Ayers,2008-11-10 This book seeks to provide the most comprehensive and sustained engagement and critique of neo Gramscian analyses available in the literature In examining neo Gramscian analyses in IR IPE the book engages with two fundamental concerns in international relations i The question of historicity and ii The analysis of radical transformation

The Politics of European Competition Regulation Hubert Buch-Hansen,Angela Wigger,2011-03-07 Examines the political power struggles that have shaped the evolution of European competition regulation over the past six decades Financial Elites and Transnational Business Georgina Murray,John Scott,2012-01-01 This volume brings together leading scholars from around the world and a cross section of some of the most exciting and cutting edge of research on transnational capitalists the varied contributions are timely They provide great insight into the structures and processes behind today s international business and political headlines It is a must read for scholars and students of the new global capitalism William I Robinson University of California at Santa Barbara US This absorbing book addresses the seemingly simple question of who rules the world by linking it to debates about who owns the world and what this means for the dynamics of global power distribution Several expert contributors focus on global issues including the role of transnational finance interlocking directorates ownership and tax havens Others examine how these issues at the global level interact with the regional or nation state level in the US the UK China Australia and Mexico the books scrutinizes globalization from a fresh holistic perspective examining the relationship between the national and transnational to uncover the most significant structures and agents of power Possible policy futures are also considered Academics and researchers across a varied spectrum of fields encompassing business and management international studies and public policy will find this book both fascinating and important Deep transformations Hubert Buch-Hansen,Max Koch,Iana Nesterova,2024-05-14 As a research field social movement and political project degrowth is a multi faceted phenomenon It brings together a range of practices including alternative forms of living and initiatives of various kinds in civil society business and the state Yet no comprehensive theory of degrowth transformations has so far been developed Deep transformations fills this gap It develops a theory of degrowth transformations drawing on insights from multiple fields of knowledge such as political economy sociology and philosophy The book offers a holistic perspective that brings into focus transformation processes on various scales and points to various mechanisms that can facilitate degrowth These for instance include ecosocial policies transformative initiatives in business and civil society and alternative modes of being in and relating to the world Transnational Capitalism and the Struggle over European Integration Bastiaan van Apeldoorn,2003-08-27 This book presents an analysis of the transnational social forces in the making of a new European socio economic order that emerged out of the European integration process during the 1980s and 1990s Arguing that the political economy of European integration must be put within the context of a changing global capitalism Van Apeldoorn examines how European change is linked to global change and how transnational actors mediate these changes The Elgar Companion to Antonio Gramsci William K. Carroll,2024-01-18 Affirming Antonio Gramsci s continuing influence this adroitly cultivated Companion offers a comprehensive overview of Gramsci s contributions to the interdisciplinary fields of critical social science social and political thought economics and emancipatory politics Within the tradition of historical materialism it explores the continuing impact of Gramscian perspectives in the present day Innovation and Transformation in International Studies Stephen Gill,James H. Mittelman,1997-05-15 This book explores the nature of and conditions for theoretical innovation in international studies The Making of a Transnational Capitalist Class William K. Carroll,2013-04-04 Throughout the world there has been a growing wave of interest in global corporate power and the rise of a transnational capitalist class triggered by economic and political transformations that have blurred national borders and disembedded corporate business from national domiciles Using social network analysis William Carroll maps the changing field of power generated by elite relations among the world s largest corporations and related political organizations Carroll provides an in depth analysis that spans the three decades of the late 20th and early 21st century when capitalist globalization attained unprecedented momentum propelled both by the transnationalization of accumulation and by the political paradigm of transnational neoliberalism This has been an era in which national governments have deregulated capital international institutions such as the World Trade Organization and the World Economic Forum have gained prominence and production and finance have become more fully transnational increasing the structural power of capital over communities and workers Within this context of transformation the book charts the making of a transnational capitalist class reaching beyond national forms of capitalist class organization into a global field but facing spirited opposition from below in an ongoing struggle that is also a struggle over alternative global futures

UNESCOs Utopia of Lifelong Learning Maren Elfert, 2017-09-05 With a focus on lifelong learning this book examines the shifts that UNESCO s educational concepts have undergone in reaction to historical pressures and dilemmas since the founding of the organization in 1945 The tensions between UNESCO s humanistic worldview and the pressures placed on the organization have forced UNESCO to depart from its utopian vision of lifelong learning while still claiming continuity Elfert interprets the history of lifelong learning in UNESCO as part of a much bigger story of a struggle of ideologies between a humanistic emancipatory and an economistic technocratic worldview With a close study of UNESCO s two education flagship reports the Faure and Delors reports Elfert sheds light on the global impact of UNESCO s professed humanistic goals and its shifting influence on lifelong learning around the world

Globalists Quinn Slobodian, 2020-04-07 George Louis Beer Prize Winner Wallace K Ferguson Prize Finalist A Marginal Revolution Book of the Year A groundbreaking contribution Intellectual history at its best Stephen Wertheim Foreign Affairs Neoliberals hate the state Or do they In the first intellectual history of neoliberal globalism Quinn Slobodian follows a group of thinkers from the ashes of the Habsburg Empire to the creation of the World Trade Organization to show that neoliberalism emerged less to shrink government and abolish regulations than to redeploy them at a global level It was a project that changed the world but was also undermined time and again by the relentless change and social injustice that accompanied it Slobodian s lucidly written intellectual history traces the ideas of a group of Western thinkers who sought to create against a backdrop of anarchy globally applicable economic rules Their attempt it turns out succeeded all too well Pankaj Mishra Bloomberg Opinion Fascinating innovative Slobodian has underlined the profound conservatism of the first generation of neoliberals and their fundamental hostility to democracy Adam Tooze Dissent The definitive history of neoliberalism as a political project Boston Review

The Political Economy of European Employment Henk W Overbeek, 2004-11-23 This edited collection examines unemployment in Europe in the context of globalisation the implementation of European Monetary Union and the Eastern enlargement of the EU It combines theoretical chapters with detailed case studies of Britain The Netherlands Italy Spain and Central Europe

Power and Possibility Fergal Finnegan, Bernie Grummell, 2019-11-26 Power has been a defining and constitutive theme of adult education scholarship for over a century and is a central concern of many of the most famous and influential thinkers in the field Adult education has been particularly interested in how an analysis of power can be used to support transformative learning and democratic participation In a fragile and interdependent world these questions are more important than ever The aim of this collection is to offer an analysis of power and possibility in adult education which acknowledges analyzes and responds to the complexity and diversity that characterizes contemporary education and society Power and Possibility Adult Education in a Diverse and Complex World explores the topic of power and possibility theoretically historically and practically through a range of perspectives and in relation to varied areas of interest within contemporary adult education It is concerned with addressing how power works in and through adult education today by exploring what has changed in recent years and what is shaping and driving policy Alongside this the book explores ways of theorizing learning power and transformation that builds and extends adult education philosophy In particular it takes up the themes of diversity and solidarity and explores barriers and possibilities for change in relation to these themes Structural Adjustment Ed Brown,Bob Milward,Giles Mohan,Alfred B. Zack-Williams,2013-04-15 Structural Adjustment Theory Practice and Impacts examines the problems associated with Structural Adjustment Programmes SAPs and reveals the damaging impacts they can have The book looks at how the debt crisis of the 1970 s forced developing countries to seek external help and then reviews what constitutes as a standard adjustment programme detailing the political economic social and environmental impacts of SAPs The final section draws together theories and political responses and presents a case for alternatives to the programmes
