Rights Now World Poverty And The Oxfam Campaign:

Rights Now! Dave Dalton,1995 This work explains why so many people are poor and powerless It shows what some of them are doing about it how ordinary people in Britain can support them and what governments could do if enough people demanded change Oxfam s Campaign aims to prove that the world can abolish poverty Rights Now! Dave Dalton,1995

Challenging Aid in Africa Zoe Marriage,2019-06-12 This is a startling and controversial investigation into the international assistance given to countries at war Marriage points to the similarities in the psychological and political dimensions of international aid and the violence this assistance is supposed to relieve Looking at the game that large aid organizations play by appealing to a moral argument of rights and principles this book investigates the gap between principle and practice in humanitarian assistance in Africa Reshaping World Politics Craig Warkentin,2001 This text examines the ways in which non governmental organizations NGOs contribute to the development and maintenance of global civil society The author investigates eight NGOs and connects their organizational activities to global civil society s constitutive dynamics and processes The Oxfam Poverty Report Kevin Watkins,1995 Fifty years ago the United Nations Charter proclaimed universal rights to shared prosperity peace and security How far has that vision of world citizenship been realised Despite advances in human welfare and technology there is today a growing polarisation between rich and poor One in four of the world s people live in absolute poverty unable to meet their basic needs armed conflict is affecting millions of people and the global environment is under threat Yet there is a failure of political will to address the silent emergency of poverty The Oxfam Poverty Report draws on Oxfam s experience of working in over 70 countries to examine the causes of poverty and conflict It identifies the structural forces which deny people their basic rights and gives a wide range of examples of the ways in which men and women are bringing about positive change at every level from the household to the international arena Oxfam believes that it is time to renew the UN vision of universal basic rights The Report concludes by proposing policy and institutional reforms which would transform international institutions and trading relations and calls for a new commitment to work together to eradicate poverty and bring sustainable peace and security for all the world s people

Tomorrow's Africa John Gwynn,1995 Bringing together a wealth of experience and knowledge from a wide variety of groups and individuals concerned with African affairs the Tomorrow s Africa Conference held in January 1994 constituted a milestone in charting Africa s long march towards genuine economic and political liberty Who Elected Oxfam? Laura Montanaro,2018 What entitles self appointed representatives such as non governmental organizations and celebrity activists to speak and act for others This book argues that such actors can and should be conceptualized as representatives and that they can though do not always represent others in a manner that we can recognize as democratic 80:20 Tony Daly,Ciara Regan,Colm Regan,2016-10-17 A development education resource designed and written by an international group of authors and educationalists It explores inequalities and injustices in an accessible and understandable fashion with infographics

Trade, Food Security, and Human Rights Ying Chen, 2016-02-24 Most scholars attribute systemic causes of food insecurity to poverty human overpopulation lack of farmland and expansion of biofuel programs However as Chen argues here another significant factor has been overlooked The current food insecurity is not absolute food shortage since global food production still exceeds the need of the entire world population but a problem of how to secure access to resources Distorted agricultural trade undermines world food distribution and uneven distribution impedes people s access to food particularly in poor developing countries Examining EU and US agricultural policies and World Trade Organization negotiations in agriculture the author argues how they affect the international agricultural trade claiming that current food insecurity is the result of inequitable food distribution and trade practices The international trade regime is advised to reconcile trade rules with the consideration of food security issues Several other enforceable solutions to reduce world hunger and malnutrition are also advanced including national capacity building the improvement of governance and strategic development of biofuel programs This book will be of great interest to agricultural trade professionals and consultant policy makers in the EU US and developing countries Students and researchers with a concentration on international trade agriculture economics global governance and international law will benefit greatly from this study International Education Aid in Developing Asia I-Hsuan Cheng, Sheng-Ju Chan, 2015-05-22 This book provides an Asian perspective on the timely urgent questions of how international education aid and development should move forward and what development roles Asia should play especially following the end of the UN Millennium Development Goals MDGs and Education for All EFA in 2015 To answer these questions four separate but interwoven parts which analyze and anchor education MDGs and EFA policies and practices by means of diverse case studies of donor states recipient states and states with a dual and transitional role in Asia are addressed On the basis of the analyses a clearer and concrete direction for effectively and sustainably extending international education aid and development beyond 2015 can be derived

Not Breaking the Rules, Not Playing the Game Zoë Marriage, 2006 Using evidence from Sierra Leone Rwanda the Democratic Republic of Congo and Southern Sudan investigates how assistance is formulated and delivered through international nongovernmental organizations NGOs in violent contexts to whom it is given and how it is justified and sustained
