Linguistic Diversity and Teaching

Nancy L. Commins, Ofelia B. Miramontes, 2006-04-21 Linguistic Diversity and Teaching raises questions and provides a context for reflection regarding the complex issues surrounding new English learners in the schools These issues exist within a highly charged political climate and involve not only language but also culture class ethnicity and the persistent inequities that characterize our educational system The text addresses these issues through conversations among experts practitioners and readers that are informed by representative case studies and by a range of theoretical approaches It is designed to engage readers in beginning to evolve their own practical theories to help them explore and perhaps modify some basic beliefs and assumptions and to become acquainted with other points of view Throughout readers are encouraged to interact with the text and to develop their own perspective on the issue of linguistic diversity and teaching This is the fourth volume in Reflective Teaching and the Social Conditions of Schooling A Series for Prospective and Practicing Teachers edited by Daniel P Liston and Kenneth M Zeichner It follows the same format as previous volumes in the series Part I includes four cases dealing with different aspects of the impacts of the changing demographics of public schools Each case is followed by space for readers to write their own reactions and reflections and a set of reactions to the cases written by prospective and practicing teachers administrators and professors Part II presents three public arguments representing very different views about linguistic diversity in public schools English should be the only language of instruction all children should receive instruction in both their first language and English planning for instruction should be based not on absolutes but on what is realistically possible in particular settings Part III offers the authors own interpretations of the issues raised throughout the text outlines a number of ways in which teachers can continue to explore these topics and includes exercises for further reflection A glossary and annotated bibliography are provided This text is pertinent for all prospective and practicing teachers at any stage of their training It can be used in any undergraduate or graduate course that addresses issues of language diversity and teaching Leadership for Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Schools Martin

Scanlan,Francesca A. López,2014-11-13 Leadership for Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Schools explores how schools can cultivate students linguistic and cultural proficiencies provide students with a rich and challenging learning environment and ensure that students are socioculturally integrated Containing special features such as Storyboxes to detail specific cases of how school leaders put theory into practice and integrated exercises to provide launching points for critical dialogue and help readers make connections to their own contexts this book brings together research from the field of bilingual education and school improvement to provide a strong theoretical and research framework as well as best practices for supporting all students Authors Scanlan and L pez provide aspiring and practicing leaders the guidance to lead organize and support their schools to effectively serve linguistically and culturally diverse students A Companion Website includes exercises from the book available for download and modification and a blog focused on emerging research and effective practices The Wiley Handbook of Diversity in Special Education Marie Tejero Hughes,Elizabeth Talbott,2017-01-03

Researching ELLs' Disciplinary Literacies Meg Gebhard,2019-02-18 Written from a critical perspective this volume provides teachers teacher educators and classroom researchers with a conceptual framework and practical methods for teaching and researching the disciplinary literacy development of English language learners ELLs Grounded in a nuanced critique of current social economic and political changes shaping public education Gebhard offers a comprehensive framework for designing curriculum instruction and assessments that build on students linguistic and cultural resources and that are aligned with high stakes state and national standards using the tools of systemic functional linguistics SFL By providing concrete examples of how teachers have used SFL in their work with students in urban schools this book provides pre service and in service teachers as well as literacy researchers and policy makers with new insights into how they can support the disciplinary literacy development of ELLs and the professional practices of their teachers in the context of current school reforms Key features of this book include the voices of teachers examples of curriculum sample analyses of student writing and guiding questions to support readers in conducting action oriented research in the schools where they work Breaking Down the Wall Margarita Espino Calderon,Maria G. Dove,Diane Staehr Fenner,Margo Gottlieb,Andrea

Honigsfeld,Tonya Ward Singer,Shawn Slakk,Ivannia Soto,Debbie Zacarian,2019-09-11 It was a dark and stormy night in Santa Barbara January 19 2017 The next day s inauguration drumroll played on the evening news Huddled around a table were nine Corwin authors and their publisher who together have devoted their careers to equity in education They couldn t change the weather they couldn t heal a fractured country but they did have the power to put their collective wisdom about EL education upon the page to ensure our multilingual learners reach their highest potential Proudly we introduce you now to the fruit of that effort Breaking Down the Wall Essential Shifts for English Learners Success In this first of a kind collaboration teachers and leaders whether in small towns or large urban centers finally have both the research and the practical strategies to take those first steps toward excellence in educating our culturally and linguistically diverse children It s a book to be celebrated because it means we can throw away the dark glasses of deficit based approaches and see children who come to school speaking a different home language for what they really are learners with tremendous assets The authors contributions are arranged in nine chapters that become nine tenets for teachers and administrators to use as calls to actions in their own efforts to realize our English learners potential 1 From Deficit Based to Asset Based 2 From Compliance to Excellence 3 From Watering Down to Challenging 4 From Isolation to Collaboration 5 From Silence to

