Rifling Paradise:

Rifling Paradise Jem Poster, 2008-02-05 A dubious character experiences a shattering change of heart during his specimen collecting expedition to Australia Edgy intense and engrossing Kirkus Reviews When past indiscretions catch up with Charles Redbourn a minor English landowner he is propelled from England to Australia where he plans to make his mark as a naturalist There his life begins to change dramatically not least when he meets his host's wayward artistic daughter But it is on an expedition in search of scientific specimens in the Blue Mountains that events take a terrifying turn Vividly conveying the unspoken codes of Victorian society this is a gripping tale of emotional and psychological reckoning that offers an inspired meditation on the relationship between humankind and the natural world Immediately gripping An epic tale whose figures in landscape encapsulate a turning point in history The Times Literary Supplement Poster's prose is at its best when describing the flora and fauna exotic birds especially the sounds and smells of the outback A stylish assured and thoughtful narrative The Guardian Violence seethes perpetually just below the surface all the more powerful for the author's restraint Rifling Paradise is one of those historical novels that continually confronts us with our present world the world created out of the brutality and disaster of the past but also out of its graces a world we may not yet be mature enough to save Historical Novels

Courting Shadows Jem Poster, 2009-01-27 A fantastically tightly written read every word novel As a psychological thriller it's as close to wonderful as anything I've recently read The Guardian In the winter of 1881 John Stannard a young architect is in self-imposed exile in a remote English village carrying out repairs to the parish church Arrogant and insensitive to what he considers superstition and sentimental attachment to the past he soon begins to inflict serious damage on the ancient building as well as on those with whom he comes into contact most notably the beautiful ambitious local girl Ann Rosewell This is the mesmerizing tale of a man who clings ferociously to his warped notion of civilized behavior unwilling to admit his need for love Set in a vividly evoked landscape and taut with foreboding Jem Poster's striking first novel pits reason against emotion progress against preservation and explores our capacity for invention and self-delusion the stories we tell each other and the stories we tell ourselves A dazzling debut Wholly involving from start to finish Publishers Weekly starred review Written in lavishly beautiful prose this is a consistently tense tale of rationality self-delusion and epidemic superstition Booklist

Neo-Victorian Families Christian Gutleben,2011 Tracing representations of re imagined Victorian families in literature film and television and social discourse this collection the second volume in Rodopi s Neo Victorian Series analyses the historical trajectory of persistent but increasingly contested cultural myths that coalesce around the heterosexual couple and nuclear family as the supposed normative foundation of communities and nations past and present It sheds new light on the significance of families as a source of fluctuating cultural capital deployed in diverse arenas from political debates social policy and identity politics to equal rights activism and analyses how residual as well as emergent ideologies of family are mediated and critiqued by contemporary arts and popular culture This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of neo Victorian studies as well as scholars in contemporary literature and film studies cultural studies and the history of the family Situating the nineteenth century family both as a site of debilitating trauma and the means of ethical resistance against multivalent forms of oppression neo Victorian texts display a fascinating proliferation of alternative family models albeit overshadowed by the apparent recalcitrance of familial ideologies to the same historical changes neo Victorianism reflects and seeks to promote within the cultural imaginary Transforming Anthony Trollope Laurence
