Rethinking Canada The Promise Of Womens History New Canadian Readings:

Rethinking Canada Veronica Jane Strong-Boag, Anita Clair Fellman, 1991 Thoroughly revised and updated this fourth edition of Rethinking Canada The Promise of Women's History is part of the continuing feminist effort to discover what it means to be women and Canadians Rethinking Canada examines key developments in Canadian history from the founding of New France to the present while at the same time highlighting the distinctive texture of women's experiences and identities This decidedly non traditional reconstruction of Canadian history focuses on the lives struggles and contributions of women enlarging and diversifying the picture of the past found in conventional historical accounts Of the 26 readings in this volume 16 are new Subjects range from the impact of colonialism on gender relations in Aboriginal societies to the immigration of Japanese picture brides in early twentieth century British Columbia to transnational political alliances formed by Canadian and Mexican women in response to NAFTA Other topics include sexuality workforce trends gender and public policy and much more The selections aim above all to bring diverse and marginalized groups of women out of the historical shadows The voices of First Nations women women of colour and immigrant women for example resound clearly in this volume An informative introduction to each reading situates the article in its specific historical and historiographical context and each introduction concludes with questions designed to stimulate analysis and discussion of the text By presenting current scholarship in the context of three decades of research into Canadian women's history Rethinking Canada Fourth Edition offers new and fascinating perspectives on women and on Canada Book jacket

Reading Canadian Women's and Gender History Nancy Janovicek, Carmen Nielson, 2019-01-01 Inspired by the question of what's next in the field of Canadian women's and gender history this broadly historiographical volume represents a conversation among established and emerging scholars who share a commitment to understanding the past from intersectional feminist perspectives It includes original essays on Quebecois Indigenous Black and immigrant women's histories and tackles such diverse topics as colonialism religion labour warfare sexuality and reproductive labour and justice Intended as a regenerative retrospective of a critically important field this collection both engages analytically with the current state of women's and gender historiography in Canada and draws on its rich past to generate new knowledge and areas for inquiry Rethinking Canada Adele Perry, Lara Campbell, Tamara Myers, 2016-02-01 Now in its seventh edition Rethinking Canada presents a collection of essays on the diverse lives struggles and contributions of women in Canadian history Fourteen new essays offer current engaging and balanced coverage of indigenous immigrant and racialized experiences work and labour sexuality and the body religion and spirituality politics and regional analysis Insightful chapter introductions primary documents and a new timeline of major events in Canadian women's history provide additional context for each reading and allow students to make connections between chapters and the study of Canadian history as a whole Rethinking Canada Veronica Jane Strong-Boag, Anita Clair Fellman, 1986 And on that Farm He Had a Wife Monda M. Halpern, 2001 Focusing on white

Anglo Protestant farm women in southern and southwestern Ontario Monda Halpern argues that many Ontario farm women were indeed feminist and that this feminism was more progressive than their conservative image has suggested In And On That Farm He Had a Wife Halpern demonstrates that Ontario farm women adhered to social feminism a feminism that focused on values and experiences associated with women and that emphasized the differences between women and men promoting female specificity solidarity and separatism These principles were informed by farm women s overlapping roles as wives and unpaid farm labourers

Changing Women, Changing History Diana Lynn Pedersen, 1996 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian s women s history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive

Core Of My Heart, My Country Maggie MacKellar, 2016-05-18 When Georgiana Molloy gave birth on the beach at Augusta in 1830 with boxes of her possessions lying where they d landed she was one of the many women who literally had to remake their homes out of the broken bones of their past In this passionate book Maggie MacKellar tells the stories of women on the frontier in Canada and Australia who ventured out in bonnets and petticoats to collect seeds who abandoned sidesaddles to ride in the mountains who risked their reputations to climb mountains and beyond this it tells of the risky business of women who put their lives on the page to claim the importance of their experience Core of My Heart My Country weaves together experience and insight from women who lived and wrote in different landscapes in different climates and in different eras It is a provocative and remarkable encounter with buried stories and persistent myths

