Rest Is Silence:

The Rest Is Silence Robert N. Watson, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994 The Rest is Silence Scott Fotheringham, 2012 In the backwoods of Nova Scotia a man slowly withdraws himself from the world He fills his days with planting a garden Building a cabin Carving out friendships Falling in love His nights are for storytelling A saga of youthful passions of idealism and hope of science and rebellion Outside the forests news reports trickle in A worldwide catastrophe is brewing People are frightened Governments are in turmoil The future is uncertain And as the story unfolds we learn the consequences of believing we were ever ready to open Pandora's Box Jacket Beyond the Epic Gene D Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908-1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic: The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean's body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry The Quest for Voice Lydia Goehr, 2002 Concentrating on the music politics and philosophy of Richard Wagner Lydia Goehr addresses some fundamental questions of German Romanticism Is all music musical Is music made less musical by the presence of words What is musical autonomy How do composers avoid censorship How are composers affected by exile Can music articulate a politics for the future What is the relation between music and philosophy

Modernism and the Language of Philosophy Anat Matar,2006-04-18 Modernism can be characterised by the acute attention it gives to language to its potential and its limitations Philosophers artists and literary critics working in the first third of the twentieth century emphasized language's creative potential but also stressed its inability to express meaning completely and accurately In particular modernists shared the belief that the kind of truth sub specie aeterni that was sought by philosophers was either meaningless or was more appropriately expressed by the arts especially by literature and poetry Modernism and the Language of Philosophy addresses the challenge this belief presented to philosophy and argues that the modernist assumption rests upon a host of unacknowledged repressed or denied dogmas or tacit images Drawing in particular upon the work of Michale Dummett and Jacques Derrida this book explores a new solution to this crisis in philosophical language and it is these two philosophers who drive the narrative of the book and offer perspectives through which both past and present day philosophers are examined Objects and Intertexts in Toni Morrison's "Beloved" Maureen E. Ruprecht Fadem,2020-11-17 Objects and Intertexts in Toni Morrison's Beloved The Case for Reparations is an inspired contribution to the scholarship on one of the most influential American novels and novelists The author positions this contemporary classic as a meditation on historical justice and re comprehends it as both a formal tragedy a generic translation of fiction and tragedy or a novel tragedy Kliger and a novel of objects Its many things literary conceptual linguistic are viewed as vessels carrying the hi story and the political concerns From this a third conclusion is drawn Fadem argues for a view of Beloved as a case for reparations That status is founded on two outstanding object lessons the character of Beloved as embodiment of the subject object relations defining the slave state and the grammatical object weather in the sentence The rest is on the novel s final page This intertextual reference places Beloved in a comparative link with Hamlet and Oresteia Fadem s research is meticulous in engaging the full spectrum of tragedy theory much critical theory and a full swathe of scholarship on the novel Few critics take up the matter of reparations still fewer the politics of genre craft and form This scholar posits Morrison s tragedy as constituting a searing critique of modernity as composed through meaningful intertextualities and as crafted by profound thingly objects Brown Altogether Fadem has divined a fascinating singular treatment of Beloved exploring the connections between form and craft together with critical historical and political implications The book argues finally that this novel s first concern is justice and its chief aim to serve as a clarion call for material and not merely symbolic reparations This book is freely available to read at <https://taylorandfrancis.com/socialjustice/c/language/literature/arts/>

Distributed Language Stephen J. Cowley, 2011 The volume presents language as fully integrated with human existence On this view language is not essentially symbolic not represented inside minds or brains and most certainly not determined by micro social rules and norms Rather language is part of our ecology It emerges when bodies co ordinate vocal and visible gesture to integrate events with different histories Enacting feeling expression and wordings language permeates the collective individual and affective life of living beings It is a profoundly distributed multi centric activity that binds people together as they go about their lives Distributed Language pursues this perspective both theoretically and in relation to empirical work Empirically it reports studies on the anticipatory dynamics of reading its socio cognitive consequences Shakespearean theatre what images evoke in brain and word and solving insight problems Theoretically the volume challenges linguistic autonomy from overlapping theoretical positions First it is argued that language exploits a species specific form of semiotic cognition Second it is suggested that the central function of language lies in realizing values that derive from our ecosystemic existence Third this is ascribed to how cultural and biological symbols co regulate the dynamics that shape human activity Fourth it is argued that language far from being organism centred gives us an extended ecology in which our co ordination is saturated by values and norms that are derived from our sociocultural environment The contributions to this volume expand on those originally published in Pragmatics Cognition 17 3 2009
