PMHNP, Beverly Hoeffler DNSc, RN, FAAN, Philip D. Sloane MD, MPH, Stacey Biddle COTA/L, 2008-03-10 2008 AJN Book of the Year Winner Like its popular predecessor the new edition of Bathing Without a Battle presents an individualized problem solving approach to bathing and personal care of individuals with dementia. On the basis of extensive original research and clinical experience the editors have developed strategies and techniques that work in both institution and home settings. Their approach is also appropriate for caregiving activities other than bathing such as morning and evening care and for frail elders not suffering from dementia. For this second edition the authors have included historical material on bathing and substantially updated the section on special concerns including Pain, Skin care, Determining the appropriate level of assistance, Transfers, The environment. An enhanced final section addresses ways to support caregivers by increasing their understanding of the care recipient's needs and their knowledge of interventions to improve care and comfort. It also emphasizes self care and system level changes to promote person directed care. Several chapters include specific insights and wisdom from direct caregivers. Geriatric Nursing Protocols for Best Practice Mathy Doval Mezey, 2003 The protocols in this thoroughly updated edition address key clinical conditions and circumstances likely to be encountered by a hospital nurse caring for older adults. They represent best practices for acute care of the elderly as developed by nursing experts around the country as part of the Hartford Foundation's Nurses Improving Care to the Hospitalized Elderly project. NICHE. New to this edition are chapters on evaluating practice guidelines and measuring quality and outcome of care. Although the protocols were developed for acute care they can be easily modified to work in other practice settings such as the nursing home or home care Nursing Home Ethics Bethel Ann Powers, RN, PhD, 2003-09-09 Designated a Doody's Core Title Winner of an AJN Book of the Year Award p Bethel Ann Powers gives a comprehensive and thoughtful examination of the ethical issues that arise in long term care The first two chapters set the stage by exploring the pre nursing home experiences of families living with dementia and in contrast how residents and family members experience life in the nursing home The following chapters contain detailed hypothetical cases that include questions possible actions and insightful commentary to illustrate practical approaches to understanding common ethical issues affecting nursing home residents
