Media Convergence Klaus Bruhn Jensen, 2010-02-05 The development of digital media presents a unique opportunity to reconsider what communication is and what individuals groups and societies might hope to accomplish through new as well as old media At a time when digital media still provoke both utopian and dystopian views of their likely consequences Klaus Bruhn Jensen places these new media in a comparative perspective together with old mass media and face to face communication restating the two classic questions of media studies what do media do to people and what do people do with media Media Convergence makes a distinction between three general types of media the human body enabling communication in the flesh the technically reproduced means of mass communication and the digital technologies facilitating interaction one to one one to many as well as many to many Features include case studies including mobile phones in everyday life the Muhammad cartoons controversy and climate change as a global challenge for human communication and political action diagrams figures and tables summarizing key concepts beyond standard models of communication systematic cross referencing Major terms are highlighted and cross referenced throughout with key concepts defined in margin notes

Transmedia Storytelling and the New Era of Media Convergence in Higher Education

Stavroula Kalogeras,2014-06-25 Stories whether they are fact or fiction popular or not are a proven method of pedagogy In the age of media convergence and with the advancement of technology stories have morphed into new forms however their core purpose remains the same which is to pass on knowledge and information The internet with its inherent interactivity and story with its inherent capacity to engage can lead to innovative and transformative learning experiences in media rich environments This book focuses on web based Transmedia Storytelling Edutainment TmSE as an andragogical practice in higher education Story is at the forefront of this investigation because narrative is the basis for developing entertainment media franchise that can be incorporated into pedagogical practice The propulsion of this analysis consists of practice based research through narrative inquiry and an e module case study presented on multimedia storytelling in the classroom A Transmedia Storytelling Framework is provided for creating screenplays for cross media projects and for analyzing their appropriateness in education Additionally a hypertext screenplay which allowed students to dig deeper into the story word and to build more knowledge is evaluated for its use in higher education Since screenplays are by nature writing for the screen it is believed that the more visual the input the more likely it is to be memorized and recalled A link to The Goddess Within screenplay is available for download on the right hand side of this page

Television and Postfeminist Housekeeping Elizabeth

Nathanson,2013-04-02 In this book Nathanson examines how contemporary American television and associated digital media depict women's everyday lives as homemakers, career women and mothers. Her focus on American popular culture from the 1990s through the present reveals two extremes: narratives about women who cannot keep house and narratives about women who only keep house. Nathanson looks specifically at the issue of time in this context and argues that the media constructs panics about domestic time scarcity while at the same time offering solutions for those very panics. Analyzing TV programs such as How Clean is Your House, Up All Night and Supernanny, she finds that media's portrayals of women's time is crucial to understanding definitions of femininity, women's labor and leisure in the postfeminist context. Tribal Studies

- Emerging Frontiers of Knowledge Tamo Mibang, 2007. Annada Charan Bhagabati b 1939 Indian anthropologist contributed articles. A Justice-Based Approach for New Media Policy Amit M. Schejter, Noam Tirosh, 2016-12-04. In this book, distributional justice theories developed by John Rawls and Amartya Sen are applied to the governance of today's media, proposing a fresh and innovative assessment of the potential role for media in society. Three case studies describe the utilization of new media by marginalized communities in Israel: Ethiopian immigrants, the Bedouin and Palestinians, and set the stage for media policy scholars, teachers and students to discuss an analytic framework for media policy that is fresh, different, innovative and original. Departing from the utilitarian principles that dominate Western liberal regimes and that have led to the proliferation of media systems in which control is concentrated in the hands of the few, this work proposes an alternative that focuses on redistributing power and voice. Understanding Media, Today Matteo Cistellardi, Emanuela Patti, 2011-12-01. Understanding Media Today. McLuhan in the Era of Convergence Culture. Resources in Education, 1995.

Social Media for Educators Tanya Joosten, 2012-04-24. Praise for Social Media for Educators: At last a book that provides a straightforward discussion of the pedagogical reasons to use social media and how to effectively use the tools to enhance learning experiences. A practical must-have. Rita Marie Conrad, instructional strategist and technologist, Duke University School of Nursing, coauthor Engaging the Online Learner and The Online Teaching Survival Guide. This insightful and in-depth exploration effectively makes a case for embracing the best characteristics of social media to foster deeper learning experiences, promote collaboration and provide timely feedback. This book is a can't miss for educators. Amy M. Collier, associate director for technology and teaching, Center for Teaching and Learning, Stanford University. Thought about using social media in your online courses but don't know where to begin? Joosten's comprehensive hands-on book describes step by step how social media can add richness to your course content and have a positive impact on student outcomes. Rosemary Lehman and Simone Conceição eInterface coauthors Creating a Sense of Presence in Online Teaching and Managing Online Instructor Workload. Many faculty are hesitant to incorporate social media into their teaching for fear that it will be a distraction or too time-consuming. Tanya Joosten has done a remarkable job outlining the benefits and considerations of doing so. Faculty who read this book will be able to make informed, educated decisions about the best approach to take. John Dolan, director, digital media and pedagogy, College of the Liberal Arts, Penn State University. Social Media for Educators This is a down to earth resource filled with strategies for designing learning activities that work toward specific outcomes It illustrates the ways in which social media will improve learning and contains case studies that clearly demonstrate social media s ability to Increase communication and interactivity in a course Facilitate engaging learning activities Enhance students satisfaction learning and performance Cartelisation, Convergence or Increasing Similarities? Henrik Enroth,Magnus Hagevi,2018-03-02 It is often suggested that political parties are becoming increasingly alike and that party politics has turned into an elite affair where political professionals collude to further their self interest rather than work to represent the interests of their constituents In recent decades this diagnosis has been famously associated with Richard Katz and Peter Mair s cartel party theory Yet so far this controversial thesis has not been subjected to systematic empirical scrutiny nor has its conceptual and normative underpinnings been properly considered In this volume a group of political scientists with different specialisations take on this task focusing empirically on the Swedish party system which the originators of the cartel party theory have suggested is especially conducive to the formation of party cartels Collecting new and unique qualitative and quantitative data the volume casts serious doubt on the validity of the cartel party theory as an explanation for party system change News Literacy Michelle Luhtala,Jacquelyn Whiting,2018-05-09 At a time when misinformation in the media is abundant this book explains the difficulty in nurturing students to become critical researchers and offers practical lessons that empower students to excavate information that will help them learn This guide to teaching news literacy explores a wealth of resources and classroom tested lessons that educators in grades 7 12 can use in their own libraries and classrooms To introduce the concept of news literacy the authors explain the steps of the inquiry and research process in detail and examine the Stanford History Education Group SHEG 2016 report Evaluating Information The Cornerstone of Civic Online Reasoning and related research studies Lesson plans corresponding to each stage of the process are coordinated to relevant standards from the CCSS and ISTE and are accompanied by rubrics for providing students feedback on their progress as well as samples of student work as it evolved through the stages Furthermore the authors anecdotal insights from their experiences in collaboratively implementing the lessons with colleagues are an invaluable addition for any librarian seeking to work with teachers to help students become critical researchers
