Resisting The Anomie:

Resisting the Anomie Kwame Senu Neville Dawes, 1995 Resisting the Anomie is the second book of poetry by Kwame Dawes whose collection Progeny of Air won Britain's prestigious Forward Trust Poetry Prize for Best First Book in the fall of 1994. In Resisting the Anomie Dawes takes as his subject the anxiety of being far from home, the unease of not belonging, the sense of disconnection from culture and custom. Poems of Jamaica, of Canada, of Haiti, tightly controlled poems, wild and free poems, reggae poems, poems of rejoicing of faith, love, anger and humour. Resisting the Anomie is a large collection of substantial works by a new and significant writer.

Resisting Indonesia's Culture of Impunity Jess Melvin, Sri Lestari Wahyuningroem, Annie Pohlman, 2023-08-31 Resisting Indonesia's Culture of Impunity examines the role of Indonesia's first truth and reconciliation commission, the Aceh Truth and Reconciliation Commission or KKR Aceh, in investigating and redressing the extensive human rights violations committed during three decades of brutal separatist conflict, 1976-2005, in the province of Aceh. The KKR Aceh was founded in late 2016 as a product of the 2005 peace deal between the Indonesian government and the Free Aceh Movement (GAM). It has since faced many challenges, not least from Indonesia's security forces and former GAM leaders who have joined together in their determination to maintain impunity for their respective roles in the conflict. Indeed, the commission would not have been established without the tireless work of civil society actors, including non-government organisations and other humanitarian groups. In Resisting Indonesia's Culture of Impunity, the editors set out to amplify the role of these civil society actors in the KKR Aceh and in transitional justice in Indonesia. Each chapter has been written by a team of authors composed predominantly of commissioners and staff from the KKR Aceh itself, members of key civil society organisations and academics. Further, the editors aim to scrutinise the KKR Aceh from the inside and analyse the establishment and operation of what is perhaps the only genuine state-sponsored attempt to implement transitional justice in Indonesia today.

Philosophy and Resistance in the Crisis Costas Douzinas, 2013-07-11 This book is about the global crisis and the right to resistance, about neoliberal biopolitics and direct democracy, about the responsibility of intellectuals and the poetry of the multitude. Using Greece as an example, Douzinas argues that the persistent sequence of protests, uprisings and revolutions has radically changed the political landscape. This new politics is the latest example of the drive to resist, a persevering characteristic of the human spirit. The EU and the IMF used Greece as a guinea pig to test the conditions of social reconstruction in times of crisis. But the manifold resistances turned the object of experimentation into a political subject and overturned the plans of elites. The idea and limits of democracy are redefined in the place of their birth.
