Rethink Cause And Consequences Of September 11:

Rethink Giorgio Baravalle, 2003 September 11th was a departure point that will define our future Consequently we have all been forced to rethink an act requiring introspection and reinterpretation of standard thinking Rethink is a book about history and politics our lives and the world It confronts our diversity stupidity and cleverness This is an investigation of the historical political and moral aspects of the tragedy of that fateful day and the events and political consequences that lead from it Rethink will without a doubt encourage people to take on new perspectives and personal ideologies 9/11 and the Literature of Terror Martin Randall, 2014-05-21 Explores the fiction poetry theatre and cinema representing the 9 11 attacks

Human Rights in the Near East and North Africa James T. Lawrence, 2004 The existence of human rights helps secure the peace deter aggression promote the rule of law combat crime and corruption and prevent humanitarian crises These human rights include freedom from torture freedom of expression press freedom women's rights children's rights and the protection of minorities This book surveys the countries of the Near East and North Africa and is augmented by a current bibliography and useful indexes by subject title and author Watching the World Change David Friend, 2009-02-03 The terrorist attack on the World Trade Center was the most universally observed news event in human history That the event was so visual is owing to the people who facing disaster took photographs of it imperiled office workers horrified tourists professional photographers risking their lives Conceived by Osama bin Laden as the toppling of an image of America right before the world's eyes the tragedy swiftly came to be defined by photography as families posted snapshots of their loved ones police sought terrorists faces on security camera videotapes and officials recorded the devastation and identified the dead In Watching the World Change David Friend tells the stories behind fifty of the images that altered our sense of our world forever from the happenstance shots taken by bystanders as the first tower was struck to the scene of three firemen raising the Stars and Stripes at the site He tells unforgettable stories of photographers and rescuers victims and survivors He shows how advances in television digital photography and the Internet produced an effect whereby more than two billion people saw the terrible events as they happened He explores the controversy about whether images of 9 11 are redemptive or exploitative and he shows how photographs help us to witness to grieve and finally to understand the unimaginable

The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield, 2011-05-27 In The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield challenges the idea that photographs of political violence exploit their subjects and pander to the voyeuristic tendencies of their viewers Instead she argues passionately that looking at such images and learning to see the people in them is an ethically and politically necessary act that connects us to our modern history of violence and probes the human capacity for cruelty Grappling with critics from Walter Benjamin and Bertolt Brecht to Susan Sontag and the postmoderns and analyzing photographs from such events as the Holocaust China's Cultural Revolution and recent terrorist acts Linfield explores the complex connection between photojournalism and the rise of human rights ideals In the book's concluding section she examines the indispensable work of

Robert Capa James Nachtwey and Gilles Peress and asks how photography should respond to the increasingly nihilistic trajectory of modern warfare A bracing and unsettling book The Cruel Radiance convincingly demonstrates that if we hope to alleviate political violence we must first truly understand it and to do that we must begin to look 'Post'-9/11 South Asian Diasporic Fiction P. Liao,2012-12-07 While much of the critical discussion about the emerging genre of 9 11 fiction has centred on the trauma of 9 11 and on novels by EuroAmerican writers this book draws attention to the diversity of what might be meant by post 9 11 by exploring the themes of uncanny terror through a close reading of four post 9 11 South Asian diasporic fictions Ten Years After 9/11 - Rethinking the Jihadist Threat Arabinda Acharya,2013-03-05 Ten years after the 9 11 attacks this book reassesses the effectiveness of the War on Terror considers how al Qaeda and other jihadist movements are faring explores the impact of wider developments in the Islamic world such as the Arab Spring and discusses whether all this suggests that a new approach to containing international especially jihadist terrorism is needed Among the book s many richly argued conclusions are that the War on Terror and the invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq have brutalised the United States that the jihadist threat is not one but rather a wide range of separate unconnected struggles and that al Qaeda s ideology contains the seeds of its own destruction in that although many Muslims are content to see the United States worsted they do not approve of al Qaeda s violence and are not taken in by the jihadists empty promises of utopia

Rethinking Islamic Studies Carl W. Ernst,Richard C. Martin,2012-11-27 A groundbreaking response to the challenges of interpreting Islamic religion in the post 9 11 and post Orientalist era Rethinking Islamic Studies upends scholarly roadblocks in post Orientalist discourse within contemporary Islamic studies and carves fresh inroads toward a robust new understanding of the discipline one that includes religious studies and other politically infused fields of inquiry Editors Carl W Ernst and Richard C Martin along with a distinguished group of scholars map the trajectory of the study of Islam and offer innovative approaches to the theoretical and methodological frameworks that have traditionally dominated the field In the volume s first section the contributors reexamine the underlying notions of modernity in the East and West and allow for the possibility of multiple and incongruent modernities This opens a discussion of fundamentalism as a manifestation of the tensions of modernity in Muslim cultures The second section addresses the volatile character of Islamic religious identity as expressed in religious and political movements at national and local levels In the third section contributors focus on Muslim communities in Asia and examine the formation of religious models and concepts as they appear in this region This study concludes with an afterword by accomplished Islamic studies scholar Bruce B Lawrence reflecting on the evolution of this post Orientalist approach to Islam and placing the volume within existing and emerging scholarship Rethinking Islamic Studies offers original perspectives for the discipline each utilizing the tools of modern academic inquiry to help illuminate contemporary incarnations of Islam for a growing audience of those invested in a sharper understanding of the Muslim world

