-03-06 Socioeconomic rights include rights with regard to social security, labour and employment as well as cultural rights which may be regarded as a shield for the protection of human dignity especially of specific groups such as women, children and refugees. The enforceability of socioeconomic rights clearly distinguishes them from other rights. These rights need perhaps more than others the support of civil society. Because states have leeway in how resources are distributed, civil society has a major impact on what resources are used to fulfil socio economic rights One of the actors in the public arena are religious traditions respective Churches Most of them have developed ethical standards for individual conduct and rules for living together in society based on their basic scriptures All three monotheistic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam are marked by a caring engagement for the poor the sick the old and the foreign From an empirical perspective the general research question of this volume is how young people understand and evaluate socioeconomic rights and to which degree religious convictions and practices are connected with attitudes towards these human rights Can religion be identified as a force supporting the human rights regime and which additional concepts strengthen or weaken the consent to these rights The richness of empirical data contributes to a better understanding how socioeconomic rights are legitimated in the opinion of more than 10 000 respondents in 14 countries
