Rethinking Truth

Stephen Biggs, Heimir Geirsson

Rethinking Truth:

Rethinking Truth Philip Higgs, Jane Smith, 2006 By offering the statement the truth or truths we accept determine what our lives are and will be the authors of this volume explore the contemporary world and all of its contradictions from starvation AIDS and illiteracy to digital technology the human genome project and the financial markets of Wall Street and Tokyo This engaging accessible text examines the truth propounded by a range of philosophies such as critical theory existentialism feminism and nihilism discussing their practical applications and offering responses to the questions asked

Beyond Dispute Daniel Taub, 2025-05-22 Fiercely divisive times call for radically different arguments In our age of seemingly irreconcilable differences argument is increasingly seen as a plague to be avoided or a contest to be won Daniel Taub an experienced peace negotiator and diplomat argues that ancient Jewish wisdom offers a third way Drawing from this tradition and from his own experience at the heart of some of the world's toughest negotiations in Beyond Dispute he makes the case for a radically different approach to help us come closer to truth and to each other This approach sees argument not as a combat zone but as a joint enterprise and its disputants not as jealous custodians of competing truths but collaborative explorers It seeks to create safe spaces not by outlawing controversial opinions but by welcoming them and it offers a set of practical tools to rethink our own preconceptions In fractious times it charts a way to build communities and societies that are resilient enough to face new and challenging ideas without fear Weaving ancient insights with contemporary research in conflict resolution as well as behind the scenes personal stories of diplomacy and negotiations Beyond Dispute is a passionate call to rediscover and harness the vital and surprising power of a good argument Shattering Silos Lambert

Zuidervaat, 2022-08-15 Questions first raised by Hannah Arendt in the 1960s take on new urgency in the post truth era as political leaders blithely reject facts in the public domain Is truth politically impotent Are politics inherently false Is the search for truth still relevant Shattering Silos a companion volume to Religion Truth and Social Transformation and Art Education and Cultural Renewal provides a path breaking response As in his two previous books Lambert Zuidervaat challenges the boundaries philosophers set up between epistemology ethics and political philosophy Knowledge he argues takes different forms in various social domains and all are subject to political struggle A critique of contemporary society must draw on many social domains of knowledge including the arts and religion and should recast politics as a striving for truth in the broadest sense Proposing a new conception of truth one that emphasizes the unity of knowledge and truth as well as their diversity among different social domains Zuidervaat asks what such holism and pluralism suggest about how we understand politics and society This book proposes a new understanding of large scale social change challenging how most people think about knowledge and truth Interweaving epistemology social criticism and political thought Shattering Silos aims to help redirect an allegedly post truth society International Criminal Justice Gideon Boas, Pascale

Chifflet, 2017-04-28 This book explores crucial themes in international criminal justice It starts by answering the searching question what is international criminal justice The book then considers the role and impact of politics history psychology terrorism transitioning society and even the idea of hope and the relationship of these themes with how we understand international criminal justice While addressing some crucial legal questions International Criminal Justice goes further drawing on a range of multi disciplinary thinking

Judging State-Sponsored Violence, Imagining Political Change

Bronwyn Leebaw, 2011-04-18 How should state sponsored atrocities be judged and remembered This controversial question animates contemporary debates on transitional justice and reconciliation This book reconsiders the legacies of two institutions that transformed the theory and practice of transitional justice Whereas the Nuremberg Trials exemplified the promise of legalism and international criminal justice South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission promoted restorative justice and truth commissions Leebaw argues that the two frameworks share a common problem both rely on criminal justice strategies to investigate experiences of individual victims and perpetrators which undermines their critical role as responses to systematic atrocities Drawing on the work of influential transitional justice institutions and thinkers such as Judith Shklar Hannah Arendt Jos Zalaquett and Desmond Tutu Leebaw offers a new approach to thinking about the critical role of transitional justice one that emphasizes the importance of political judgment and investigations that examine complicity in and resistance to systematic atrocities

Silence and Listening as Rhetorical Arts Cheryl Glenn, Krista Ratcliffe, 2011-01-05

In Silence and Listening as Rhetorical Arts editors Cheryl Glenn and Krista Ratcliffe bring together seventeen essays by new and established scholars that demonstrate the value and importance of silence and listening to the study and practice of rhetoric Building on the editors groundbreaking research which respects the power of the spoken word while challenging the marginalized status of silence and listening this volume makes a strong case for placing these overlooked concepts and their intersections at the forefront of rhetorical arts within rhetoric and composition studies Divided into three parts History Theory and Criticism and Praxes this book reimagines traditional histories and theories of rhetoric and incorporates contemporary interests such as race gender and cross cultural concerns into scholarly conversations about rhetorical history theory criticism and praxes For the editors and the other contributors to this volume silence is not simply the absence of sound and listening is not a passive act When used strategically and with purpose together and separately silence and listening are powerful rhetorical devices integral to effective communication The essays cover a wide range of subjects including women rhetors from ancient Greece and medieval and Renaissance Europe African philosophy and African American rhetoric contemporary antiwar protests in the United States activist conflict resolution in Israel and Palestine and feminist and second language pedagogies Taken together the essays in this volume advance the argument that silence and listening are as important to rhetoric and composition studies as the more traditionally emphasized arts of reading writing and speaking and are particularly effective for theorizing historicizing analyzing and teaching An extremely valuable resource for instructors and students in rhetoric composition and communication studies Silence and Listening as Rhetorical Arts will also have applications beyond academia helping individuals cultural groups and nations more productively discern and implement appropriate actions when all parties agree to engage in rhetorical situations that include not only respectful speaking reading and writing but also productive silence and rhetorical listening

