Restless Man A Memoir:

Restless Man Kenneth Clare, 2003-09 Extensive travel was a key feature of Kenneth Clare's career. After early years living in a small Midwestern town, he relocated to the west coast, later moved to the mountain states and still later settled on the east coast. For a considerable number of years, his career as an economist was marked by extensive domestic travel. In mid-career, he began work as an international development economist and over a period of many years traveled to nearly a hundred countries, living in certain countries several months and visiting numerous other countries shorter periods of time. These travels involved fascinating experiences, many of which are related in this memoir. The Man behind the Legend: Memoirs, Autobiographical Novels & Essays of Jack London Jack London, 2017-10-06 This collection is trying to uncover who was this incredible charismatic author, what hides behind the adventurous life, anecdotes he wrote about, what were his convictions, dreams, and what were his darkest hours. Content: The Road is London's account of London's experiences as a hobo in the 1890s during the worst economic depression the United States had experienced up to that time. The Cruise of the Snark chronicles London's sailing adventure in 1907 across the south Pacific in his ketch the Snark. Accompanying London on this voyage was his wife Charmian London and a small crew. John Barleycorn is an autobiographical account of Jack London dealing with his enjoyment of drinking and struggles with alcoholism. The People of the Abyss describes London's experiences about life in the East End of London in 1902. He wrote this first-hand account after living in the East End for several months, sometimes staying in workhouses or sleeping on the streets. Martin Eden is a novel about a young proletarian autodidact, former sailor, struggling to become a writer. Eden is a semi-autobiographical character based on London himself. The Mutiny of the Elsinore: After death of the captain, the crew of a ship split between the two senior surviving mates. The novel is based on London's voyage around Cape Horn on the Dirigo. Short Stories: Tales of the Fish Patrol. As a 16-year-old man, Jack London became a member of the California Fish Patrol. These are the stories drawn from his experiences in catching fish poachers. The Human Drift is a collection of short sketches, stories, and essays mostly concerning sailing and London's love for sea. Essays: Through the Rapids, on the Way to the Klondike, From Dawson to the Sea, Our Adventures in Tampico. Jack London was an American novelist, journalist, railroad hobo, gold prospector, sailor, poet, socialist, an oyster pirate, war correspondent, and a rancher. JACK LONDON - The Adventurer, The Author, The Man: Collected Memoirs, Autobiographical Novels & Essays (Illustrated) Jack London, 2017-04-03 Jack London, an American novelist, journalist, railroad hobo, gold prospector, sailor, poet, socialist, an oyster pirate, war correspondent, alcoholic, a rancher. Passages From My Life; Together With Memoirs Of The Campaign of 1813 And 1814 General Freiherr (Baron) Friedrich Karl Ferdinand von Müffling, 2011-07-12 Baron von Müffling was an eye witness to some of the most decisive events of the Napoleonic Wars born into a noble family he went into the Prussian service and saw action in the early campaigns of the Revolutionary wars in Holland and Belgium during which he said he learned very little He was party to the birth of the famed Prussian General staff and comments of the different personalities such as Scharnhorst Gneisenau and to a lesser extent Massenbach On a less happy note he was also a member of the Prussian army that was destroyed by Napoleon in 1806 and notes with some regret of the bumbling planning ancient commanders and ineffective tactics used After spending some time kicking his heels away from Prussia where he might be a liability due to his anti French views the collapse of the Grande Armée in 1812 offers a chance for further service and liberation of his country Attached to the army of Silesia and Blücher for the campaigns of 1813 and 1814 during which he and his countrymen fight their way across Europe into the heart of France He comments on the battles of Lützen Bautzen and the battle of Nations at Leipzig the strained relationships within the allied headquarters and the deeds of hard fighting and long marches that the Russian and Prussian soldiers make under Blücher His comments on the 1814 campaign in France are particularly interesting as he was at the heart of the action and at the side of the commanders of the campaign from the Allied side He is quick to take issue with erroneous statements made at the time and by later commentators as to the decisions made and the actions taken Muffling was allowed little respite after the peace of 1814 plunging back into the fray in 1815 as the Prussian liaison officer at the Duke of Wellington's headquarters Vivid details and important facts are recounted with extreme modesty and unlike staff officers of later years his place on the battlefield at the Duke's side was one of grave danger as the Anglo Dutch army struggled to hold on to the ridge at Waterloo His own action was indeed decisive in two incidents the first in directing the Prussian reinforcements to the right of the hard pressed allied line and secondly in bringing up two British cavalry brigades to take part in the final assault on the French lines He was appointed the Governor of Paris a particularly tricky job given the recent struggles and the large numbers of armed men roaming the city which he dispatched with aplomb Muffling would go on to many important postings in the Prussian army and even as an international mediator An excellent read full of details of how the Napoleonic Wars was fought and the personalities that brought down the Napoleonic colossus Author General Baron Friedrich Karl Ferdinand von Muffling 1775 1851 Editor Colonel Philip Yorke 1799 1874 Poetical Memoirs James Bird, 1833 Poetical memoirs. The exile James Bird, 1824
