series and 167 individual films primarily released during the 1930s. It was a decade that featured some of the most famous cinema detectives of all time among them Charlie Chan, Nick and Nora Charles, Philo Vance, Nancy Drew and such lesser known but equally entertaining figures as Hildegarde Withers, Torchy Blane, Mr Moto, Mr Wong and Brass Bancroft. Each mystery movie series is placed within its historical context with emphasis on its source material and the changes or developments within the series over time. Also included are reviews of all the series films analyzing the quality and cohesiveness of the mystery plotlines. For titles based on literary sources a comparison between the film and the written work is provided.

Imperial Japan on Screen, 1931-2022 Bob Herzberg, 2023-08-10. This book deals with film depictions of Imperial Japan from the time it was a totalitarian power to the productions of recent years. It especially covers wartime depictions as well as the historical events that inspire the stories behind these productions. In the 1930s Hollywood gave us the likeable Mr Moto at the same time Japan was set on its expansionist course. When war broke out both the Allies and the Axis produced propaganda films that increased hatred for the enemy. In the postwar years as the Cold War took hold the U.S. government encouraged friendship with their former wartime enemy. This book details correspondence between studio personnel and the Production Code office as well as the critiques of film reviewers, historians and military figures from both sides of the conflict. Also examined are behind the scenes machinations from both the Japanese and American governments in the censorship of controversial film content.