The Legacy of Nuremberg David A. Blumenthal, Timothy L. H. McCormack, 2008 In this new collection of essays the editors assess the legacy of the Nuremberg Trial asking whether the Trial really did have a civilising influence or if it constituted little more than institutionalised vengeance Three essays focus particularly on the historical context and involve rich analysis of for example the atmospherics of the Trial itself and the attitudes of German society at the time to the conduct of the Trial The majority of the essays deal with the contemporary legacies of the Nuremberg Trial and attempt to assess the ongoing relevance of the Judgment itself and of the principles encapsulated in it Some essays consider the importance of the principle of individual criminal responsibility under international law and argue that the international community has to some extent failed to fulfil the promise of Nuremberg in the decades since the Trial Other essays focus on contemporary application of aspects of the substantive law of Nuremberg particularly the international crime of aggression the law of military occupation and the use of the crime of conspiracy as an alternative basis of criminal responsibility The collection also includes essays analysing the nature and operation of a number of international criminal tribunals since Nuremberg including the permanent International Criminal Court The final grouping of essays focus on the impact of the Nuremberg Trial on Australia examining in particular Australia's post World War Two war crimes trials of Japanese defendants Australia's extensive national case law on Article 1 F of the Refugee Convention and Australia's national implementing legislation for the Rome Statute

Prosecution of Core Crimes in Ethiopia Tadesse Simie Metekia, 2021-03-08 Tadesse Simie Metekia's Prosecution of Core Crimes in Ethiopia offers an in depth analysis of core crimes trials in Ethiopia within the broader frame of international criminal law This book is a result of an unprecedented data collection a meticulous exploration of relevant national and international norms and case laws as well as a full engagement with the existing literature on the domestic application of international criminal law A comparative examination of the actual trials and the manner in which Ethiopia set prosecutions of core crimes in motion Metekia's book is a significant achievement in terms of furthering academic knowledge and of contributing to the wider policy debates on international criminal justice and on the role of states in prosecuting atrocities

When Should Law Forgive? Martha Minow, 2019-09-24 Martha Minow is a voice of moral clarity a lawyer arguing for forgiveness a scholar arguing for evidence a person arguing for compassion Jill Lepore author of These Truths In an age increasingly defined by accusation and resentment Martha Minow makes an eloquent deeply researched argument in favor of strengthening the role of forgiveness in the administration of law Through three case studies Minow addresses such foundational issues as Who has the right to forgive Who should be forgiven And under what terms The result is as lucid as it is compassionate A compelling study of the mechanisms of justice by one of this country's foremost legal experts Force Short of War in Modern Conflict Jai Galliot, 2019-03-22 Jai Galliot explores the overarching phenomenon of how force short of war is being used in modern conflict and how it impacts just war theory He shows that we need to bring the rules of war into alignment with increasingly digital means of conducting kinetic warfare through the force short of war paradigm The use of force short of war is now commonplace in large part owing to casualty averseness and the explosion of emerging technologies most notably drones autonomous robotics and cyberwarfare It often involves the selective or limited use of military force to achieve political objectives and assumes many forms These include targeted killing assassination special forces raids limited duration bombing campaigns or missile strikes and low intensity counterterrorism and counterinsurgency operations Research Handbook on Transitional Justice Cheryl Lawther, Luke Moffett, 2023-08-14 Providing a refreshing take on transitional justice this second edition Research Handbook brings together an expanse of scholarly expertise to reconsider how societies deal with gross human rights violations structural injustices and mass violence Contextualised by historical developments it covers a diverse range of concepts actors and mechanisms of transitional justice while shedding light on new and emerging areas in the field Reconciliation, Civil Society, and the Politics of Memory Birgit Schwellung, 2014-10-15 How did civil society function as a locus for reconciliation initiatives since the beginning of the 20th century The essays in this volume challenge the conventional understanding of reconciliation as a benign state driven process They explore how a range of civil society actors from Turkish intellectuals apologizing for the Armenian Genocide to religious organizations working towards the improvement of Franco German relations have confronted and coped with the past These studies offer a critical perspective on local and transnational reconciliation acts by questioning the extent to which speech became an alternative to silence remembrance to forgetting engagement to oblivion Transitional Justice Norman Weiß, Stephanie Verlaan, Juan Francisco Vasquez Carruthers, Theresa Mair, Sean Conner, Lucas Maaser, Livia Röthlisberger, 2022-01-28 This publication deals with the topic of transitional justice In six case studies the authors link theoretical and practical implications in order to develop some innovative approaches Their proposals might help to deal more effectively with the transition of societies legal orders and political systems Young academics from various backgrounds provide fresh insights and demonstrate the relevance of the topic The chapters analyse transitions and conflicts in Sierra Leone Argentina Nicaragua Nepal and South Sudan as well as Germany's colonial genocide in Namibia Thus the book provides the reader with new insights and contributes to the ongoing debate about transitional justice Gegenstand dieser Publikation ist das Thema Transitional Justice In sechs Fallstudien verknüpfen die Autoren theoretische und praktische Implikationen um innovative Ansätze zu entwickeln Ihre Vorschläge wollen dazu beitragen den bergangsprozess von Gesellschaften Rechtsordnungen und politischen Systemen effektiver zu gestalten Nachwuchswissenschaftler mit unterschiedlichem fachlichem Hintergrund geben hier neue Einblicke
