Restructuring And Quality Issues For Tomorrows Schools:

Restructuring and Quality: Issues for Tomorrow's Schools Tony Townsend, 2002-11-01 The restructuring of schools systems across the world has been controversial Have reforms been driven by a desire to cut educational budgets or the need to improve the quality of educational provision This book explores the restructuring movement with a particular emphasis on how decentralisation of power has affected the quality of education It provides a broad and international picture of educational reform

International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda, 2005-03-17 The aim of this Handbook is to present a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It has the objective of providing both a strategic education policy statement on recent shifts in education and policy research globally and offers new approaches to further exploration development and improvement of education and policy making The Handbook attempts to address some of the above issues and problems confronting educators and policy makers globally Different articles seek to conceptualize the on going problems of education policy formulation and implementation and provide a useful synthesis of the education policy research conducted in different countries and practical implications The Handbook by focusing on such issues as the OECD 2001 model of the knowledge society and associated strategic challenge and deliverable goals OECD 2001 139 UNESCO driven lifelong learning paradigm and its relevance to education policy makers globally different models of policy planning and equity questions that are raised by centralization decentralization diversity uniformity and curriculum standardization issues the crises of educational quality the debate of standards and excellence and good and effective teaching will contribute to a better and more holistic understanding of the education policy and research nexus offering possible strategies for the effective and pragmatic policy planning and implementation at the local regional and national levels

School Leadership and Complexity Theory Keith Morrison, 2012-12-06 Interest in complexity theory a relation of chaos theory has become well established in the business community in recent years Complexity theory argues that systems are complex interactions of many parts which cannot be predicted by accepted linear equations In this book Keith Morrison introduces complexity theory to the world of education drawing out its implications for school leadership He suggests that schools are complex nonlinear and unpredictable systems and that this impacts significantly within them As schools race to keep up with change and innovation he suggests that it is possible to find order without control and to lead without coercion Key areas schools and self organisation leadership for self organisation supporting emergence through the learning organisation schools and their environments communication fitness landscapes This book will be of interest to headteachers and middle managers and those on higher level courses in educational leadership and management

Schools Making A Difference Thrupp, Martin, 1999-05-01 Does an effective school really come about through the actions of teachers and school leaders or does it also require an advantaged student intake This question reflects a longstanding research debate about whether or not the social class mix of a school s student intake has much effect on individual achievement Schools Making a Difference Let s Be Realistic presents new evidence which suggests that school mix is likely to be important because of the way many school processes are deeply influenced by student intake characteristics Low socioeconomic schools face numerous intake related constraints which make them highly resistant to improvement efforts By suggesting that failing schools are often overwhelmed rather than ineffective this book provides a sympathetic reappraisal of the performance of teachers and school leaders in such schools It also offers a critical response to the often unrealistic claims of the school effectiveness and school improvement movement and a fresh critique of market reforms in education

School Improvement Zijian Li, Michael Williams, 2006 School improvement is at the centre of educational reform and is perceived by many as a key to social and economic advance It contributes to determining the personal fulfilment and career paths of individual students and consequently engages the interest of parents and community members It is an ever present commitment of teachers and managers in schools Policy makers and politicians at international national and local levels devote much time and effort to their search for better schools School improvement has also attracted the attention of researchers and scholars in many countries They have been drawn from various disciplines and fields within the educational studies community including psychology sociology history evaluation and studies in curriculum and assessment There is now an established body of findings from studies conducted in many contexts This book brings together leading experts drawn from many countries and several continents reflecting diverse approaches to educational policy and practice evaluation and research Variations between countries and between local communities within countries are highlighted The possibilities and difficulties inherent in transferring evidence from one educational system at a number of levels to another are clearly discussed What emerges from the cross national and cross cultural evidence are several significant threads currently under active investigation including school structure and management classroom organisation school leadership teacher training and staff development curriculum and assessment community involvement lifelong learning and special provision for students with special educational needs School Improvement International Perspectives is written for national educational policy makers teachers and student teachers governing bodies and parents from various levels of schooling and university researchers and scholars