ID ,2006 The Problem of Jesus Mark Clark,2021-02-23 The modern world portrays Jesus in many ways for many reasons Some are well intentioned but misguided others are aberrations still others have some but not all the essential keys In order to see and understand the real Jesus and what the Gospels say about him we have to see him in his first century context and work out from there Here is a portrait of Jesus that in some ways will affirm what traditional Christianity has always understood about him and in other ways upend it altogether Award winning author Mark Clark delves into the person and work of Jesus of Nazareth his parables and miracles his controversial challenge of discipleship and obedience his seemingly insane claim to be God and what his death and resurrection if they did happen actually mean Mark is unafraid to tackle questions such as What would first century Jews have immediately recognized about Jesus that modern Christians often miss What do the Gospels accomplish and can we trust them Is there a problem with science and Jesus miracles What are the barriers stopping people from following him And what is Christianity in light of an accurate portrayal of the object of its faith The Problem of Jesus engages with ideas from all realms of study from Malcolm Gladwell and Jordan Peterson to historians scientists and philosophers from N T Wright to C S Lewis from Star Wars to Pretty Woman all unite to form a breathtaking and accurate portrait of Jesus the man the message and the mission who forever altered the course of human history As a former atheist I would call this book philosophical dynamite The Problem of Jesus will take your thinking about Jesus and your relationship with him to whole new levels Pastor and author Ray Johnston

A Poetics of Trauma after 9/11 Katharina Donn,2016-10-04 The 9 11 attacks brought large scale violence into the 21st century with force and have come to epitomize the entanglement of intimate vulnerability and virtual spectacle that is typical of the globalized present This book works at the intersection of trauma studies affect theory and literary studies to offer radically new interpretive frames for interrogating the challenges inherent in representing the initial moments of the terrorist encounter Beyond the paradigm of traumatic unspeakability post 9 11 texts expose the materiality of the human body in its universal vulnerability The intersubjective empathy this engenders is politically subversive as it undermines the discourse of historical singularity and exceptionalism by establishing a global network of reference and dialogue Innovative theoretical interconnections between clinical pathology concepts of cultural trauma and political aesthetics lay the foundations for exploring formally and geographically diverse texts Close readings of works by Jonathan Safran Foer Art Spiegelman Don DeLillo and William Gibson map the relationship between representations of 9 11 and complex aspects of trauma theory This detailed approach makes a case for revisiting trauma theory and bringing its Freudian origins into the digitized present It showcases trauma as a physical and psychological wound as well as an experience that is simultaneously pre discursive and inhibited by the virtuality of the present day real Exploring how contemporary trauma studies can take into account the digitization and virtuality of present day realities this book is a key intervention in establishing a contemporary ethics of witnessing terror

Communication Arts ,2004 The Impact of 9/11 on Religion and Philosophy M. Morgan,2009-11-23 The Impact of 9 11 on Religion and Philosophy is the sixth volume of the six volume series The Day that Changed Everything edited by Matthew J

Morgan This volume features a foreword by John Esposito and contributors include Jean Bethke Elshtain Philip Yancey John Milbank Ada Maria Isasi Diaz John Cobb and Martin Cook Stalemate Sarah A. Binder, 2004-05-13 Gridlock is not a modern legislative condition Although the term is said to have entered the American political lexicon after the 1980 elections Alexander Hamilton complained about it more than two hundred years ago In many ways stalemate seems endemic to American politics Constitutional skeptics even suggest that the framers intentionally designed the Constitution to guarantee gridlock In Stalemate Sarah Binder examines the causes and consequences of gridlock focusing on the ability of Congress to broach and secure policy compromise on significant national issues Reviewing more than fifty years of legislative history Binder measures the frequency of deadlock during that time and offers concrete advice for policymakers interested in improving the institutional capacity of Congress Binder begins by revisiting the notion of framers intent investigating whether gridlock was the preferred outcome of those who designed the American system of separated powers Her research suggests that frequent policy gridlock might instead be an unintended consequence of constitutional design Next she explores the ways in which elections and institutions together shape the capacity of Congress and the president to make public law She examines two facets of its institutional evolution the emergence of the Senate as a coequal legislative partner of the House and the insertion of political parties into a legislative arena originally devoid of parties Finally she offers a new empirical approach for testing accounts of policy stalemate during the decades since World War II These measurements reveal patterns in legislative performance during the second half of the twentieth century showing the frequency of policy deadlock and the legislative stages at which it has most often emerged in the postwar period Binder uses the new measure of stalemate to explain empirical patterns in the frequency of gridlock The results weave together the effects of institu

Bearing Witness Denise Leith, 2004 There are two types of people in this world those who have been to war and seen war close up and those who haven't They're not the same animal The journalists and photographers who document war and conflict are continually challenged personally and professionally by the scenes that they witness How do they live with the horrors of war and human suffering that they witness and the commonly expressed sense of impotence that results while simultaneously claiming their job is a privilege and their work has given their life meaning While passionately arguing their aim is to make a difference why have many repeatedly refused to become witnesses in war crimes tribunals And how do they deal with one of the most difficult dilemmas faced by war correspondents and photojournalists whether to abandon their witnessing role to lend assistance to people suffering from the effects of war or famine or whether to make the decision that the greatest assistance they can provide is to stand back and get the story or pictures out to the rest of the world Some war correspondents and photojournalists are drawn back again and again to the next conflict while others have decided that the risk and personal toll is something they can no longer accept BEARING WITNESS will challenge the way you view and read the world with its remarkable insights into the experiences beliefs and fears of more than twenty of these journalists and photographers including Robert Fisk Monica Attard Marie Colvin David Rieff David Brill Sorious Samura and Ron Haviv people who have spent their careers looking at what others cannot bear to see
