Paul Johnson The Spectator A thoroughly good read. Paul Johnson Sunday Telegraph A sympathetic and perceptive biography. Rider Haggard and the Lost Empire Tom Pocock, 1993 Rider Haggard and the Imperial Occult Simon Magus, 2021-12-06 In Rider Haggard and the Imperial Occult Simon Magus offers the first academic monograph on the world of occult thought which lies behind and beneath the fictional writing of H. Rider Haggard. It engages with a broad scope of religious, philosophical and anthropological ideas. Many of these were involved in debates within the controversies of the Anglican Church which occurred in the face of Darwinism and the criticism of the Bible. The book follows three main intellectual currents involved in the promulgation of these ideas namely the reception of ancient Egypt, the resurgence of Romanticism and the ideas of the Theosophical Society all couched within the context of Empire.

The Buried Man Stephen Coan, 2025-06-15 H. Rider Haggard 1856-1925 author of King Solomon's Mines, Allan Quatermain and She was no stranger to the continent where his bestsellers were set. He lived in southern Africa from 1875 to 1881, a period that witnessed Britain's attempted confederation of the sub-continent, the Anglo-Zulu War of 1879 and the final subjugation of its indigenous peoples. In this new biography the South African aspect of Haggard's life is explored in hitherto unrecorded detail. The success of King Solomon's Mines saw him relinquish a legal career to write full-time; he also became a respected agricultural expert and social commentator, receiving a knighthood for his public service. Haggard wrote over seventy books, fiction and non-fiction. His African adventure stories feature strong black characters and the majority of his novels assertive female ones, not least She. Haggard's unwitting expression of the Victorian sub-conscious attracted the interest of both Freud and Jung. Haunted by a lost love, the tragic death of his only son and frequent bouts of depression, he endlessly probed the conundrums of life and death Containing much new material this biography explores Haggard s personal and public life to resurrect the writer whom Graham Greene an admirer called the buried man The New Journalism, the New Imperialism and the Fiction of Empire, 1870-1900 Andrew Griffiths,2015-08-25 Aggressive policy enthusiastic news coverage and sensational novelistic style combined to create a distinctive image of Britain s Empire in late Victorian print media The New Journalism the New Imperialism and the Fiction of Empire 1870 1900 traces this phenomenon through the work of editors special correspondents and authors The Great Detective at the Crucible of Life Thomas Kent Miller,2018-02-12 Across Ethiopia and beyond Sherlock Holmes encounters both the hideous and the divine ripping asunder the fragile veil separating us from worlds unknown all while in the company of the renowned Allan Quatermain The last of Allan Quatermain s true African adventures to appear The Treasure of the Lake was published nearly a century ago in 1926 Those who lusted to vicariously accompany Quatermain on new perilous treks into the vast reaches of the Dark Continent as they had done to King Solomon s Mines had no choice but to remain disappointed UNTIL NOW Recently found amongst some obscure papers at Brown University this new manuscript chronicles a complex and inspired quest headed by Quatermain deep into the earthquake and volcano ripped Danakil Desert of Ethiopia in 1872 accompanied by his devoted aide de camp Hans and a host of the nineteenth century s most prodigious luminaries including astronomer Maria Mitchell volcanologist Axel Lindenbrock and Gunnery Sergeants Daniel Dravot and Peachy Carnehan Along the way this ragtag troop is brutally attacked in the desert by its trophy hunting denizens and then they discover a 2 000 year old lost city Yet Holmes and Quatermain s quest is not merely one of surviving in Ethiopia s beautiful yet tortuous landscapes they must confront horror and overcome it As the tale unfolds readers will be swallowed by a maelstrom of concepts relentlessly pulled headlong descending into a scholarly labyrinth of interwoven writings In point of fact Quatermain encounters no less than the very essence of the meaning of life which he then discounts as a wizard s trick Writing and Africa Mpalive-Hangson Msiska,Paul Hyland,2017-07-28 This volume reflects one of the new areas of English Studies as it broadens to take in non western literatures and places more emphasis on the contexts and broader notions of writing In discussing writing from and about Africa this collection touches on studies in black writing colonialism and imperialism and cultural development in the third world It begins by providing a historical introduction to the main regional traditions and then builds on this to discuss major