Conversation 6 From Language to Language Literacy and Content 7 From Assessment of Learning to Assessment for and as Learning 8 From Monolingualism to Multilingualism 9 From Nobody Cares to Everyone Every Community Cares Read this book the chapters speak to one another a melodic echo of expertise classroom vignettes and steps to take To shift the status quo is neither fast nor easy but there is a clear process and it s laid out here in Breaking Down the Wall To distill it into a single line would go something like this if we can assume mutual ownership if we can connect instruction to all children s personal social cultural and linguistic identities then all students will achieve School's Out Glynda A. Hull, Katherine Schultz, 2002 This timely book uses research on literacy outside of school to challenge how we think about literacy inside of school Bringing together highly respected literacy researchers this volume bridges the divide in the literature between formal education and the many informal settings such as homes community organizations and after school programs in which literacy learning flourishes To help link research findings with teaching practices each chapter includes a response from classroom teachers K 12 and literacy educators This book s unique blending of perspectives will have a profound effect on how literacy will be taught in school Ladybugs, Tornadoes, and Swirling Galaxies Brad Buhrow, Anne Upczak Garcia, 2023-10-10 Brad Buhrow and Anne Garcia are primary teachers in a diverse school in Boulder Colorado In Ladybugs Tornadoes and Swirling Galaxies you will see how they blend comprehension instruction and ELL best practices to explore inquiry as a literacy pathway for English language learners As teachers and students engage in learning science and social studies content they also discover multiple ways to make meaning The book is full of photographs of student artwork including a color insert that reveals the children s inquiry process and demonstrates the important role of art as a sign system in ELL literacy and language acquisition Brad and Anne provide explicit detail on the process they use as they move step by step with students from personal narrative through the independent inquiry process They also discuss use of the Gradual Release Model authentic assessment and bilingual identities Appendices in Spanish and English help to round out this informative and charming resource Presence Of Mind Pepi Leistyna, 2019-05-20 Taking up the ever shifting cultural and political landscape in the United States Presence of Mind addresses how power manifests itself within and across different social and educational terrain covering a number of contemporary topics and polemics that are central to teaching educational theory and practice Pepi Leistyna argues that it is imper The Ecology and Semiotics of Language Learning Leo van Lier, 2004-07-20 In this book I try to give a coherent and consistent overview of what an ecological approach to language learning might look like This is not a fully fledged grand theory that aims to provide an explanation of everything but an attempt to provide a rationale for taking an ecological world view and applying it to language education which I regard as one of the most important of all human activities Goethe once said that everything has been thought of before but that the difficulty is to think of it again The same certainly is true of the present effort If it has any innovative ideas to offer these lie in a novel combination of thoughts and ideas that have been around for a long long time The reader will encounter influences that range from Spinoza to Bakhtin and from Vygotsky to Halliday The scope of the work is intentionally broad covering all major themes that are part of the language learning process and the language teaching profession These themes include language perception and action self learning critical pedagogy and research At the same time I have attempted to look at both the macro and the micro sides of the ecological coin and address issues from both a theoretical and a practical perspective This then aims to be a book that can be read by practitioners and theoreticians alike and the main idea is that it should be readable and challenging at the same time

Education in the New Latino Diaspora Stanton E.F.

