Researching Language And Literacy In Social Context:

Researching Language and Literacy in Social Context David Graddol, Janet Maybin, Barry Stierer, 1994 This volume shows how experienced researchers have approached investigations of talk or reading and writing behaviour and what they have discovered about the social and cultural embeddedness of language and literacy practices

Literacy Practices Mike Baynham, 1995 It examines the social context of literacy reviewing important theoretical sources and providing illustrative case studies going on to review current linguistics perspectives on literacy with illustrative texts Mike Baynham also includes a critical review of ideas on reading and writing development from a social practice perspective and concludes with a discussion of issues in researching literacy as social practice Literacy Practices will be of interest to students of applied linguistics language education cultural studies and adult education as well as literary theorists and researchers and anthropologists

Language, Literacy, and Learning in Educational Practice Barry Stierer, Janet Maybin, 1994 Language and literacy are highly contested areas of the curriculum Questions of what should be taught how it should be taught and who should control such decisions are increasingly subjected to public scrutiny debate and challenge in a manner which is often more reflection of competing social and political values than of theory and research evidence In recent years there has been a rapid development of new conceptual frameworks for understanding language literacy and learning from such diverse fields as anthropology cultural studies social psychology and critical linguistics The papers in this collection have been chosen because they will help readers to consider ways in which these new developments in theory and research may be applied to everyday practice