Policy Transfer and Educational Change David Scott, Mayumi Terano, Roger Slee, Chris Husbands, Raphael Wilkins, 2016-05-15 Improving education through policy learning is an important notion for countries in need of educational reform However identifying a successful set of practices and transferring them from one national setting to another is a complex exercise Drawing from their extensive experience the authors explore a single case study of policy transfer in India demonstrating how and under what conditions educational reforms can be put into practice successfully and sustainably Coverage includes Policy Learning Inclusive Practices School Autonomy and School Leadership India and its system of education This book offers a unique international perspective on educational reform and is a useful resource for teachers policy makers and postgraduate level students Educational Reform Jordan T. Ville, 2001 This book brings together the literature in a field which may define the 21st century Can economic and technological progress continue with educational systems which seem to answer to no one but themselves and which output graduates who can barely read and write and who have only the faintest clue how to use a map This bibliography provides access via Title Author and Subject Indexes Contents Educational Accountability Educational Change Educational Equalisation Educational Leadership Educational Planning Educational Indicators School Decentralization in the Context of Globalizing Governance Holger Daun, 2006-11-23 Since the beginning of the 1980s decentralization has become a globalized policy and catchword in education a large number of countries around the world have formulated such a policy and many have also implemented it The policies and the changes at the national level have been researched but what has taken place and is taking place at the grassroots level has not received attention until recently This book presents grassroots cases from different countries against the background of the overall changes in governance philosophy and applications It uses case studies from countries in Africa Asia Europe and Latin America and describes what is occurring at this level The book gives an account of different types of decentralization and their impact The first two chapters describe principally structural and organizational educational changes in the broader context of globalized models and the pressure to create a competitive education system and changing governance

Decentralization is one of the strategic aspects of this new mode of governance Management Theories for Educational Change Keith Morrison,1998-10-28 This is an exceptional book It tempted me to throw out most of my collected works on the management of change because the author has somehow succeeded by including almost every aspect of educational change that any practitioner would wish to consider Overall this is a very stimulating book It is packed with information and the ideas and concepts contained could pack a school development plan for many years School Leadership and Management The theories and practices from the literature on business manufacturing and commerce which inform principles for managing change in education are identified in this book The author shows how the complexity of change can be addressed effectively One principle of effective management of change is its potential to empower the individuals and organizations its power to create and operate win win situations That can only be done by addressing the human side of organizations The strength of the business literature is that far from advocating the austere over rationalized dehumanized and objective pursuit of profit at all costs it suggests that the effective management of change is an affirmation of the humanity of business The Australian Journal of Education ,1998 The Primary School in Changing Times Tony Townsend,2002-09-11 Following substantial changes throughout the Australian education system primary schools are no longer in the protected position of having a regulated flow of clients a pre determined curriculum and marginal levels of staff development Recent moves have brought new or increased responsibilities for all schools in areas such as curriculum and policy development staff development monitoring and assessment the use of new technologies resource allocation This book seeks to review the impact of this change on Australian primary schools on the people who are involved with them and the issues they face Primary education is being re structured throughout the world and therefore these issues are of great interest and relevance to educators worldwide Markets for Schooling Nick Adnett,Peter Davies,2002-01-10 An economic analysis of schooling markets is developed emphasizing both the strengths and weaknesses of orthodox analyses This publication is designed to be accessible to all those concerned with education and economics The Sharp Edge of Educational Change Nina Bascia,Andy Hargreaves,2014-01-14 The Sharp Edge of Educational Change conveys the realities of reform as they affect educators practice The collected chapters each focus on particular current reform and reveal the technical and logistical complications social and political dynamics cognitive disjunctures and limitations and emotional demands of reform In so doing they provide new and rich conceptual perspectives on the contemporary nature of teachers and administrators work in classrooms schools and other educational settings School-based Management Ibtisam Abu-Duhou,1999 This book begins with a review of decentralisation in schools highlighting the problem of how to increase school level autonomy while ensuring an orderly delivery of high quality education for a whole country that is equitable across geographic socioeconomic and cultural divisions Case studies of school based managed models in six countries are described focusing on a radical system in place in Victoria Australia Leadership is a key function in school management reform especially with respect to the delegation of financial management Beyond the Self-Managing School Brian Caldwell,Jim M. Spinks,2003-09-02 This text examines how education is changing and outlines what is desirable and workable The authors suggest clear guidelines for policy makers and practitioners
