Lifebuoy Men, Lux Women Timothy Burke, 1996 How do people come to need products they never even knew they wanted How for example did indigenous Zimbabweans of the 1940s begin to believe that they required Lifebuoy soap Offering a glimpse into the intimate workings of modern colonialism and global capitalism Timothy Burke takes up these questions in Lifebuoy Men Lux Women a study of post World War II commodity culture in Zimbabwe With particular attention to cosmetic products and the contrast between colonial and pre colonial ideas of cleanliness Burke examines the role played by commodity culture changing patterns of consumption and the spread of advertising in the making of modern Zimbabwe His work combines history anthropology and political economy to show how the development of commodification in the region relates to the social history of hygiene Within this framework and drawing on a wide variety of historical sources Burke explores dense interactions between commodity culture and embodied aspects of race gender sexuality domesticity health and aesthetics in a colonial society Rather than viewing the production of needs simply as an imposition from above Lifebuoy Men Lux Women shows what heterogeneous and complex processes involving the aims and histories of both colonizers and colonized produced these changes in Zimbabwean society Integrating political economy cultural studies and a wide range of the social sciences Lifebuoy Men Lux Women will find readers among scholars of colonialism African history and ethnography as well those for whom the problem of commodification is a significant theoretical issue Africa since Independence Paul Nugent, 2012-06-13 An indispensable introductory textbook that provides students with a genuinely comparative study of the different trajectories and experiences of independent African states Paul Nugent explores a range of key concerns including the impact of HIV and AIDS the contagion of warfare and efforts at achieving national reconciliation both in the past and today This is an ideal core text for modules on Modern African History African Politics or Africa since Independence or a supplementary text for broader modules on African History which may be offered at the upper levels of an undergraduate History Politics or African Studies degree In addition it is a crucial resource for students who may be studying modern African history for the first time as part of a taught postgraduate degree in African History African Politics or African Studies New to this Edition Revised and updated throughout in light of the latest research Reflects recent developments on issues such as AIDS urbanization the secession of South Sudan questions of citizenship and the importance of transnational spaces This second edition now features photographs A Far-Away War Ian Liebenberg, 2016-01-31 South Africa's armed forces invaded Angola in 1975 setting off a war that had consequences for the whole region that are still felt today A Far Away War contributes to a wider understanding of this war in Angola and Namibia The book does not only look at the war from an e olde South African Defence Force perspective but also gives a voice to participants e on the other sidee emphasising the role of the Cubans and Russians This focus is supplemented by the inclusion of many never before published photographs from Cuban and Russian archives and a comprehensive bibliography Terrific Majesty Carolyn Hamilton, 2009-07 Since his assassination in 1828 King Shaka Zulu founder of the powerful Zulu kingdom and leader of the army that nearly toppled British colonial rule in South Africa has made his empire in popular imaginations throughout Africa and the West Shaka is today the hero of Zulu nationalism the centerpiece of Inkatha ideology a demon of apartheid the namesake of a South African theme park even the subject of a major TV film Terrific Majesty explores the reasons for the potency of Shaka's image examining the ways it has changed over time from colonial legend through Africanist idealization to modern cultural icon This study suggests that tradition cannot be freely invented either by European observers who recorded it or by subsequent African ideologues There are particular historical limits and constraints that operate on the activities of invention and imagination and give the various images of Shaka their power These insights are illustrated with subtlety and authority in a series of highly original analyses Terrific Majesty is an exceptional work whose special contribution lies in the methodological lessons it delivers above all its sophisticated rehabilitation of colonial sources for the precolonial period through the demonstration that colonial texts were critically shaped by indigenous African discourse With its sensitivity to recent critical studies the book will also have a wider resonance in the fields of history anthropology cultural studies and post colonial literature Clothing and Difference Hildi Hendrickson,1996 This volume examines the dynamic relationship between the body clothing and identity in sub Saharan Africa and raises questions that have previously been directed almost exclusively to a Western and urban context Unusual in its treatment of the body surface as a critical frontier in the production and authentication of identity Clothing and Difference shows how the body and its adornment have been used to construct and contest social and individual identities in Nigeria Zimbabwe Tanzania Kenya and other African societies during both colonial and post colonial times Grounded in the insights of anthropology and history and influenced by developments in cultural studies these essays investigate the relations between the personal and the public and between ideas about the self and those about the family gender and national groups They explore the bodily and material creation of the changing identities of women spirits youths ancestors and entrepreneurs through a consideration of topics such as fashion spirit possession commodity exchange hygiene and mourning By taking African societies as its focus Clothing and Difference demonstrates that factors considered integral to Western social development heterogeneity migration urbanization transnational exchange and media representation have existed elsewhere in different configurations and with different outcomes With significance for a wide range of fields including gender studies cultural studies art history performance studies political science semiotics economics folklore and fashion and textile analysis design this work provides alternative views of the structures underpinning Western systems of commodification postmodernism and cultural differentiation Contributors Misty Bastian Timothy Burke Hildi Hendrickson Deborah James Adeline Masquelier Elisha Renne Johanna Schoss Brad Weiss Electoral Territoriality in Southern Africa Stephen Rule,2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 A comprehensive comparison of voting patterns in seven countries of Southern Africa The modern democratic electoral histories of Botswana Lesotho Namibia South Africa Swaziland Zambia and Zimbabwe are placed within the contexts of their pre colonial and colonial polities The extent to which urbanization and the regional distribution of language ethnicity and race impacts on the electoral geography of the sub continent is demonstrated statistically and cartographically The analysis is complemented by anecdotal evidence gathered during personal interviews and discussions with voters politicians government officials and academics Safari Nation Jacob S. T. Dlamini,2020-04-22 Safari Nation opens new lines of inquiry in the study of national parks in Africa and the rest of the world The Kruger National Park is South Africa s most iconic nature reserve renowned for its rich flora and fauna According to author Jacob Dlamini there is another side to the park a social history neglected by scholars and popular writers alike in which blacks meaning

