Responding To Diversity In The Metropolis Building An Inclusive Research Agenda:

Responding to Diversity in the Metropolis : Building an Inclusive Research Agenda : Proceedings of the First Metropolis National Conference on Immigration Abu-Laban, Baha, Tracey Mary Derwing, 1997 Social Differentiation Danielle Juteau Lee, Danielle Juteau, 2003-01-01 Social Differentiation examines the economic political and normatively defined relations that underlie the construction of social categories Social differentiation embedded in inequalities of power status wealth and prestige affects life chances of individuals as well as the allocation of resources and opportunities Starting with a theoretical framework that challenges many traditional analyses the contributors focus on four specific strands of social differentiation gender age race ethnicity and locality They explore the historically specific social practices policies and ideologies that produce distinct forms of inequality in turn revealing and explaining such issues as the formation and maintenance of a gendered order the privileging of prime age workers the penalties incurred by visible minorities in the labour market the highly disadvantaged position of Aboriginals and the economic decline of agriculture resource and fishing dependent regions By paying special attention to political processes norms and representations and by indicating how social policies shape economic functioning and relate to normative definitions this book will interest policy oriented researchers and decision makers

Immigrants in Prairie Cities Royden Loewen, Gerald Friesen, 2009-11-30 Over the course of the twentieth century sequential waves of immigrants from Europe Asia Latin America and Africa settled in the cities of the Canadian Prairies In Immigrants in Prairie Cities Royden Loewen and Gerald Friesen analyze the processes of cultural interaction and adaptation that unfolded in these urban centres and describe how this model of diversity has changed over time The authors argue that intimate Prairie cities fostered a form of social diversity characterized by vibrant ethnic networks continuously evolving ethnic identities and boundary zones that facilitated intercultural contact and hybridity Impressive in scope Immigrants in Prairie Cities spans the entire twentieth century and encompasses personal testimonies government perspectives and even fictional narratives This engaging work will appeal to both historians of the Canadian Prairies and those with a general interest in migration cross cultural exchange and urban history Canadian Social Policy Anne Westhues, 2006-09-20 The objective of this new edition is the same as that of previous editions to help students understand social policy from a Canadian perspective and to stir them to discussion and debate Part One provides a general overview of social policy and Part Two discusses the policy making processes from the international factors that influence them to the ways in which a social worker can become part of this process Part Three focuses on current social policy issues and Part Four offers a look to the future Each chapter of this best selling book has been thoroughly updated for this new edition with regard to current policy debated issues and resources cited Three new chapters have been added including an overview of adult mental health policy and a critical look at risk assessment in child welfare There is also a discussion of current challenges to the Charter of Rights and Canadians increasing use of the justice system to shape social policy As a result the reader gains an informed perspective of policy development and evaluation Although designed primarily for use by social workers the book will benefit anyone who is involved in the policy making process     Selling Diversity Yasmeen Abu-Laban,Christina Gabriel,2002-09-01 Since the 1990s Canadian policy prescriptions for immigration multiculturalism and employment equity have equated globalization with global markets This interpretation has transformed men and women of various ethnic backgrounds into trade enhancing commodities who must justify their skills and talents in the language of business This particular neo liberal reading of globalization and public policy has resulted in a trend the authors call selling diversity Using gender race ethnicity and class lenses to frame their analysis the authors review Canadian immigration multiculturalism and employment equity policies including their different historical origins to illustrate how a preference for selling diversity has emerged in the last decade In the process they suggest that a commitment to enhance justice in a diverse society and world has been muted Yet neo liberalism is not the only or inevitable option in this era of globalization and Canadians are engaging in transnational struggles for rights and equality and thereby increasing the interconnectedness between peoples across the globe Consequently the emphasis on selling diversity might be challenged     Canadian Social Policy, Fifth Edition Anne Westhues,Brian Wharf,2012-05-25 Social policy shapes the daily lives of every Canadian citizen and should reflect the beliefs of a majority of Canadians on just approaches to the promotion of health safety and well being Too often those on the front lines social workers nurses and teachers observe that policies do not work well for the most vulnerable groups in society In the first part of this new edition of Canadian Social Policy Westhues and Wharf argue that service deliverers have discretion in how policies are implemented and the exercise of this discretion is how citizens experience policy whether or not it is fair and reasonable They show the reader how social policy is made and they encourage active citizenship to produce policies that are more socially just New material includes an examination of the reproduction of systemic racism through the implementation of human rights policy and a comparative analysis of the policy making process in Quebec and English Canada The second part of the book discusses policy issues currently under debate in Canada Included are new chapters that explore parental leave policies and housing as a determinant of health All chapters contain newly updated statistical data and research and policy analysis A reworked section on the process of policy making and the addition of questions for critical reflection enhance the suitability of the book as a core resource in social policy courses The final chapter explores how front line workers in the human services can advocate for change in organizational policies that will benefit the people supported     Not Born a Refugee Woman Maroussia Hajdukowski-Ahmed,Nazilla Khanlou,Helene Moussa,2008-06-01 Not Born a Refugee Woman is an in depth inquiry into the identity construction of refugee women It challenges and rethinks current identity concepts policies and practices in the context of a globalizing environment and in the increasingly racialized post September 11th context from the perspective of refugee women This collection brings together scholar_practitioners from across a wide range of disciplines The authors emphasize refugee women s agency resilience and creativity in the continuum of domestic civil and transnational violence and conflicts whether in flight or in resettlement during their uprooted journey and beyond Through the analysis of local examples and international case studies the authors critically examine gendered and interrelated factors such as location humanitarian aid race cultural norms and current psycho social research that affect the identity and well being of refugee women This volume is destined to a wide audience of scholars students policy makers advocates and service providers interested in new developments and critical practices in domains related to gender and forced migrations Atlantis, 2005

