Resisting The Pendulum Swing Informed Perspectives On Education Controversies:

Resisting the Pendulum Swing Mary Renck Jalongo, 1999 Designed to offer more than slogans and buzzwords to practitioners who are grappling with an array of education controversies this book provides classroom teachers with a spectrum of information about current controversies so that they will be better equipped to blend action with reflection The book deliberately resists extremes and argues for less contentious points of view The book's introduction explores the five overarching goals for this collaborative project 1 to resist faddism and false dualisms 2 to promote a deeper understanding of education controversy 3 to examine the beliefs that underlie the battles 4 to respond more thoughtfully to educational debates and 5 to expose the barriers to informed perspectives The book's chapters which address various controversies are 1 Censorship Evaluating Quality without Imposing Agendas Anne Drolett Creany 2 Inclusion Celebrating Contributions while Meeting New Challenges Kay A Chick and Deborah M Clawson 3 Classroom Management Managing the Classroom while Respecting the Child Beatrice S Fennimore and Molly C Ihli 4 Assessment Allowing Traditional and Alternative Approaches To Co Exist Linda Doult Culbertson and Gerardo A Contreras 5 Multicultural Education Celebrating Diversity while Building Community Jyotsna Pattnaik 6 Families Offering Support and Joining in Partnership Kathryn Delaney 7 Pedagogy Finding a Place for Inquiry Methods and Direct Instruction Kay A Chick 8 Reading Instruction Reconciling Phonics and Whole Language What Every Reading Teacher Should Know Xiaoping Li 9 Bilingual Education Preserving a Child's First Language while Promoting Facility with a Second Language Elise Jepson Green 10 Gifted and Talented Education Individual Differences or One Size Fits All Jennifer V Rotigel and 11 Program Evaluation Monitoring Quality without Sacrificing Substance Mary Renck Jalongo and Moses M Mutuku Each chapter contains references EV

A Turning Point in Teacher Education James D. Kirylo, Jerry Aldridge, 2019-01-25 Since teacher education looked to become a formal field of study in the 1800s it has historically contended with competing forces in the effort to solidify its professional identity Currently that contention is juxtaposed with those external forces that look to promote fast track teacher training with its ultimate goal to dismantle traditional teacher education programs and those internal forces whereby teacher education within itself continues to struggle with its own identity power and influence To that end this book A Turning Point in Teacher Education A Time for Resistance Reflection and Change suggests we have reached a climax point a turning point in teacher education meaning we must work to resist and denounce those external forces that are laboring to undermine the professionalization of what it means to be a teacher Simultaneously we must also deeply reflect and be clear about those internal forces at work when it comes to solidifying the place power and necessity of traditional teacher education programs ultimately announcing the furthering of what should be

Resources in Education, 1998 Early Childhood Professionals Marjory Anne Ebbeck, Marjory Ebbeck, Manjula Waniganayake, 2003 This text aims to clarify what contemporary early childhood practitioners and leaders need to know in order to manage early childhood services professionally The text explores leadership concepts in an integrated manner and presents case studies and interviews with early childhood leaders

Meaningful Assessments of the Young Child Margaret B. Puckett, Janet K. Black, 2008 This book is not for the tired and timid but for those committed professionals who wish to think through a plan that is coherent cohesive learner and family focused and work through the development of a defensible reliable and valid authentic assessment system KEY TOPICS Discusses emerging research in the area of brain development research and its implication for assessment practices Provides information on the standards movement and how these standards can have either a negative or positive impact on developmental goals Adds a developmental continuum as an appendix to help teachers focus on emerging development rather than on perceived deficits in children Provides an added chapter on portfolio systems Places more emphasis on the discussions of diversity and inclusion MARKET For educators and school administrators Educational Reform Jordan T. Ville, 2001 This book brings together the literature in a field which may define the 21st century Can economic and technological progress continue with educational systems which seem to answer to no one but themselves and which output graduates who can barely read and write and who have only the faintest clue how to use a map This bibliography provides access via Title Author and Subject Indexes Contents Educational Accountability Educational Change Educational Equalisation Educational Leadership Educational Planning Educational Indicators Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock, Terrie M. Rooney, 1998-10 Your students and users will find biographical information on approximately 300 modern writers in this volume of Contemporary Authors R Authors in this volume include Diane Arbus Nina Kiriki Hoffman Michael Moore Early Childhood Language Arts Mary Renck Jalongo, 2000 Early Childhood Language Arts Second Edition is a comprehensive look at early childhood literacy education Unlike most early literacy books it includes listening speaking reading and writing with a strong children's literature emphasis throughout This text provides instructors with a synthesis of the information on language arts gleaned from research on emergent literacy early childhood education and special education It underscores what is being emphasized in early childhood teacher accreditation programs namely responding to the increasingly diverse needs of young language learners in inclusive settings working with parents and families and collaborating with professionals in other fields Each chapter provides a discussion of the key concepts in the chapter followed by case material that demonstrates how teachers families and professionals in other fields can work together to promote the literacy growth and development of a young child The content and examples throughout every chapter enable students to see how children go through the process of acquiring literacy and how literacy learning occurs with diverse groups of learners The body of every chapter concludes with a section on teacher concerns and basic strategies developmentally appropriate activities teacher self assessment and information on standards as they relate to the content of each chapter Boletín Internacional de Bibliografía Sobre Educación, 2001 Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada Margie Mayfield, 2000-11 For Introduction to Early Childhood Education or Foundations of Early Childhood courses taught at the university level Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada Context Dimensions and Issues is an exciting new text that offers a comprehensive Canadian overview of early childhood education ECE and care past and present The text has three main goals to examine ECE in the context of today s cultures communities and families to recognize the rich variety and scope of ECE and care in Canada and to invite readers to reflect on issues in ECE for today and in the future Topics covered in the book include multiculturalism and special needs children and detailed descriptions of Canadian programs are also included The result is an informative reader friendly text that is indispensable for both students and teachers

Information Technology and Constructivism in Higher Education: Progressive Learning Frameworks Payne, Carla R.,2009-05-31 This volume is grounded in the thesis that information technology may offer the only viable avenue to the implementation of constructivist and progressive educational principles in higher education and that the numerous efforts now under way to realize these principles deserve examination and evaluation Provided by publisher
