Rietveld The Complete Works:

Gerrit Th. Rietveld Marijke Küper, Centraal museum, 1992 Gerrit Th. Rietveld Marijke Küper, 1992 Gerrit Th. Rietveld, 1888-1964 Gerrit Thomas Rietveld, Marijke Küper, Ida van Zijl, 1992 As architect and designer Gerrit Rietveld Utrecht 1888 1964 is one of the great international figures of this century His work was basically user friendly and he always tried to see architecture as something for people Reacting against the conventions with which he had grown up the driving force behind Rietveld's development became a quest for the essentials of architecture and design This led in 1918 to the now over familiar Red Blue Chair and six years after that to the internationally acclaimed Rietveld Schroeder House This house built in 1924 signified both an end and a beginning in Rietveld's career Whereas in the preceding years he had progressed from cabinet maker to architect and designer of a complete living environment he was now to concentrate largely on architecture More and more he voiced his support for a functional architecture in which he introduced new constructional methods and where the significance of form and colour was lessened After the Second World War he contributed to the Dutch reconstruction Neighbourhoods in Utrecht and Reeuwijk were built according to his design Within the straitjacket of regulations building stipulations and budgetary restrictions Rietveld contrived to introduce in a highly original but flexible manner the functional and aesthetic principles that he had defined before the war Always experimenting to find the right form always faithful to his principles his work was nevertheless of a huge diversity This variety is what makes Rietveld what he is Gerrit Th. Rietveld: the Complete Works 1888-1964 Marijke Kuper, Ida van Zijl, 1992 Gerrit Th. Rietveld The Complete Works Marijke Küper Zijl (Ida van), 1992 Gerrit Rietveld M. Kuper, 1998 Women and the Making of the Modern House Alice T. Friedman, 2006-01-01 Investigates how women patrons of architecture were essential catalysts for innovation in domestic architectural design This book explores the challenges that unconventional attitudes and ways of life presented to architectural thinking and to the architects themselves Architect's Drawings A Selection of Sketches by World Famous Architects through History, 2025-08-31 Architect's Drawings A Selection of Sketches by Architects Through History is a fascinating journey into the role of sketches in the design process From the Renaissance to contemporary practice this book explores how architects have used drawings not just as technical tools but as instruments of imagination inspiration and communication Encyclopedia of Interior Design Joanna Banham, 1997-05 First published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 1997 Expanded to twice as many entries as the 1985 edition and updated with new publications new editions of previous entries titles missed the first time around more of the artists own writings and monographs that deal with significant aspects or portions of an artist's work though not all of it The listing is alphabetical by artist and the index by author The works cited include analytical and critical biographical and enumerative their formats range from books and catalogues raisonnées to exhibition and auction sale catalogues A selection of biographical dictionaries containing information on artists is arranged by country Annotation

Patio and Pavilion Penelope Curtis, 2008 This book examines the relationship between modern sculpture and architecture in the mid twentieth century an interplay that has laid the ground for the semi sculptural or semi architectural works by architects such as Frank Gehry and artists such as Dan Graham The first half of the book looks at how the addition of sculpture enhanced several architectural projects including Mies van der Rohe's Barcelona Pavilion 1929 and Eliel Saarinen's Cranbrook Campus 1934 The second half of the book uses several additional case studies including Philip Johnson's sculpture court for New York's Museum of Modern Art 1953 to explore what architectural spaces can add to the sculpture they are designed to contain Curtis argues that it was in the middle of the twentieth century before sculptural and architectural forms began to converge that the complementary nature of though essential difference between the two art forms began to clearly emerge how figurative sculpture highlighted the modernist architectural experience and how the abstract qualities of that architecture imparted to sculpture a heightened role

Architects' Drawings Kendra Schank Smith, 2006-08-11 Sketches from prominent architects drawn from an international selection A unique insight into how architects use sketches to develop and transfer complex concepts into physical form enabling readers to improve the connection between their own ideas and designs Reveals the secrets of the most successful sketching techniques used by architects for today's designers

The Secret Life of the Modern House Dominic Bradbury, 2021-04-01 Informative and entertaining this publication is a feast for the eyes while also thought provoking and offers excellent inspiration for daydreaming about what makes the perfect modern house Wallpaper A fascinating selection of innovative homes this is a thoughtful journey through the evolution of domestic architecture Sunday Express Over the last century the way that we live at home has changed dramatically Nothing short of a design revolution has transformed our houses and the spaces within them moving from traditional patterns of living all the way through to an era of more fluid open plan and modern styles Whether we live in a new home or a period house our spaces will have been shaped one way or another by the pioneering Modernists and Mid century architects and designers who argued for a fresh way of life Architectural and design writer Dominic Bradbury charts the course of this voyage all the way from the late 19th century through to the houses of today in this ground breaking book Over nineteen thematic chapters he explains the way our houses have been reinvented while taking in along the way the giants of Art Deco influential Modernists including Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright as well as post war innovators such as Eero Saarinen and Philip Johnson Taking us from the 20th to the 21st century Bradbury explores the progress of modernity itself and reveals the secret history of our very own homes

Neue Sachlichkeit and Avant-Garde Ralf Grüttemeier, Klaus Beekman, Ben Rebel, 2013 One of the aims of the book is to shed more light on the notion Neue Sachlichkeit in its appearance in a variety of fields as painting architecture music photography and literature in order to get a clearer idea of its scope Several contributions will do so by analysing the heterogeneity in the use of the term concerning its function in the fight for recognition in the art fields around 1930 in other words Neue Sachlichkeit will be analysed as a positioning strategy Especially its participation in the broader discourse on modernity as well as its international and intermedial dimension will be highlighted often using the historical avant garde as point of reference From this perspective the present volume wants to be read as a plea for a differentiated description of the many shared aspects and some differences between the avant garde and Neue Sachlichkeit
