Rethinking Modernization Anthropological Perspectives:

Rethinking Modernization University of Rhode Island, 1974-10-25      Rethinking Modernization John J. Poggie, Robert N. Lynch, 1974      Inter-civilizational Relations and the Destiny of the West Victor Segesvary, 2000 Inter Civilization Relations and the Destiny of the West examines in scholarly detail historical and philosophical background to the current turning point of history Segesvary brings together hermeneutics and history and philosophy and politics in a thought provoking synthesis which will interest politicians diplomats and economic development specialists      From Old Times to New Europe Agata Fijalkowski, 2016-04-22 From Old Times to New Europe considers the post totalitarian legal framework in today s Europe arguing that the study of totalitarianism and post totalitarianism continues to be significant as ever Drawing mainly on the Polish experience this analysis focuses on the significant part played by history in the development of the region s identity and preferences concerning the role of the state in public and private life It examines the political socio economic and legal aspects of key events and draws comparisons with other CEE states whilst implementing key socio legal theories to explain trends and strains in this post Communist and post totalitarian period With the benefit of access to archival sources in Poland and Russia this book will be of interest to students and researchers of European law law and society and international criminal justice      Bible Translation and the Spread of the Church Philip C. Stine, 1990 This book deals with the effect that translation of the Bible has had on the theology of developing churches over the past 200 years and also examines cultural factors which affect translation as well as how Bible translation itself affects a people s social and cultural development      The Terror of the Machine Devon G. Peña, 2014-10-14 Born of thirteen years of field research this interdisciplinary work explores the complex intersections of technology class gender and ecology in the transnational milieu of Mexico s maquiladoras foreign owned assembly plants located along the U S border Devon Pe a examines workplace and community struggles from the perspective of the women who work in the maquiladoras He describes the workers struggles for workplace democracy social justice and sustainable development He also observes the circulation of struggle from the factory to the community highlighting the efforts to establish worker owned cooperatives in the border region during the 1970s and 1980s Female maquila workers are typically portrayed as passive apolitical and easily exploited This book however presents an opposing view investigating the subaltern life of the shop floor the workers informal methods of resistance to hazardous conditions sexual harassment and managerial tyranny Using survey research oral history discourse analysis and site ethnography the author develops a cogent critique of labor process theory a critique grounded on his extensive study of actual workplace politics in the maquiladoras The Terror of the Machine is a trenchant analysis of the political cultural and environmental effects of maquila industrialization and an eloquent and persuasive call for alternatives in the direction of ecologically sustainable and culturally appropriate modes of development      Samoan Medical Belief and Practice Cluny Macpherson, La'avasa Macpherson, 1990 This is the first comprehensive study of Samoan music Cluny and La avasa Macpherson have carried out intensive investigation into the practice and beliefs of contemporary indigenous healers or fof in Western Samoa to produce a fascinating and thoughtful study They explain convincingly why traditional Samoan medicine and its skilled practitioners continue to flourish alongside Western medical practice both in Samoa and in Samoan immigrant communities Back cover      Hazards in a Fickle Environment: Bangladesh C.E. Haque, 2012-12-06 This book evolved from a collaborative research project between the University of Manitoba Canada and Jahangirnagar University Bangladesh which commenced in 1984 to study the problems of river channel migration rural population displacement and land relocation in Bangladesh The study was sponsored by the International Development Research Center IDRC based in Ottawa Canada It was through this project that I started my journey into disaster research more than thirteen years ago with basically an applied problem of massive magnitude in Bangladesh I spent two and a half years in two stages in Bangladesh s riparian villages to collect the empirical data for this study Then the growing disaster discourse throughout the 1980s especially its conceptual and theoretical areas drew me in further gluing my interest to these issues In the 1990s during my research and teaching at Brandon University Canada I realized that despite the large body of literature on natural disasters there was no work that synthesized the approaches to nature triggered disasters in a comprehensive form with sufficient empirical substantiation In addition despite the great deal of attention given to disasters in Bangladesh I found no detailed reference book on the topic Natural hazards and disasters in my view should be studied under a holistic framework encompassing the natural environment society and individuals Overreaction to the limitations of technocratic scientific approaches the control and prevention of physical events through specialized knowledge and skills has resulted in a call for taking the naturalness out of natural disasters      Ideas and Trends in World Anthropology Charles Frantz, 1981

Margaret Mead Margaret Mead, 1976 The book contains a full bibliography missing only the last few years and an introduction by Mead on her writings      Facets of Economic Development Gedam Ratnakar M, 1989      The Modernization of Inner Asia Cyril E. Black, Louis Dupree, Elizabeth Endicott-West, Daniel C. Matuszewski, Eden Naby, Arthur N. Waldron, 2016-09-16 Inner Asia in premodern times the little known land of nomads and semi nomads has moved to the world s front page in the 20th century as the complex struggles for the future of Afghanistan Soviet Central Asia Tibet and other territories make clear But because Inner Asia as a whole is divided among several states politically and among area specialists academically broad perspectives on recent events are difficult to find This work treats the region as a single unit providing both an account of the region s past and an analysis of its present and its prospects in a thematic rather than a strictly country by country manner      Women Among Women Jeanette Dickerson-Putman, Judith K. Brown, 1998 Cross cultural in nature the volume looks at relationships between women of different age groups in a village in Taiwan a town in central Sudan a rural setting in western Kenya an Andean peasant community a horticultural village in Melanesia and an Aboriginal community in Australia Adding an interspecies perspective is a study of two age groups of Japanese macaque monkeys Included is an ethnographic bibliography that lists books with a wealth of information on women in sixty societies

Perspectives on Anthropology, 1976, 1977 Foreign Affairs Research Papers Available Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center, 1973 Bible translation and the spread of the church Philip C. Stine, 2016-04-26 The growth of the Church in the last two centuries has been paralleled by an explosion in the number of languages into which all or part of the Bible has been translated This book is perhaps the first serious effort to examine a number of issues related to that phenomenon among them how theology can affect the kind of translation prepared and how the type of translation itself can affect the theology of a church It also addresses the topics of why a church generally develops faster and with a deeper faith if it has the Bible how decisions of text canon exegesis type of language and type of translation are related to the matter of authority what forces are at play in a culture to which a translator must be sensitive and how Bible translation affects a society and culture The authors of these papers are distinguished scholars in the fields of missiology history cultural anthropology theology or church history Some address theological issues of Bible translation and others the cultural and political questions But ultimately they conclude that if the church of tomorrow is to grow and not be fragmented then access to the Bible will be crucial