Louis Riel Hartwell Bowsfield, 1988 The rise and fall of Louis Riel 1844-85 spanned only fifteen years yet he is one of the most controversial and colourful people in Canadian history The central figure in two rebellions which he led on behalf of the French speaking half breeds called Metis Riel has caught the imagination of Canadians as few other historical personalities have done His career began with the acts of resistance at the Red River Settlement in 1869 and continued through the formation of a Provisional Government and the notorious shooting of Thomas Scott in 1870 through years of mental illness and exile in the United States to the North West Rebellion of 1885 It reached an inevitable climax with his surrender and trial and the passionate outpouring of feeling that rocked the country when he was found guilty of treason and executed The religious and racial emotions of the time the bigotry and opportunism of politicians and Riel s own unstable mental condition all combine to make of his life a Canadian tragedy one that had profound consequences for Confederation

In the Interval of the Wave Mary McDonald-Rissanen, 2013-12-01 Taking its title from a poem by Prince Edward Island poet Anne Compton In the Interval of the Wave is a close study of diaries written by Prince Edward Island women in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Women from both rural and urban regions of the Island recorded their lives in a genre that allowed them to play with the conventions of the language they knew For busy farm wives their quotidian language syntax and choice of topic appear simple whereas for the urban elite like Margaret Gray Lord and Wanda Wyatt the erudition of their diaries suggests a more

leisured existence Mary McDonald Rissanen argues that the initial reception of the text its physical appearance handwriting gaps and flood of words provides interesting insights for understanding the circumstances of Prince Edward Island women from times past Intertextual readings of the diaries alongside other cultural artifacts such as paintings histories folk stories and songs embellish the idiosyncratic diary discourse Diaries enabled women to write their voices create a subjective identity and redefine their place in the world In the Interval of the Wave exposes lives lived and recorded in a special moment and place never far from the rhythm of the sea      Respectable Citizens Lara A. Campbell,2009-10-21 High unemployment rates humiliating relief policy and the spectre of eviction characterized the experiences of many Ontario families in the Great Depression Respectable Citizens is an examination of the material difficulties and survival strategies of families facing poverty and unemployment and an analysis of how collective action and protest redefined the meanings of welfare and citizenship in the 1930s Lara Campbell draws on diverse sources including newspapers family and juvenile court records premiers papers memoirs and oral histories to uncover the ways in which the material workings of the family and the discursive category of respectable citizenship were invested with gendered obligations and Anglo British identity Respectable Citizens demonstrates how women and men represented themselves as entitled to make specific claims on the state shedding new light on the cooperative and conflicting relationships between men and women parents and children and citizen and state in 1930s Canada      Readings in Canadian History: Post-Confederation Donald B. Smith,2002      Inuit Women Janet Mancini Billson,Kyra Mancini,2007 Inuit Women is the definitive study of the Inuit during a time of rapid change Based on fourteen years of research and fieldwork this analysis focuses on the challenges facing Inuit women as they enter the twenty first century Written shortly after the creation of Nunavut a new province carved out of traditional Inuit homelands in the Canadian North this compelling book combines conclusions drawn from the authors ethnographic research with the stories of Inuit women and men told in their own words In addition to their presentation of the personal portraits and voices of many Inuit respondents Janet Mancini Billson and Kyra Mancini explore global issues the impact of rapid social change and Canadian resettlement policy on Inuit culture women s roles in society and gender relations in Baffin Island in the Eastern Arctic They also include an extensive section on how the newly created territory of Nunavut is impacting the lives of Inuit women and their families Working from a research approach grounded in feminist theory the authors involve their Inuit interviewees as full participants in the process This book stands alone in its attention to Inuit women s issues and lives and should be read by everyone interested in gender relations development modernization globalization and Inuit culture      The Devil from Saint-Hyacinthe Frank Guttman,2007-05-24 With a political career spanning nearly half a century Tlesphore Damien Bouchard was an advocate for progress in Quebec s history He began his rise to the top in 1912 when he was elected as a member of the Legislative Assembly of Quebec for the city of Saint Hyacinthe He went on to become mayor of Saint Hyacinthe for twenty five years Speaker of the House Acting House Leader of the Liberal Party from 1936 to 1939 and finally the most influential cabinet minister from 1939 to 1944 Bouchard emerged as one of the most powerful leaders of the Liberal Party A leading anti clerical who thought that the Catholic Church had no business in politics the social sphere or public education Bouchard became a beacon of light in the struggle for education reform women s suffrage and workers legislation During the Depression he introduced measures that relieved the misery of the poor and destitute making Saint Hyacinthe renowned for its management of the crisis In this first ever biography of Bouchard author Frank Guttman touches on the politician s early life and explores how Bouchard s political attitudes developed Tracing Bouchard s career from his beginnings as an alderman in 1905 to his final post as cabinet minister in 1944 Guttman pens a compelling portrait of a man well ahead of his generation