issues such as oral tradition the significance of literature as a western import representations of Africa in western writing African writing against colonialism and its themes and politics in a post colonial world popular writing and the representation of women Empires of Print Patrick Scott Belk,2017-05-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the publishing industries in Britain and the United States underwent dramatic expansions and reorganization that brought about an increased traffic in books and periodicals around the world Focusing on adventure fiction published from 1899 to 1919 Patrick Scott Belk looks at authors such as Joseph Conrad H G Wells Conan Doyle and John Buchan to explore how writers of popular fiction engaged with foreign markets and readers through periodical publishing Belk argues that popular fiction particularly the adventure genre developed in ways that directly correlate with authors experiences and shows that popular genres of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries emerged as one way of marketing their literary works to expanding audiences of readers worldwide Despite an over determined print space altered by the rise of new kinds of consumers and transformations of accepted habits of reading publishing and writing the changes in British and American publishing at the turn of the twentieth century inspired an exciting new period of literary invention and experimentation in the adventure genre and the greater part of that invention and experimentation was happening in the magazines

SHERLOCK HOLMES IN THE FULLNESS OF TIME Thomas Kent Miller, 2016-06 Umberto Eco author of The Name of the Rose and Foucault's Pendulum said It's only publishers and some journalists who believe that people want simple things People are tired of simple things They want to be challenged SEE THE GREAT DETECTIVE MATCH WITS WITH THE SON OF GOD ON THE ROOF OF THE WORLD SEE HIS COVER BLOWN BY THE MOTHER OF GOD AT THE CRUCIBLE OF LIFE SEE HIM SOLVE THE MYSTERY OF GOD AT THE DAWN OF TIME With this trilogy Thomas Kent Miller is for the first time publishing in one volume the wide variety of millennia and centuries old lost manuscripts that he has serendipitously unearthed over 30 years These writings are all linked by their featuring characters introduced by H Rider Haggard prime mover of the lost race literary genre over the course of sixteen books written from 1885 through 1927 and to a lesser extent indeed only referenced obliquely The Great Detective over three decades Dictionary of Literary Biography Yearbook 1993 James Hipp, 1994 This annual compendium includes original material covering a given years literary highlights including obituaries and tributes The Yearbook provides signed essays summarizing the year in poetry fiction biography drama and childrens books as well as scholarly articles interviews biographies and critical studies covering events organizations works writers and the business of literature Volumes include lists of award and honors winners a necrology a cumulative index and more Imagining Africa Lindy Stiebel, 2001-06-30 Best known as the author of such works as King Solomon's Mines and She H Rider Haggard was one of the most popular writers of the late Victorian era and his works continue to be influential today To a large degree his novels are captivating because of his image of Africa and an understanding of his representation of the African landscape is central to a critical reading of his works This book argues that Haggard created in his African romances a formulaic ideological geography which provided a canvas onto which he projected his desires and fears both personal and political as well as those of his age The first full length study of land and landscape in Haggard's African romances this book approaches his construction of an imaginary African landscape as a product of late Victorian wishful thinking about Africa analyzing his African topography as a vast Eden a wilderness a dream underworld a home to ancient white civilizations and a sexualized metaphor for the human body While the work looks primarily at his pre 1892 romances which were his most powerful it also gives attention to his nonfiction and unpublished papers Because Haggard's writings embodied the spirit of his age this book is an essential guide to late Victorian concepts of Africa colonization and the British Empire      Writers' Houses and the Making of Memory Harald Hendrix,2012-08-06 This innovative new book examines the ways in which writers houses contribute to the making of memory It shows that houses built or inhabited by poets and novelists both reflect and construct the author s private and artistic persona it also demonstrates how this materialized process of self fashioning is subsequently appropriated within various strategies and policies of cultural memory      A