Wortham, Enrique G. Murillo Jr., Edmund T. Hamann, 2001-11-30 The authors describe a new demographic phenomenon the settlement of Latino families in areas of the United States where previously there has been little Latino presence This New Latino Diaspora places pressures on host communities both to develop conceptualizations of Latino newcomers and to provide needed services These pressures are particularly felt in schools in some New Latino Diaspora locations the percentage of Latino students in local public schools has risen from zero to 30 or even 50 percent in less than a decade Latino newcomers of course bring their own language and their own cultural conceptions of parenting education inter ethnic relations and the like Through case studies of Latino Diaspora communities in Georgia North Carolina Maine Colorado Illinois and Indiana the eleven chapters in this volume describe what happens when host community conceptions of and policies toward newcomer Latinos meet Latinos own conceptions The chapters focus particularly on the processes of educational policy formation and implementation processes through which host communities and newcomer Latinos struggle to define themselves and to meet the educational needs and opportunities brought by new Latino students Most schools in the New Latino Diaspora are unsure about what to do with Latino children and their emergent responses are alternately cruel uninformed contradictory and inspirational By describing how the challenges of accommodating the New Latino Diaspora are shared across many sites the authors hope to inspire others to develop more sensitive ways of serving Latino Diaspora children and families

Joe L. Kincheloe, Alberto Bursztyn, Shirley R. Steinberg, 2004 The editors and authors of Teaching Teachers Building a Quality School of Urban Education present a description of and vision for the complicated and often misunderstood field of teacher education This book describes a critical complex school of education that promotes disciplined scholarship and diverse reforms of educational knowledge to students and to the educational community This theme of a rigorous teacher education program is taken up throughout the volume as new understandings of professional education are promoted This book would be beneficial to students instructors and administrators The Testing Trap George Hillocks, 2002-04-12 Do statewide assessments really do what they are supposed to do Through interviews with over three hundred teachers and administrators Hillocks examines whether state writing tests in Illinois Kentucky Oregon New York and Texas actually improve students ability to express their thinking in writing Ultimately Hillocks argues that the majority of existing tests actually have a harmful effect on the way students are taught to write In addition to providing analyses of assessments that do not encourage good writing The Testing Trap contrasts them to those that do Concluding with practical procedures for examining and evaluating writing assessments this book is a provocative and essential read for administrators teachers policymakers parents and all who care about the education of our children Writing Superheroes Anne Haas Dyson, Based on an ethnographic study in an urban classroom of 7 to 9 year olds Writing Superheroes examines how young school children use popular culture especially superhero stories in the unofficial peer social world and in the official school literacy curriculum In one sense the book is about children writing superheroes about children appropriating superhero stories in their fiction writing and dramatic play on the playground and in the classroom These stories offer children identities as powerful people who do battle against evil and win The stories however also reveal limiting ideological assumptions about relations between people boys and girls adults and children people of varied heritages physical demeanors and social classes The book then is also about children as writing superheroes With the assistance of their teacher the observed children became superheroes of another sort able to take on powerful cultural storylines In this book Anne Dyson examines how the children s interest in and conflicts about commercial culture give rise to both literacy and social learning including learning how to participate in a community of differences Ability, Equity, and Culture Elizabeth B. Kozleski, Kathleen King Thorius, 2014 This comprehensive book is grounded in the authentic experiences of educators who have done and continue to do the messy everyday work of transformative school reform The work of these contributors in conjunction with research done under the aegis of the National Institute of Urban School Improvement NIUSI demonstrates how schools and classrooms can move from a deficit model to a culturally responsive model that works for all learners To strengthen relationships between research and practice chapters are coauthored by a practitioner researcher team and include a case study of an authentic urban reform situation This volume will help practitioners reformers and researchers make use of emerging knowledge and culturally responsive pedagogy to implement reforms that are more congruent with the strengths and needs of urban education contexts Contributors Sue Abplanalp Cynthia Alexander Alfredo J Artiles David R Garcia Dorothy F Garrison Wade JoEtta Gonzales Taucia Gonzalez Cristina Santamar a Graff Donna Hart Tervalon Jack C Jorgensen Elaine Mulligan Sheryl Petty Samantha Paredes Scribner Amanda L Sullivan Anne Smith Sandra L Vazquez Shelley Zion If you truly care about the serious research based pursuit of equity and inclusivity in urban schools you must read this book Using researcher practitioner co author teams and a case study of national urban reform Kozleski King Thorius and their chapter team authors show how to go successfully to scale with systemic reform James Joseph Scheurich Professor Indiana University School of Education Indianapolis Elizabeth B Kozleski chairs the Special Education program at the University of Kansas She received the TED Merrill award for her leadership in special education teacher education in 2011 Kathleen King Thorius is an assistant professor of urban special education in Indiana University s School of Education at IUPUI She is principal investigator for the Great Lakes Equity Center a Regional Equity Assistance Center funded by the U S Department of Education