Retail Nation Donica Belisle,2011-02-15 The experience of walking down a store aisle replete with displays salespeople and infinite choice is so common we often forget retail has a short history Retail Nation traces Canada s transformation into a modern consumer society back to an era 1890 to 1940 when department stores such as Eaton s ruled the shopping scene and promised to strengthen the nation Department stores emerge as agents of modern nationalism but the nation they helped to define white consumerist middle class was more limited and contested than nostalgic portraits of the early department store suggest

Canadian Government and Politics - Seventh Edition Robert J. Jackson,Doreen Jackson,Royce Koop,2020-02-25 Canadian Government and Politics delivers an up to date and concise introduction to Canada s political institutions processes and issues The text integrates theory history Census data and current affairs to give students an orderly picture of the wide ranging landscape of Canadian government and politics This seventh edition includes coverage and analysis of the 2019 general election as well as a preview of the new Canadian government It also adds exciting material on Canada s cultural landscape institutions and policies along with a new chapter on Indigenous Peoples Other chapters examine the executive legislative and judicial branches of government the electoral system bureaucracy Qu bec nationalism foreign policy and much more The authors provide trenchant coverage of many key issues of concern to Canadians including regionalism nationalism climate change defense policy Indigenous Peoples rights minority rights pipelines and the USMCA trade deal These topics are addressed by way of fair minded impartial discussions aimed to foster a vital and optimistic perspective on Canadian politics that will encourage critical thinking and active citizenship

The Ballot and Its Message Joseph Wearing,1991 Framing Our Past Lorna R McLean,Kate O'Rourke,Sharon Anne Cook,2001-05-14 With introductory essays by historians Framing Our Past emphasizes the lived experiences of women their participation in many areas of social life such as social rituals with other women organized sporting clubs philanthropic spiritual and aesthetic activities study and reading groups The authors then focus on women s roles as nurturers and keepers of the hearth B their experiences with family management child care and health concerns They consider women s varied contributions within formal and informal educational systems as well as their instrumental political role in consumer activism social work peace movements and royal commissions Canadian women s shaping of health care and science through nursing physiotherapy and research are discussed as is women's work from domestic labour to dressmaking to broadcasting to banking Using diary accounts oral history letters organizational records paintings quilts dressmaking patterns milliners records posters Framing our Past offers a unique opportunity to share what is rarely if ever seen offering insights into the preservation and interpretation of historical sources Canadian Theatre History Don Rubin,1996

Unsettled Pasts Sarah Carter,2005 The traditional mythology of the West is dominated by male images the fur trader the Mountie the missionary the miner the cowboy the politician the Chief Unsettled Pasts Reconceiving the West claims to re-examine the West through women's eyes It draws together contributions from researchers scholars and academic and community activists and seeks to create dialogue across geographic cultural and disciplinary boundaries Ranging from scholarly essays to poetry these pieces offer the reader a sample of some of today's most innovative approaches to western Canadian women's history several of the themes that run throughout the volume have only recently been critically addressed By rewriting the West from the perspective of women the contributors complicate traditional narratives of the region's past by contesting historical generalizations thus transcending the myths and frontier legacies that emerged out of imperial and masculine priorities and perspectives With Contributions by Kristin Burnett Cristine Georgina Bye Sarah Carter Mary Leah De Zwart Lesley A Erickson Cheryl Foggo Nadine I Kozak Siri Louie Graham A Macdonald Florence Melchior Patricia A Roome Eliane Leslau Silverman Olive Stickney Aritha Van Herk Muriel Stanley Venne Cora J Voyageur Canadian Foreign Policy J.