Africans Coloureds and Indians occupy center stage Safari Nation details the ways in which black people devoted energies to conservation and to the park over the course of the twentieth century engagement that transcends the stock black figure of the laborer and the poacher By exploring the complex and dynamic ways in which blacks of varying class racial religious and social backgrounds related to the Kruger National Park and with the help of previously unseen archival photographs Dlamini's narrative also sheds new light on how and why Africa's national parks often derided by scholars as colonial impositions survived the end of white rule on the continent Relying on oral histories photographs and archival research Safari Nation engages both with African historiography and with ongoing debates about the land question democracy and citizenship in South Africa

Works of Plenty, Works of History Reginald Dorian Haarhoff,1989 Popular Politics in the History of South Africa, 1400-1948 Paul S. Landau,2010-09-20 Popular Politics in the History of South Africa 1400-1948 offers an inclusive vision of South Africa's past Drawing largely from original sources Paul Landau presents a history of the politics of the country's people from the time of their early settlements in the elevated heartlands through the colonial era to the dawn of Apartheid A practical tradition of mobilization alliance and amalgamation persisted mutated and occasionally vanished from view it survived against the odds in several forms in tribalisms Christian assemblies and other seemingly hybrid movements and it continues today Landau treats southern Africa broadly concentrating increasingly on the southern Highveld and ultimately focusing on a transnational movement called the Samuelites He shows how people's politics in South Africa were suppressed and transformed but never entirely eliminated

No One Will Become Rich Wolfgang Werner,1998 Popular Resistance and the Roots of Nationalism in Namibia, 1915-1966 Tony Emmett,1999 The book explores the social forces that shaped the development of a movement of national liberation in Namibia It provides the original analyses of the Bondelswarts and Rehoboth rebellions the Garveyite and troop movements the contract labour system and the formation of the modern African parties SWAPO and SWANU

The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust,2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about

Dynamics of Political Violence Dr Chares Demetriou,Dr Lorenzo Bosi,Dr Stefan Malthaner,2014-02-28 Dynamics of Political Violence examines how violence emerges and develops from episodes of contentious politics By considering a wide range of empirical cases such as anarchist movements ethno nationalist and left wing militancy in Europe contemporary Islamist violence and insurgencies in South Africa and Latin America this pathbreaking volume of research identifies the forces that shape radicalization and violent escalation It also contributes to the process and mechanism based models of contentious politics that have been developing over the past decade in both sociology and political science Chapters of original research emphasize how the processes of radicalization and violence are open ended interactive and context dependent They offer detailed empirical accounts as well as comprehensive and systematic analyses of the dynamics leading to violent episodes Specifically the chapters converge around four dynamic processes that are shown to be especially germane to radicalization and violence dynamics of movement state interaction dynamics of intra movement competition dynamics of meaning formation and transformation and dynamics of diffusion
