Constructing Social Psychology William James McGuire, 1999-03-28 This collection of papers by William J McGuire reports research on the phenomenal self revealing how we selectively perceive ourselves and other complex stimuli in terms of distinctive or atypical features often noticing what is missing rather than what is there The content structure and processing of thought systems surrounding the self and other complex stimuli are shown to function by balancing logical consistency realistic coping and hedonic gratification Attitude change and social influence processes are described with particular attention given to the personality correlates of persuasability how beliefs can be immunized against persuasion how persuasive communications affect beliefs and how people can be persuaded by Socratic questioning that does not give them new information but rather directs their attention to information they already have Also reported are findings on language and thought psychology and history and techniques of creative thinking in psychology and other fields

Persuasion Daniel J. O'Keefe, 2015-02-18 Persuasion Theory and Research Third Edition is a comprehensive overview of social scientific theory and research on persuasion Written in a clear and accessible style that assumes no special technical background in research methods the Third Edition has been thoroughly revised to reflect developments in persuasion studies New discussions of subjects such as reactance and the use of narratives as vehicles for persuasion revised treatments of the theories of reasoned action and planned behavior and two new chapters on social judgment theory and stage models provide your students with the most current work on persuasion in a clear straightforward manner In this edition author Daniel J O Keefe has given special attention to the importance of adapting tailoring messages to audiences to maximize persuasiveness Each chapter has a set of review questions to guide students through the chapter s material and quickly master the concepts being introduced Intervening Variables in Resistance to Persuasion Cheryl L. Kret,Bruno R. Bocanegra,2017-05-02 Influential theories have argued that affective processing is fundamentally different from cognitive processing Others have suggested that theoretical boundaries between affective and cognitive processing are artificial and inherently problematic Over recent years different positions on these issues have fueled many empirical studies investigating the mechanisms underlying cognitive and affective processing Where and on what basis should we draw the line between cognition and emotion Are there fundamental distinctions to be made between the way emotion influences cognition and cognition influences emotion How does the reciprocal interaction between emotion and cognition lead to adaptive behavior This Research Topic explores the nature of the reciprocal interaction between emotion and cognition from a functional perspective Public Opinion Rosalee A. Clawson,Zoe M. Oxley,2020-07-21 In Public Opinion Democratic Ideals Democratic Practice Fourth Edition Clawson and Oxley link the enduring normative questions of democratic theory to existing empirical research on public opinion Organized around a series of questions In a democratic society what should be the relationship between citizens and their government Are citizens opinions pliable Are they knowledgeable attentive and informed the text explores the tension between ideals and their practice Each chapter focuses on exemplary studies explaining not only the conclusion of the research but how it was conducted so students gain a richer understanding of the research process and see methods applied in context The Science of Social Influence Anthony R. Pratkanis,2011-02-25 The contributions to this volume capture the thrill of current work on social influence as well as providing a tutorial on the scientific and technical aspects of this research The volume teaches the student to Learn how to conduct lab field and case research on social influence through example by leading researchers Find out about the latest discoveries including the status of research on social influence tactics dissonance theory conformity and resistance to influence Discover how seemingly complex issues such as power rumors group and minority influence and norms can be investigated using the scientific method Apply knowledge to current influence campaigns to find out what works and what does not The Science of Social Influence is the perfect core or complementary text for advanced undergraduate or graduate students in courses such as Attitudes and Attitude Change Communications Research Methods and of course Social Influence Handbook of Innovations in Political Psychology Ethan C. Busby,Christopher F. Karpowicz,Cara J. Wong,2025-03-12 In this interdisciplinary Handbook editors Ethan C Busby Christopher F Karpowicz and Cara J Wong explore not just what political psychology is but what it could be In so doing they and the chapter authors examine and expand political psychology's scope and relevance Bringing together a diverse array of authors to examine both core topics and emerging themes they combine foundational insights with fresh perspectives to consider what innovations exist and are needed in the field of political psychology

Argumentation and Appropriate Resistance to Persuasion Barbara Jean Leclerc, 1997 The Science of Attitudes Joel Cooper, Shane Blackman, Kyle Keller, 2015-09-16 The Science of Attitudes is the first book to integrate classic and modern research in the field of attitudes at a scholarly level Designed primarily for advanced undergraduates and graduate students the presentation of research will also be useful for current scholars in all disciplines who are interested in how attitudes are formed and changed The treatment of attitudes is both thorough and unique taking a historical approach while simultaneously highlighting contemporary views and controversies The book traces attitudes research from the inception of scientific study following World War II to the issues and methods of research that are prominent features of today's research Researchers in the field of attitudes will be particularly interested in classic and modern research on the organization structure strength and function of attitudes Researchers in the field of persuasion will be particularly interested in work on attitude change focusing on propositional and associative learning metacognition and dynamic theories of dissonance balance and reactance The book is designed to present the integration of the properties of the attitude with the dynamic considerations of attitude change The Science of Attitudes is also the first book on attitudes to devote entire chapters to work on implicit measurements resistance to persuasion and social neuroscience

The ^AOxford Handbook of Social Influence Stephen G. Harkins, Kipling D. Williams, Jerry M. Burger, 2017-07-07 The Oxford Handbook of Social Influence restores this important field to its once preeminent position within social psychology Editors Harkins Williams and Burger lead a team of leading scholars as they explore a variety of topics within social influence seamlessly incorporating a range of analyses including intrapersonal interpersonal and intragroup and examine critical theories and the role of social influence in applied settings today

Attitudes and Attitude Change William D. Crano, Radmila Prislin, 2011-07-21 This volume assembles a distinguished group of international scholars whose chapters on classic and emerging issues in research on attitudes provide an excellent introduction for advanced undergraduates and graduate students The book's chapters cover all of the most critical features of attitude measurement attitude development and attitude change Implicit and explicit approaches to measurement and conceptualization are featured throughout making this one of the most up to date treatments of attitude theory and research currently available The comprehensive coverage of the central topics in this important field provides a useful text in advanced courses on persuasion or attitude change