La différenciation sociale Danielle Juteau, 2003 Women's Voices in Health Promotion Margaret A. Denton, 1999 Women are our main health care providers both in the health care systems and in their families They are also the most frequent users of the health care system However most health research is geared to the male as the standard patient There has been a need for women to become more vocal about health care and to be better informed Consumers of health care are now required to be advocates for themselves and their families Women's Voices in Health Promotion is a path breaking book It empowers the reader by providing her with a comprehensive collection of feminist perspectives on women's health promotion Readers will find in this volume a clear exposition of the state of feminist theory of women's health promotion a guide to current knowledge a participatory action research framework and examples of its local implementation for extending our understanding and capabilities

Diversité et identités au Québec et dans les régions d'Europe Jacques Palard, Alain Gagnon, Bernard Gagnon, 2006 Comment analyser les relations entre identité collective et diversité culturelle dans les provinces et régions où se concentrent des identités ou des groupes nationaux minoritaires Cet ouvrage propose une lecture plurielle des expériences québécoises canadiennes et européennes autant de contextes où s'entrecroisent des revendications d'ordre culturel politique religieux linguistique La rencontre des points de vue permet ainsi d'appréhender avec force les conditions dans lesquelles les exigences nationales se conjuguent avec des allégeances et des identités multiples On comprend mieux alors comment dans ces territoires s'invente et s'expérimente avec des effets politiques et institutionnels de première importance l'agencement entre nationalisme et pluralisme

Les métropoles au défi de la diversité culturelle Bernard Jouve, Alain Gagnon, 2006 Les métropoles sont les territoires de transformation du contrat social qui lie la sphère du politique et la société civile dans les États modernes Cette transformation se joue notamment sur le terrain de la diversité et du pluralisme Plus que jamais il importe de se pencher sur la gestion de la diversité au niveau des métropoles La segmentation des sociétés métropolitaines n'est certes pas une dynamique actuelle Elle a une épaisseur historique indéniable Par contre l'une des principales nouveautés réside dans l'émergence de nouvelles revendications qui accompagnent cette fragmentation De plus en plus des aspirations de type identitaire communautariste apparaissent côté de clivages plus classiques qui recourent à la division du travail au sein des rapports de production ou qui tentent de se débarrasser de ces derniers pour structurer l'agenda politique partir de nouvelles problématiques mouvements sociaux urbains C'est ce processus qui est au cœur de cet ouvrage

Quelle est l'influence des configurations institutionnelles locales dans le traitement de cette diversité du pluralisme politique ? Les institutions locales et métropolitaines permettent-elles un traitement alternatif de la diversité par rapport à celui opéré par les institutions nationales ? Quel est le poids du cadre politique national ? À l'inverse, existe-t-il des effets locaux ou des cultures politiques territoriales qui affectent le traitement de la diversité culturelle ? Il y a là un immense ensemble de problèmes nouveaux ou renouvelés. L'intérêt du livre dirigé par Bernard Jouve et Alain G. Gagnon est de les donner à voir sous des angles diversifiés à partir d'entrées multiples et sans hésiter à aborder l'analyse précise et concrète de situations particulières et à circuler entre de nombreuses expériences ce qui permet de comparer certaines villes ou métropoles mais aussi finalement certains pays d'Europe et d'Amérique du Nord.

