Grove,Paul Collier,Geoffrey Jukes,Russell Hart,Stephen A. Hart,2018-09-20 Bringing together the work of nine leading historians and superbly illustrated with contemporary photography and colour maps The Second World War gives readers a comprehensive understanding of all aspects of history s greatest conflict The period from 1939 to 1945 saw some of the most devastating and remarkable events in living memory Labouring beneath a daily burden of fear sacrifice deprivation and uncertainty soldiers and civilians of all nationalities were driven to extremes of selfless loyalty dogged determination or bitter cruelty by the demands of a world at war This book tells the stories of the men and women who lived and died during the Second World War from politicians to factory workers and from High Command to the conscripted men on the front lines The experience of war is brought to life through a wealth of contemporary documentation private writings and historical research whilst the political military and historical significance of the war is assessed and examined From Europe s Western and Eastern Fronts to the war at sea and from the Pacific to the Mediterranean and North Africa every fighting front of the Second World War is covered in this truly comprehensive volume The Jedburghs Will Irwin,2009-04-29 The story of the Special Forces in World War II has never fully been told before Information about them began to be declassified only in the 1980s Known as the Jedburghs these Special Forces were selected from members of the British American and Free French armies to be dropped in teams of three deep behind German lines There in preparation for D Day they carried out what we now known as unconventional warfare supporting the French Resistance in guerrilla attacks, supply route disruption and the harassment and obstruction of German reinforcements. Always they operated against extraordinary odds. They had to be prepared to survive pitched battles with German troops and Gestapo manhunts for weeks and months while awaiting the arrival of Allied ground forces. They were in short, heroes. The Jedburghs finally tell their story and offer a new perspective on D Day itself. Will Irwin has selected seven of the Jedburgh teams and told their stories as gripping personal narratives. He has gathered archival documents, diaries and correspondence and interviewed Jed veterans and family members in order to present this portrait of their crucial role, a role recognized by Churchill and Eisenhower in the struggle to liberate Europe in 1944-45. This is narrative history at its most compelling, a vivid drama of the battle for France from deep behind enemy lines.

Hitler: 1936-1945 Nemesis Ian Kershaw, 2001-09-17 The climax and conclusion of one of the best-selling biographies of our time. The New Yorker declared the first volume of Ian Kershaw's two-volume masterpiece as close to definitive as anything we are likely to see, and that promise is fulfilled in this stunning second volume. As Nemesis opens, Adolf Hitler has achieved absolute power within Germany and triumphed in his first challenge to the European powers. Idolized by large segments of the population and firmly supported by the Nazi regime, Hitler is poised to subjugate Europe. Nine years later, his vaunted war machine destroyed Allied forces sweeping across Germany. Hitler will end his life with a pistol shot to his head. More probing, more judicious, more authoritative in its rich detail, more commanding in its mastery of the horrific narrative.

Milton J. Rosenberg, Chicago Tribune. Mission France Kate Vigurs, 2021-01-01 The full story of the thirty-nine female SOE agents who went undercover in France. Formed in 1940, Special Operations Executive was to coordinate Resistance work overseas. The organization's F section sent more than four hundred agents into France, thirty-nine of whom were women. But while some are widely known—Violette Szabo, Odette Sansom, Noor Inayat Khan—others have had their stories largely overlooked. Kate Vigurs interweaves for the first time the stories of all thirty-nine female agents. Tracing their journeys from early recruitment to work undertaken in the field to evasion from or capture by the Gestapo, Vigurs shows just how greatly missions varied. Some agents were more adept at parachuting. Some agents' missions lasted for years, others less than a few hours. Some survived, others were murdered. By placing the women in the context of their work with the SOE and the wider war, this history reveals the true extent of the differences in their abilities and attitudes while underlining how they nonetheless shared a common mission and ultimately deserve recognition.

War and Society in Europe, 1870-1970 Brian Bond, 1998 As Europe descended into an era of war and 19th-century hopes for peace faded, warfare was itself transformed by the growth of nationalism and technological advances. This study assesses the influence of war on European society between 1870 and 1970.