Criminal code by laws women service providers preventive reactionary      Responding to Diversity in the Metropolis Baha & Derwing Abu-Laban, 1997      House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada. Parliament. House of Commons, 2005      Phenomenology of Community Activism Nora Amath, 2015-12-01

The Phenomenology of Community Activism explores how MCSOs have responded to the challenges of the Australian socio-political context, the perceived impact of these experiences and how Islam is manifested within the contexts of these experiences. In contrast to much publicised jihadist and radical groups, MCSOs are far more representative of Muslim communities and integral to the long-term position of Islam in Australia. This book offers researchers, policy makers and those engaged in community development a rich understanding of Muslim community building, engagement and agency. This book reveals what will be surprising to some that there are many and varied MCSOs in Australia that in many ways they are similar to other civil society organisations, serve similar purposes and encounter similar issues. This is a very important datum to stand against the prejudices about Muslims and their organisations.

Professor Emeritus Gary Bouma, Emeritus Professor of Sociology at Monash University, UNESCO Chair in Intercultural and Interreligious Relations, Asia Pacific Islamic Studies Series Volume 19      Knowledge-driven actions: Transforming higher education for global sustainability Binagwaho, Agnes, Bonciani Nader, Helena, Brown Burkins, Melody, Davies, Anna, Hessen, Dag Olav, Mbow, Cheikh, McCowan, Tristan, Parr, Adrian, Ramakrishna, Seeram, Salmi, Jamil, Schmelkes, Sylvia, Serrano, Sol, Stirling, Andy, Tong, Shijun, UNESCO, UNESCO Global Independent Expert Group on the Universities and the 2030 Agenda, 2022-02-09

With 2030 less than a decade away, it is paramount to think critically and act urgently if we are to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals. Higher education institutions are uniquely positioned to contribute to the social, economic and environmental transformations that are required to tackle the world's most pressing issues. This report thoroughly discusses the role of higher education institutions in contributing to the 2030 Agenda through a focus on three interrelated themes: 1. the need to move towards inter- and transdisciplinary modes of producing and circulating knowledge; 2. the imperative of becoming open institutions fostering epistemic dialogue and integrating diverse ways of knowing and 3 the demand for a stronger presence in society through proactive engagement and partnering with other societal actors      Resources in Education ,1997      New Metropolitan Perspectives Carmelina

Bevilacqua,Francesco Calabrò,Lucia Della Spina,2020-08-31 This book presents the outcomes of the symposium NEW METROPOLITAN PERSPECTIVES held at Mediterranea University Reggio Calabria Italy on May 26 28 2020 Addressing the challenge of Knowledge Dynamics and Innovation driven Policies Towards Urban and Regional Transition the book presents a multi disciplinary debate on the new frontiers of strategic and spatial planning economic programs and decision support tools in connection with urban rural area networks and metropolitan centers The respective papers focus on six major tracks Innovation dynamics smart cities and ICT Urban regeneration community led practices and PPP Local development inland and urban areas in territorial cohesion strategies Mobility accessibility and infrastructures Heritage landscape and identity and Risk management environment and energy The book also includes a Special Section on Rhegion United Nations 2020 2030 Given its scope the book will benefit all researchers practitioners and policymakers interested in issues concerning metropolitan and marginal areas      City of Forests, City of Farms Lindsay K. Campbell,2017-10-15 City of Forests City of Farms is a history of recent urban forestry and agriculture policy and programs in New York City Centered on the 2007 initiative PlaNYC this account tracks the development of policies that increased sustainability efforts in the city and dedicated more than 400 million dollars to trees via the MillionTreesNYC campaign Lindsay K Campbell uses PlaNYC to consider how and why nature is constructed in New York City Campbell regards sustainability planning as a process that unfolds through the strategic interplay of actors the deployment of different narrative frames and the mobilizing and manipulation of the physical environment which affects nonhuman animals and plants as well as the city s residents Campbell zeroes in on a core omission in PlaNYC s original conception and funding Despite NYC having a long tradition of community gardening particularly since the fiscal crisis of the 1970s the plan contained no mention of community gardens or urban farms Campbell charts the change of course that resulted from burgeoning public interest in urban agriculture and local food systems She shows how civic groups and elected officials crafted a series of visions and plans for local food systems that informed the 2011 update to PlaNYC City of Forests City of Farms is a valuable tool that allows us to understand and disentangle the political decisions popular narratives and physical practices that shape city greening in New York City and elsewhere
